Christianizing Homer Dennis R. MacDonald,1994-04-21 This study focuses on the apocryphal Acts of Andrew c 200 CE which purports to tell the story of the travels miracles and martyrdom of the apostle Andrew Traditional scholarship has looked for the background of such writings in Jewish and Christian scriptures MacDonald however breaks with that model and looks to classic literature for the sources of this story Specifically he argues that the Acts represent an attempt to transform Greco Roman myth into Christian narrative categories by telling the story of Andrew in terms of Homeric epic in particular the Odyssey MacDonald presents a point by point comparison of the two works finding the resemblances so strong numerous and tendentious that they virtually compel the reader to consider the Acts a transformative rewriting of the epic This discovery not only sheds valuable light on the uses of Homer in the early church but also significantly contributes to our understanding of the reception of Homer in the empire as a whole
