 Hastings, Ann Wilson Hastings, Edward Hastings, 1907 A Year of Prayers Jack Bartlett, 2011-06-10 The 365 poems in this collection one for every day of the year are a journey through prayer The objective of the poems is to serve as an accompaniment to prayer silently in the form of a verse The initial inspiration of these writings was from the Psalms but there is referenced material throughout the Scriptures as well as events that occurred in history and in the author's daily life With only a few exceptions the prayer poems are not date specific denomination specific or even specific to the author only but to everyone The poems speak of subjects such as faith death nature freedom love beauty and history Each poem is intended to be able to stand on its own independent of the others These poems are unique in that they are prayers first poems second and could be considered daily devotions spiritual meditations or as a resource for pastors of all Christian denominations They are written so that they could also be crossover poetry and could be attractive to secular tastes as well The monumental task of writing this many poems brought the author's attention to prayer itself and to the nature of artistic expression which cannot be forced but must come of its own The succeeding visitations of the ideas or inspirations gave reason to believe that not surprisingly the author had help from the very ONE being written to and about *The treasury of
