My Special Care Scrapbook for Foster Children Karen Jean Matsko Hood,2014-01-01 This scrapbook is especially designed for foster children to help them to remember their unique and sometimes complicated journeys through life. Scrapbooking provides an outlet of expression that may not be available in any other form. Families get involved and show their foster children how much they love them by helping them fill in the pages of this book. Author Karen Jean Matsko Hood has written My Special Care Scrapbook for Foster Children to keep those special memories, reflections, and thoughts in a safe place for your foster child. Help them fill it with photographs, memoirs, stickers, and awards to complete the book of memories that will be treasured for life. You can even add any information to this scrapbook that you may obtain prior to your child's adoption so that they know more of the special people who cared for them while they are in foster care. The author has first-hand experience raising foster children and she knows how.

My New Adventure Debra Woodward, Timothy Wolff, Candice Wolff, 2019-10-23. My New Adventure is a workbook that helps a child understand what is happening during a removal and then being placed in a foster home. This interactive workbook allows children to express their feelings in a way that is natural to them. They can draw, write, or even verbally respond. This workbook can be completed with the social worker or the foster parent as part of a bonding process. 100% of the proceeds will go toward the education and training to the foster families in our communities.

You Can Make It Through Foster Care Godella Petty, 2020-11-10. Being in foster care can be a hard pill to swallow for any child, any age. This journal can be used to help them through this time in their life. What child wants to be away from their mom and dad? Here we have shared the experience of being in foster care and have made room so that the child can save their memories. Every experience is not the same, but we can help children have a more understanding time while away from their family.

Peacock Feathers Lmhc Mizrachi, 2023-02-13. To every child who has graced my life and to those whose hand was held. Also to the servants, those fellow warriors who extended their hands. Your stories are written forever on my heart. This is His love story to you. I have watched millions of children come in and out of the foster care system. This story was born because I had witnessed so much pain. But I kept working because I had so much hope. And one day a peacock really did come and stand outside of the door of the shelter where intake occurred. I know a lot of foster parents and friends who share my burden and want every child to know that they are loved and to find their forever home. The purpose of this book is for healing. This is my response to all those children whose hearts were our purpose and to every foster parent and worker within the juvenile dependency system who refused to give up on our children. Those who came to work tired who chose love. You are all as beautiful as that peacock. This book is to help you to connect and heal and to be a mirror so that anyone who feels broken can see themselves in the eyes of God.

My Life and Me Jean Camis, 2002. Children separated from their birth families are often denied the opportunity to know about their past that other children may take for granted. Life story work offers a structured way for children to build a sense of self-worth and develop a valuable record about themselves which they can carry with them through life. For use by children of any background or lifestyle, colour-coded sections include space for drawings, photos, documents, and a record of thoughts and feelings, as well as advice.

for parents and caretakers The first fully comprehensive life story workbook     Love You from Right Here Jamie Sandefer, 2017-05-02 Love You From Right Here takes you through an abbreviated look at the emotions a young foster child experiences throughout her transition in a new foster home It also serves as a keepsake book with a journaling section providing the foster family an opportunity to give the child a piece of their history when they leave     My Foster Parents Dr. Jamillah Smith, 2021-10-29 This book is about a young girl that was placed in a caring and supportive foster home The author wrote this book to help young children like Josie and herself when she was Josie's age with transitioning into an unfamiliar home There are challenges some children will face while in the care of their foster parents This book includes tips for children to help them during those difficult moments
