Painted From Memories Barbara Forte Abate, 2016-12-12 She considers telling him the truth that she isn't the person he thinks she is but in the end she doesn't To say something is to potentially say everything And it is simply too late The emotionally fractured casualty of a hideous childhood tragedy Catherine has at last found her happy ever after in the person of Grayson Barnett and it is the promise of a freshly polished future that compels her to bury the poisonous trail of her past beneath the purposeful lies and omissions she offers her new husband But now with the inherent shame of her traumatic history secreted away and losing hold Cat finds herself increasingly troubled as Gray falls into an erratic pattern of late night wanderings through the house painting the bare walls with extravagant murals And only when the unthinkable happens a devastating blow which leaves her broken and spiraling and an unexpected arrival on her doorstep bearing a cache of impossible revelations is Cat forced to question whether the man she so desperately loves is in truth a stranger and their beautiful life a gross falsehood constructed upon a foundation of lies 2014 winner of Honorable Mention in the Royal Dragonfly Book Awards
