My Grandma Likes To Say:

My Grandma Likes to Say Denise Brennan-Nelson, 2013 Following in the footsteps of My Momma Likes to Say comes the charming My Grandma Likes to Say Thousands of proverbs and idioms can be found in the English language Derived from many different sources these expressions are a wonderful link to history and culture and can be an instructive tool in language education That s a horse of a different color My grandma likes to say I m not sure what she means But I like it anyway Polka dots and stripes Yellow orange and blue What color would a horse be If it were up to YOU Original paintings conceived from a child s point of view provide a hilarious visual interpretation of those sayings oft quoted by the senior members of our families Denise Brennan Nelson also wrote Someday Is Not a Day of the Week winner of an IRA Children s Choice award Atireless promoter and enthusiastic speaker Denise visits countless schools and educational conferences each year and runs a motivational speaking program through her company Goosebumps She lives with her family in Howell Michigan In addition to the Likes to Say books Jane Monroe Donovan has illustrated three other titles for Sleeping Bear Press including the bookseller holiday favorite Winter s Gift and the recently released Black Beauty s Early Days in the Meadow Jane lives in Pinckney Michigan

Drita, My Homegirl Jenny Lombard, 2008-05-15 A poignant story about the difficulties of leaving everything behind and the friendships that help you get through it Fleeing war torn Kosovo ten year old Drita and her family move to America with the dream of living a typical American life But with this hope comes the struggle to adapt and fit in How can Drita find her place at school and in her new neighborhood when she doesn t speak any English Meanwhile Maxie and her group of fourth grade friends are popular in their class and make an effort to ignore Drita So when their teacher puts Maxie and Drita together for a class project things get off to a rocky start But sometimes when you least expect it friendship can bloom and overcome even a vast cultural divide authors Lynne R Dorfman and Rose Cappelli now turn their attention to poetry In Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne and Rose show teachers how to use poems in both reading and writing workshops and across content areas Written in a friendly conversational tone this practical book explores a variety of poetic forms including poems that inspire response list poems acrostic poems persona poems and poems for two voices versatile forms of poetry that can be used in every grade Each of these poetic forms has its own chapter featuring five poems with applications for both reading and writing classrooms Reading connections present skills and strategies to move students forward as readers helping them to build fluency vocabulary comprehension phonemic awareness and phonics Writing connections help students and teachers discover their own voices and grow as poets and wordsmiths as they try out many poetic forms Poems help students at all grade levels learn to better address complex reading texts offering them a chance to dig deeper and use higher order thinking skills Additionally Your Turn writing lessons provide a scaffold for seamlessly moving from modeling to the shared or guided experience and the transfer to independent work The Treasure Chest offers a brief annotation of the poems discussed in each chapter as well as companion pieces that extend and enhance the work of the reading and writing classroom Poetry Mentor Texts helps teachers across the curriculum guide their students to become not only skilled readers and writers but also more empathetic human beings

For My Good, But for His Glory Tarrian Lashun Pace, 2003-08 Mixed-Race, Post-Race Suki Ali, 2020-05-27 Social scientists claim that we now live in a post race society where race has been replaced by ethnicity Yet racism is endemic to British society and people often think in terms of black and white With a marked rise in the number of children from mixed parentage there is an urgent need to challenge simplistic understandings of race nation and culture and interrogate what it means to grow up in Britain and claim a mixed identity Focusing on mixed race and inter ethnic families this book not only explores current understandings of race but it shows using innovative research techniques with children how we come to read race What influence do photographs and television have on childrens ideas about race How do children use memories and stories to talk about racial differences within their own families How important is the home and domestic culture in achieving a sense of belonging Ali also considers through data gathered from teachers and parents broader issues relating to the effectiveness of anti racist and multicultural teaching in schools and parental concerns over the social mobility and social acceptability of their children Rigorously researched this book is the first to combine childrens accounts on race and identity with contemporary cultural theory Using fascinating case studies it fills a major gap in this area and provides an original approach to writing on race

Secrets and Scones Laurel Remington, 2018-11-06 Can Scarlett discover the secret ingredient to happiness Scarlett is sick of being the star and victim of her mom s famous blog Her solution Become completely boring and deprive her mom of embarrassing material The only problem is being boring is well boring So when Scarlett finds a gorgeous kitchen in the house next door left empty by an elderly neighbor during a hospital stay it s too tempting to resist Before she really knows what she s doing Scarlett is whipping up a batch of scones and making an unexpected friend But can they keep their baking a secret And can Scarlett find the secret ingredients to cake family and friendship
