Jealousy Peter Toohey, 2014-01-01 A witty and insightful investigation into the green eyed monster's role in our lives. Compete, acquire, succeed, enjoy the pressures of living in today's materialistic world seem predicated upon jealousy, the feelings of rivalry and resentment for possession of whatever the other has. But while our newspapers abound with stories of the sometimes droll, sometimes deadly consequences of sexual jealousy, Peter Toohey argues in this charmingly provocative book that jealousy is much more than the destructive emotion it is commonly assumed to be. It helps as much as it harms. Examining the meaning, history and value of jealousy, Toohey places the emotion at the core of modern culture, creativity and civilization, not merely the sexual relationship. His eclectic approach weaves together psychology, art and literature, neuroscience, anthropology and a host of other disciplines to offer fresh and intriguing contemporary perspectives on violence, the family, the workplace, animal behavior and psychopathology. Ranging from the streets of London to Pacific islands and from the classical world to today, this is an elegant, smart and beautifully illustrated defense of a not always deadly sin.

A Letter to Generation Next: Why Labor Kim Carr, 2013-08-01

Senator Kim Carr is a true believer. He details what the Party stands for in the 21st century. In A Letter to Generation Next: Why Labor, he lays out a heartfelt argument about why politics is important in our daily lives and demands our involvement. This is a book from a passionate and pragmatic idealist which makes the case for activism and proposes that for the current generation of social democrats, the time has come to reinvigorate the Australian Labor Party. Senator Carr was the third minister to resign after Kevin Rudd declined to challenge Prime Minister Julia Gillard following former Arts Minister Simon Crean's call for a leadership spill in March 2013. At the time, he said, "I leave the ministry without rancour and I will continue to work for the Labor mission." A Letter to Generation Next: Why Labor is part of that commitment.
