My World War II Story:

My World War II Story Rodolfo Balao, 2012-05-03 Thirteen year old Rodolfo Balao was in church listening to a solemn Mass when Japanese planes flew over his town in the Philippines and bombed the airfield Just days after Rodolfo and his family evacuated to a farm high above Tuguegarao the Japanese took over their town razing and killing until nothing remained except memories Rodolfo's family would not return home for six months In his fascinating memoir Rodolfo tells the striking true story of his experiences in the Philippines during World War II Through compelling vignettes Rodolfo details how his family managed to survive despite their loss of freedom the brutality of the Japanese officers and the constant fear of execution In the face of the chaos of war that enveloped their town Rodolfo also shares joy filled moments as he learned to dance and fell in love After his family escapes once again Rodolfo finds happiness in caring for his new horse Pandy But it is not long before a guerrilla officer demands the horse forcing Rodolfo to bargain with his life join the guerrilla group and change his future forever The deeply personal journey through war and its subsequent effects shared in My World War II Story is a worthy tribute and memorial for Rodolfo and all of those whose lives unwittingly became intertwined with the onset of an unforgettable war

Best Little Stories from World War II C. Brian Kelly, 2010-11-01 The untold stories of bravery triumph and redemption in the depths of the darkest world war Behind the great powers global military conflict and infamous battles are more than 100 incredible stories that bring to life the Second World War During the six years of war were countless little known moments of profound triumph and tragedy bravery and cowardice and good and evil These amazing and unbelievable stories of brotherhood redemption escape and civilian courage shed new light on the war that gripped the entire world Experience the action through the eyes of people like Lieutenant Jacob Beser who was aboard both the Enola Gay and Bock's Car and felt the force of the shockwave that nearly destroyed the planes after dropping the H bombs that obliterated Hiroshima and Nagasaki Professor William Miller who collapsed during a death march of POWs in Germany and was saved by the same man who had rescued him from what would have been a fatal car wreck in Pennsylvania five years earlier The brave civilians who answered the British Admiralty's call to help rescue an army from Dunkirk during the height of a dangerous battle and sailed small fishing boats into relentless German fire ultimately saving 335 000 men from This is the perfect book for any history buff looking for the untold stories of military and civilian daring during World War 2 The Story of World War II. Robert Leckie, 1964 From the rise of Hitler to Japan's surrender told in pictures and simple text

The Courage to Survive: My Papou's Story of WWII Alexandra Constantina Dorow, 2019-10-08 Papou had stories to tell that went unheard until his granddaughter decided to write this book He was not a hero he said He was a boy He didn't choose to fight this war He was drafted He was only 18 a recent high school graduate a child and somebody's son This boy survived landing on Omaha Beach with his friends falling all around him But on the morning of October 7 1944 he was almost fatally injured by a bomb that landed on his tent He learned how to walk again and chose to go straight back to the front lines because he felt that was where he should be with his buddies He came back only to find that he was one of the few in his unit who remained This is a story of WWII It s also a story of love faith courage and hope This book is appropriate for elementary through high school and addresses the US History and Social Studies standard of The World and the US Place in it Conflicts between and among countries and people US World History Sequence Dive! World War II Stories of Sailors & Submarines in the Pacific (Scholastic Focus) Deborah Hopkinson,2016-09-27 Sibert Honor author Deborah Hopkinson paints a vivid portrait of the deadly battles that raged in the Pacific during WWII and the remarkable courage of the US submarine sailors who fought them Dive World War II Stories of Sailors Submarines in the Pacific tells the incredible story of America s little known war within a war US submarine warfare during World War II Following the attack on Pearl Harbor the US entered World War II in December 1941 with only 44 Naval submarines many of them dating from the 1920s With the Pacific battleship fleet decimated after Pearl Harbor it was up to the feisty and heroic sailors aboard the US submarines to stop the Japanese invasion across the Pacific Including breakouts highlighting submarine life and unsung African American and female war heroes award winning author Deborah Hopkinson uses first person accounts archival materials official Naval documents and photographs to bring the voices and exploits of these brave service members to life

World War II and My Military Memories Murray Coffey,2016-05-17 World War II and My Military Memories takes the reader from the author s beginnings in the small town of Myrtle Mississippi where he heard many stories about the First World War from his three uncles Then to the ROTC getting an education at a tough war college then into the service and lots of specialized training and on to combat in Europe in World War II while serving most of the time in the 89th Infantry Division There are stories about the Battle of the Bulge the Rhine River Crossing in Germany liberation of the Ohrdruf Concentration Camp and the then unknown horrors of the Holocaust After the war came service in the Occupation Army with numerous escapades some serious and many that were fun and humorous Later came the Reserves a near miss on the Korean War then completing an education and building a career after the war and finally a trip back to Europe to re live old memories many years later that included a visit to East Germany before the Berlin wall came down So As I Was Saying . . Frank Mankiewicz,Joel Swerdlow,2024-05-01 I first met Robert Kennedy because I spoke Spanish I spoke Spanish because the U S Army taught me that before sending me to France Belgium and Germany to fight Hitler s Army This makes complete sense if you are familiar with military bureaucracy Such is the trademark wit of Frank Mankiewicz With his dry sense of humor and self deprecating humility despite his many accomplishments Frank s voice speaks from the pages of So as I was Saying in a way that is both conversational and profound Before he died in 2014 Frank s fascinating life took him from Beverly Hills to the battlefields of Europe from the halls of power in Washington D C to the far corners of the world A lifelong student of humanity and mentor to many including presidents Frank was a loving father husband and friend and his legacy is will endure for generations Born into Hollywood royalty but determined to make his own way Frank served in World War Two wrote speeches for Robert Kennedy ran a presidential campaign carried messages to Fidel Castro served as president of National Public Radio helping create Morning Edition and as regional director for the Peace Corps Naturally such a long and interesting life gave rise to a myriad of opinions and Frank was not afraid to share them In this intriguing insightful and often humorous memoir Frank recalls his favorite memories while sharing his opinions on everything from Zionism to smartphones Imbued with the personality of one of the twentieth century s most gifted raconteurs So As I Was Saying invokes nostalgia for the past even as it gives hope for the future

