Treadup is the protagonist of John Hersey s magnificent novel a novel whose richness of character color and incident both explores the evangelical impulse in this country the peculiarly American spirit of wanting to help others and reflects the whole complex history of China from 1900 to the aftermath of World War II The Call is the story of one man s spiritual odyssey as he strives to reconcile his commitment to God with his love of the struggling mass of Chinese humanity to whom he pledges his life It is the story of an American family choosing to make a home for themselves in an alien world that is sometimes exhilarating sometimes overwhelming always surprising and periodically inundated by history famine war revolution It is the story of a marriage of abiding partnership of a wife at once strong and vulnerable struggling to be close to a husband whose awesome challenge to somehow make the world a better place for the Chinese people will always claim him Treadup s large adventure opens out from rural upstate New York where he is raised on a struggling isolated farm to the Syracuse campus where caught up in evangelical fervor he is struck by a blinding light through the voice of a Scottish rugby player and answers the Call to vast and turbulent China where he is sent by the Y M C A to save souls There in the face of this three thousand year old civilization the tall gregarious ambitious American becomes quickly aware of his own insufficiency But Treadup s astonishing resourcefulness who would think that a gyroscope could sway multitudes and his ever growing passion to penetrate to the heart of China to bring its yearning people into the twentieth century fire his energies again and again over the years of triumphs and frustrations of rekindled vision and lost hopes John Hersey himself the child of a missionary family in China brings to this deeply human story a profound and intimate knowledge of the life it encompasses giving us an extraordinary authenticity of place and feeling It is his crowning achievement Dance Into

Community Self-Definition in Luke-Acts and the Writings of Justin Martyr Susan Wendel,2011-02-14 Scholars of Christian origins often regard Luke Acts and the writings of Justin Martyr as similar accounts of the replacement of Israel by the non Jewish church According to this view both authors commandeer the Jewish scriptures as the sole possession of non Jewish Christ believers rather than of Jews Offering a fresh analysis of the exegesis of Luke and Justin this book uncovers significant differences between their respective depictions of the privileged status that Christ believers hold in relation to the Jewish scriptures Although both authors argue that Christ believers alone possess an inspired capacity to interpret the Jewish scriptures unlike Justin Luke envisages an ongoing role for the Jewish people as recipients of the promises that God pledged to Israel Transformative Lutheran Theologies Mary J. Streufert,2010 The first of its kind this book is a systematic presentation of Lutheran feminist womanist and mujerista theologies systematic in that it addresses classical loci of systematic theology contemporary in that it is resoundingly constructive and relevant for the contemporary church and feminist in that the contributors write from a feminist perspective although they reflect a variety of positions within feminist discourse The contributors to this multi authored work share a common commitment to Lutheran theology as a continual process of reform Luther is a partner in the conversation because of his theological insights and commitment to faithful criticism which the writers seek to continue not because his voice settles a debate The book focuses on central themes that Luther addressed and that are representative of Lutheranism today including justification by grace through faith and Luther's theology of the cross From diverse contexts these Lutheran theologians like Luther seek reformation by giving voice to new perspectives in theology that continue to transform the church and the world Along with Mary J Streufert contributors include Krista E Hughes Kathryn A Kleinhans Kristen E Kvam L DeAne Lagerquist Mary E Lowe Lois Malcolm Anna Mercedes Cynthia Moe Lobeda Cheryl M Peterson Mary Joy Philip Caryn D Riswold Deanna A Thompson Marit Trelstad Alicia Vargas and Beverly Wallace A remarkable addition to the rich history of Lutheran theology Not only have these theologians opened doors to fresh new worlds of Lutheran thought they've done so in a way that honors the past by extending it forward I can't wait to use Transformative Lutheran Theologies in class I've been waiting twenty years for a text like this Imagine teaching Luther's thought and placing it by side with these cutting edge essays Luther would no doubt be proud maybe even a bit envious Serene Jones President and Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology Union Theological Seminary New York
