main parts namely practices and stages and d the proper use of comparative methodology enables a deeper understanding of each juxtaposed system Eckhart s speculative mysticism which differs from and enjoys similarities with the love based mysticism of Rumi provides a mirror that highlights the special features of Rumi s practical mysticism Such comparison also allows a deeper comprehension of Eckhart s practical thought Offering a critical examination of practical mysticism this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Islamic studies comparative mysticism and the intellectual history of Islam

Islamic Architecture in Iran Saeid Khaghani,2012-07-30 The architecture of the Islamic world is predominantly considered in terms of a dual division between tradition and modernity a division which Saeid Khaghani here argues has shaped and limited the narrative applied to this architecture Khaghani introduces and reconsiders the mosques of eighth to fifteenth century Iran in terms of poststructural theory and developments in historiography in order to develop a brand new dialectical framework Using the examples of mosques such as the Friday Mosques in Isfahan and Yazd as well as the Imam mosque in Isfahan Khaghani presents a new way of thinking about and discussing Islamic architecture making this valuable reading for all interested in the study of the art architecture and material culture of the Islamic world     Mystics William Harmless,2008 In Mystics William Harmless S J introduces readers to the scholarly study of mysticism He explores both mystics extraordinary lives and their no less extraordinary writings using a unique case study method centered on detailed examinations of six major Christian mystics Thomas Merton Bernard of Clairvaux Hildegard of Bingen Bonaventure Meister Eckhart and Evagrius Ponticus Rather than presenting mysticism as a subtle web of psychological or theological abstractions Harless s case study approach brings things down to earth restoring mystics to their historical context     Early Islam Between Myth and History Sulaimān 'Alī Murād,2006 This examination of the mythification of al asan al Ba r shows how the transformation of his historical person into a complete myth was accomplished along with the groups responsible for making him say and do what legitimizes their own views and practices     Martyrdom Ihab Saloul,Jan Willem Henten,2025-10-01 The phenomenon of martyrdom is more than 2000 years old but as contemporary events show still very much alive Martyrdom Canonisation Contestation and Afterlives examines the canonisation contestation and afterlives of martyrdom and connects these with cross cultural acts and practices of remembrance Martyrdom appeals to the imagination of many because it is a highly ambiguous spectacle with thrilling deadly consequences Imagination is thus a vital catalyst for martyrdom for martyrs become martyrs only because others remember and honour them as such This memorialisation occurs through rituals and documents that incorporate and re interpret traditions deriving from canonical texts The canonisation of martyrdom generally occurs in one of two ways First through ritual commemoration by communities of inside readers listeners viewers and participants who create and recycle texts re interpreting them until the martyrs ultimately receive a canonical status or second through commemoration as a means of contestation by competing communities who perceive these same people as traitors or terrorists By adopting an interdisciplinary orientation and a cross cultural approach this book goes beyond both the insider admiration of martyrs and the partisan rejection of martyrdoms and concisely synthesises key interpretive questions and themes that broach the canonised unstable and contested representations of martyrdom as well as their analytical connections divergences and afterlives in the present     Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity Kamran Scot Aghaie, Afshin Marashi, 2014-07-01 While recent books have explored Arab and Turkish nationalism the nuances of Iran have received scant book length study until now Capturing the significant changes in approach that have shaped this specialization Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity shares innovative research and charts new areas of analysis from an array of scholars in the field Delving into a wide range of theoretical and conceptual perspectives the essays all previously unpublished encompass social history literary theory postcolonial studies and comparative analysis to address such topics as Ethnicity in the Islamic Republic of Iran Political Islam and religious nationalism The evolution of U S Iranian relations before and after the Cold War Comparing Islamic and secular nationalism s in Egypt and Iran The German counterrevolution and its influence on Iranian political alliances The effects of Israel s image as a Euro American space Sufism Geocultural concepts in Azar s Atashkadeh Interdisciplinary in essence the essays also draw from sociology gender studies and art and architecture Posing compelling questions while challenging the conventional historiographical traditions the authors many of whom represent a new generation of Iranian studies scholars give voice to a research approach that embraces the modern era s complexity while emphasizing Iranian nationalism s contested multifaceted and continuously transformative possibilities
