Historical Dictionary of Burma (Myanmar) Donald M. Seekins, 2017-03-27 Burma Myanmar is a Southeast Asian country that is emerging from crisis after more than a half century of hard line military rule and cultural diplomatic and economic isolation With the dissolution of its military regime the State Peace and Development Council in 2011 a formally civilian but military dominated constitutional government was inaugurated By 2012 Burma's president retired General Thein Sein had established a working relationship with Daw Aung San Suu Kyi the leader of the country's pro democracy movement since 1988 and after a 2012 by election she and members of her opposition party the National League for Democracy NLD entered the new Union Parliament as legislators However even with the election victory of Daw Suu Kyi and the NLD in the General Election of November 2015 Burma faces daunting challenges it is still one of the poorest countries in Southeast fissured by longstanding ethnic conflicts that have made a nationwide peace agreement elusive and its people's security and the environment are threatened by foreign economic exploitation Religious discord is also widely evident as Buddhist militants instigate violence against the country's religious minorities especially Muslims Today Burma's prospects are the most hopeful they have been for over half a century as the country takes steps along the road to a more open society and economy This edition of the Historical Dictionary of Burma Myanmar encompasses not only current developments but also Burma's over 1 500 years old recorded history and the most important features of its cultures ethnicity religions society and economy This is done through a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture

Myanmar Monique Skidmore, Trevor Wilson, 2007-10-01 Despite deteriorating economic and developmental conditions worsening environmental problems and troubles arising from the unresolved status of its ethnic minorities Myanmar seems no closer to a political resolution Myanmar's economy continues to stagnate with severe implications for its people Low levels of international assistance have exacerbated the situation Myanmar the state community and the environment examines the missed opportunities by government and opposition groups to find a way out of the political impasse and improve the standard of living of the people of Myanmar This collection provides insights into the country's economic development in particular the vital rice marketing sector and the attempts to expand existing industrial zones It focuses for the first time on Myanmar's environmental governance with in depth case studies and on the increasing need for effective environmental protection and sustainability

Serving Library Users from Asia John Hickok, 2019-06-12 Asian populations are among some of the fastest growing cultural groups in the US While books on serving other target groups in libraries have been published e g disabled Latino seniors etc few books on serving library users of Asian heritage have been written Thus the timely need for this book Rather than a generalized overview of Asians as a whole this book has 24 separate chapters each on 24 specific Asian countries cultures of East Southeast and South Asia with a wealth of resources for understanding interacting with outreaching to and serving library users of each culture Resources include cultural guides both print and online language helps with sample library vocabulary Asian booksellers nationwide cultural groups professional literature and more Resources and suggestions are given for all three types of libraries public school and academic making this book valuable for all librarians The demographics of each Asian culture numbers and distribution plus history of immigration and international student enrollment is also featured As a bonus each chapter spotlights a US public school and academic library providing model outreach to Asian library users Additionally this book provides a detailed description and analysis of libraries in each of the 24 Asian countries The history development facilities conditions technology classification systems and more of public school and academic libraries are all discussed with detailed documentation Country conditions influencing libraries and library use are also described literacy levels reading cultures languages and writing systems educational systems and more Based on the author's 15 years of research and travels to Asia this work is a must have for all librarians You've Changed Pyae Moe

Thet War, 2023-08-08 In this electric debut essay collection a Myanmar millennial playfully challenges us to examine the knots and complications of immigration status eating habits Western feminism in an Asian home and more guiding us toward an expansive idea of what it means to be a Myanmar woman today What does it mean to be a Myanmar person a baker swimmer writer and woman on your own terms rather than those of the colonizer These irreverent yet vulnerable essays ask that question by tracing the journey of a woman who spent her young adulthood in the US and UK before returning to her hometown of Yangon where she still lives In You've Changed Pyae takes on romantic relationships whose futures are determined by different passports switching accents in American taxis the patriarchal Myanmar concept of hpone which governs how laundry is done swimming as refuge from mental illness pleasure and shame around eating rice and baking in a kitchen far from white America's imagination Throughout she wrestles with the question of who she is a Myanmar woman in the West a Western educated person in Yangon a writer who refuses to be labeled a race writer With intimate and funny prose Pyae shows how the truth of identity may be found not in stability but in its gloriously unsettled nature General Ne

Win's Legacy of Burmanization in Myanmar Saw Eh Htoo, Tony Waters, 2024-05-15 This book focuses on how Burmanization created and reinforced ethnic divides since the 1962 coup d'état when General Ne Win concentrated all authority in the Burmese speaking army Background research for the book includes Burmese language materials from the Burmese Socialist Party BSP and others that describe with what the BSP believed in their own terms This is unique from previous works on the topic which either simply pointed out that the policies didn't work and therefore are uninteresting or to claim that they were necessary given the chaos of the previous regime The authors agree that Ne Win's policies didn't work However the book goes further by elaborating why Burmanization policies developed in the 1960s are important for understanding Burmese society today Most importantly Ne Win's ideology reflects how patterns of interethnic relationships in Myanmar lead to the intractability of the battles in early twenty first century Myanmar Daw Aung San Suu Kyi ~ World's Number One

Living Democracy Icon Sayar Mya (MOFA) Mya, 2017-10-06 Chronological events of the life of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi Including all her activities through December 2016 Global Library and Information Science Ismail Abdullahi, 2017-11-07 This 2nd edition of the highly successful Global Library and Information Science presents an up to date review of international librarianship and library science through insightful and well written chapters contributed by experts and scholars from all regions of the world The role of public academic special school libraries as well as library and information science education are presented from the early development to the present time Its lively readable approach will help the reader to understand librarianship in Africa Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe Latin America and the Caribbean and North America Edited by Ismail Abdullahi Professor of Global Library and Information Science this book is a must read by library science students and teachers librarians and anyone interested in Global Librarianship

Myanmar's Long Road to National Reconciliation Trevor Wilson, 2006 In late 2004 Myanmar's best known general and long serving leader of the military regime was suddenly dismissed This generated widespread uncertainty throughout the country and raised questions about the future This book addresses some of the issues

Research-Based Art Practices in Southeast Asia Caroline Ha Thuc, 2022-10-05 This book is the first overall study of research based art practices in Southeast Asia Its objective is to examine the creative and mutual entanglement of academic and artistic research in short the Why When What and How of research based art practices in the region In Southeast Asia artists are increasingly engaged in research based art practices involving academic research processes They work as historians archivists archaeologists or sociologists in order to produce knowledge and or to challenge the current established systems of knowledge production As artists they can freely draw on academic research methodologies and at the same time question or divert them for their own artistic purpose The outcome of their research findings is exhibited as an artwork and is not published or presented in an academic format This book seeks to demonstrate the emancipatory dimension of these practices which contribute to opening up our conceptions of knowledge and of art bestowing a new and promising role to the artists within the society

Women in Modern Burma Tharaphi Than, 2013-11-07 This book challenges the popular notion that Burmese women are powerful and are granted equal rights as men by society Throughout history Burmese women have been represented as powerful and as having equal status to men by western travellers and scholars alike National history about women also follows this conjecture This book explains why actually very few powerful Burmese women exist and how these few women help construct the notion of the high status of Burmese women thereby inevitably silencing the majority of unequal and disempowered women One of the underlying questions throughout this book is why a few powerful women feel compelled to defend the notion that women hold privileged positions in Burmese society Combining historical archives with statistical data published by UN agencies this book highlights the reality of women's status in modern Burma Case studies include why the first Burmese women's army was disbanded a few months after its establishment how women writers assessed the conditions of Burmese women and represented their contemporaries in their works the current state of prostitution how modern day sex workers are trying to find their voice and how women fared vis vis men in education
