Mes Nuits Sont Plus Belles Que Vos Jours:

Le Petit Michel , An Encyclopedia of Continental Women Writers Katharina M. Wilson, 1991 First Published in 1991 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Mes nuits sont plus belles que vos jours Raphaële Billetdoux, 1985 French Prose in 2000, 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Clzio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years Andrzej Zulawski Henri Corinth, 2025-10-01 Andrzej Zulawski 1940 2016 was born in Lw w Poland now Lviv Ukraine and educated in Paris From 1971 to 2015 he directed thirteen feature films Andrzej Zulawski Abject Cinema interprets the director s oeuvre through the methodological lens of Julia Kristeva s notions of the abject and the semiotic chora with the narratives in Zulawski s filmography amounting to an experience of the abject being not merely the state of affairs among the films subjects but also of their collective regression to a semiotic non verbal state divorced from the symbolic verbal visual language employed by cinema as a whole It further contextualizes this interpretation with the sociopolitical circumstances from which Zulawski emerged specifically his Polish homeland occupied by various foreign powers his emigre status in France and the influence of the Polish Romantic movement

French-speaking Women Film Directors Janis L. Pallister, 1997 This guide offers listings of some 300 Francophone women from around the world their work Wherever possible entries include dates brief biographies descriptions brief critical analyses Mes nuits sont plus belles que vos jours Raphaële Billetdoux, Marie Billetdoux, 1989-04 Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges MZli_s Alice Guy BlachZ and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym. The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries, and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard.

The Poetry of Derek Mahon Hugh Haughton, 2010-10-21 Derek Mahon is one of the leading poets of his time both in Ireland and beyond, famously offering a perspective that is displaced from as much as grounded in his native country. From prodigious beginnings to prolific maturity, he has been through thick and thin, through troubled times, and other a writer profoundly committed to the art of poetry and the craft of making verse. He has also been no less a committed reviser of his work, believing the poem to be more than a record in verse but a work of art never finished. This virtuoso study by Hugh Haughton provides the most comprehensive account imaginable of Mahon's oeuvre. Haughton's brilliant writing always serves and illuminates the poetry, yielding extraordinary insights on almost every page. The poetry, its revisions, and reception are the subject here, but so thorough is the approach that what is offered also amounts indirectly to an intellectual biography of the poet and with it an account of Northern Irish poetry vital to our understanding of the times.

House of Psychotic Women Kier-La Janisse, 2015-01-09 Cinema is full of neurotic personalities, but few things are more transfixing than a woman losing her mind onscreen. Horror as a genre provides the most welcoming platform for these histrionics: crippling paranoia, desperate loneliness, masochistic death wishes, dangerous obsessiveness, apocalyptic hysteria. Unlike her male counterpart, the eccentric, the female neurotic lives a shamed existence, making these films those rare places where her destructive emotions get to play. HOUSE OF PSYCHOTIC WOMEN is an examination of these characters through a daringly personal, autobiographical lens. Anecdotes and memories interweave with film history, criticism, trivia, and confrontational imagery to create a reflective personal history and a celebration of female madness, both onscreen and off. This critically acclaimed publication is packed with rare images that combine with family photos and artifacts to form a titillating sensory overload with a filmography that traverses the acclaimed and the obscure in equal measure. Films covered include The Entity, Paranormal Activity, Singapore Sling, 3 Women, Toys Are Not for Children, Repulsion, Let's Scare Jessica to Death, The Haunting of Julia, Secret Ceremony, Cutting Moments Out of the Blue, Mademoiselle, The Piano Teacher, Possession, Antichrist, and hundreds more. Prior to this ebook edition, Kier-La's highly acclaimed book has already been issued twice in hardcover and twice in paperback, garnering extensive press coverage. Endorsement including the following: "God, this woman can write with a voice and intellect that's so new, the truth in the most deadly unique way I've ever read." —Ralph Bakshi, director of Fritz the Cat, Heavy Traffic, Lord of the Rings, etc. Fascinating, engaging, and lucidly written, an extraordinary blend of deeply researched academic analysis and revealing memoir. —Iain Banks, author of The Wasp Factory.

Eva M. Sartori,1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems French women continued writing through the ages their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived A few writers such as Marie de France George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon But critics mostly male had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer s awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers
