James F. Calhoun, Joan Ross Acocella, 1978 Hearing Things Timothy Gould, 1998-11-15 What does philosophy have to do with the human voice Has contemporary philosophy banished the voice from the field of legitimate investigation Timothy Gould examines these questions through the philosopher most responsible for formulating them Stanley Cavell Hearing Things is the first work to treat systematically the relation between Cavell s pervasive authorial voice and his equally powerful though less discernible impulse to produce a set of usable philosophical methods Gould argues that a tension between voice and method unites Cavell s broad and often perplexing range of interests From Wittgenstein to Thoreau from Shakespeare to the movies and from opera to Freud Gould reveals the connection between the voice within

Cavell's writing and the voices Cavell appeals to through the methods of ordinary language philosophy Within Cavell's extraordinary productivity lies a new sense of philosophical method based on elements of the act of reading Hearing Things is both an important study of Cavell's work and a major contribution to the construction of American philosophy Study Guide for Starr and Taggart's *Biology, the Unity and Diversity of Life Jane B. Common School Education and Teachers World ,1893 Chapters on Evolution Andrew Wilson,2024-02-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 Chapters on Evolution Andrew Wilson,1883 Juan Goytisolo Alison Ribeiro de Menezes,2005 This book assesses Goytisolo s contribution to cultural debates in Spain since the sixties and revises the prevailing critical interpretation of his fiction arguing that his works represent an ethical engagement with postmodernist theory rather than an illustration of it This monograph offers two new perspectives on Spanish writer Juan Goytisolo First under the themes of authorship and dissidence it integrates his writing across several genres providing a rounded assessment of his contribution to cultural debates in Spain since the sixties and arguing that resistance to repressive discourses characterizes his essays and autobiographies as much as his fiction Second it revises the prevailing critical interpretation of Goytisolo s fiction by building on four premises that his novels are less clearly oppositional than prevailing interpretations imply that in order to engage with discourses of identity he employs an idiom which contrary to his own statements is not a poststructuralist autonomous world of words that a textual practice grounded in the recognizable experience of post Civil War Spain rather than one which seeks out the realm of pure textuality is essential to Goytisolo s subversive political intentions and that the autobiographical element of much of his work constitutes a more complex narrative aesthetic than has been appreciated The book argues that if Goytisolo s work is interpreted as an ethical engagement with postmodernist theory rather than as an illustration of it then certain contradictions for which he has been criticized are seen in a new and valuable light ALISON RIBEIRO DE MENEZES is a Senior Lecturer in Spanish at University College Dublin Animal Worlds Laura McMahon,2019-05-29 Focusing on a recent wave of international art cinema Animal Worlds offers the first sustained analysis of the relations between cinematic time and animal life Through an aesthetic of extended duration films such as Bestiaire 2010 The Turin Horse 2011 and A Cow s Life 2012 attend to animal worlds of sentience and perception while registering the governing of life through biopolitical regimes Bringing together Gilles Deleuze s writings on cinema and on animals while drawing on Jacques Derrida Jean Christophe Bailly Nicole Shukin and others the book argues that these films question the biopolitical reduction of animal life to forms of capital opening up realms of virtuality becoming and alternative political futures