Bargain Basement War Heroes Bernard F. Flynn, 2015-05-11 A World War II Merchant Marine combat veteran does more than just rock the boat with this book This grandpa opens up a can of worms that should cause some squirming in high places past present or future

- 1 Kennedys assassination Oswald the State Department Congress and big name personalities are all featured and highlighted in Grandpas story within
- 2 Accusations of a criminal law that was enacted by the wartime Congress which removed every government benefit that the early volunteers for the Merchant Marine had and reclassified them as migrant workers
- 3 Why was there acceptance of the never ending scapegoating of these brave heroes which was nothing but pure self serving lies and distortions by the press broadcast media politicians and higher ups in the military
- 4 Read the absolute truth about the Merchant Marine that is related in this book You can make up your own mind about the wartime Merchant Marine Their wartime contribution to winning that war is incontrovertible Why was the report to President Truman at the end of the war kept a war secret and not made available until 2009 sixty five years later
- 5 Read the authors take on the wartime start up of his alma mater the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point New York which is now considered the hidden treasure of our federal academies
- 6 It is doubtful if any of our seamen especially our African American volunteers understood what really happened in the wartime Congress Those thousands of widows and children who lost all benefits should force a federal disclosure of the facts and the hope of this book is to put them all on full alert The disclaimer and speculation is clearly indicated in the early part of this book

God in My Life 2 Roberts, Rita Kay Crowder, Sometimes it seems like God is in hiding that the miracles we read about in the Bible are a distant memory But that is not the case Whether it is in an ordinary circumstance or an extraordinary one God is there The author Rita Roberts has experienced both the ordinary and the extraordinary and wants you to know that even in the simplest of situations you are not alone Her experiences around the globe have taught her to look for God in every calling post or pursuit and it is her goal to show people that God is in everyone's life even YOURS dear reader Rita shares her experiences in this book and each story has a message of God's presence From a rescue on a snowy road to a miraculous mechanic in white who saves the day or to dozens of unharmed children on an overturned bus each instance shared here shows us what God can do everyday and in every way in our lives Miracles are alive and well if we take the time to notice them and appreciate them The Making of Perfect Soldiers Phil Pisani,

The Little Exile Jeanette Arakawa, 2017-04-17 An American girl of Japanese ancestry is exiled in her own country after Japan attacks Pearl Harbor After Pearl Harbor little Marie Mitsui who considers herself a typical American girl sees her life of school and playing with friends in San Francisco totally upended Her family and 120 000 others of Japanese ancestry are forcibly relocated to internment camps far from home Living conditions in the camps are harsh life after camp is similarly harsh but in the end as she and her family make their way back to San Francisco Marie sees hope for the future Told from a child's perspective The Little Exile deftly conveys Marie's innocence wonder fear and outrage Though names and some details have been altered this is the author's own life story She believes that underlying everyone's experience no matter how varied are threads of humanity that bind us all It is her hope that readers of all ages are able to find those threads in her story Letters from the Battlefield Jerry Countess, 2005-04 Letters traces a soldier's journey across the battlefields of North Africa Sicily and Italy He survives hardships heartbreak and longing for his love and grows from boyhood to manhood

Boys' Life , 1968-10 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Stories of Our Lives Frank de Caro, 2013-05-15 In Stories of Our Lives Frank de Caro demonstrates the value of personal narratives in enlightening our lives and our world We all live with legends family sagas and anecdotes that shape our selves and give meaning to our recollections Featuring an array of colorful stories from de Caro's personal life and years of field research as a folklorist the book is part memoir and part exploration of how the stories we tell listen to and learn play an integral role in shaping our sense of self De Caro's narrative includes stories within the story among them a near mythic capture of his golden haired grandmother by Plains Indians a quintessential Italian rags to riches grandfather and his own experiences growing up in culturally rich 1950s New York City living in India amid the fading glories of a former princely state conducting field research on Day of the Dead altars in Mexico and coming home to a battered New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina Stories of Our Lives shows that our lives are interesting and that the stories we tell however particular to our own circumstances or trivial they may seem to others reveal something about ourselves our societies our cultures and our larger human existence

American Women During World War II Doris Weatherford, 2009-10-16 American Women during World War II documents the lives and stories of women who contributed directly to the war effort via official and semi official military organizations as well as the millions of women who worked in civilian defense industries ranging from aircraft maintenance to munitions manufacturing and much more It also illuminates how the war changed the lives of women in more traditional home front roles All women had to cope with rationing of basic household goods and most women volunteered in war related programs Other entries discuss institutional change as the war affected every aspect of life including as schools hospitals and even religion American Women during World War II provides a handy one volume collection of information and images suitable for any public or professional library Congressional Record United States.
