Certain Trumpets

This “beautifully written and reasoned” (Booklist) narrative by Pulitzer Prize-winning author Garry Wills examines what constitutes meaningful leadership, and why it is so essential to society. What makes a leader? How do we identify effective leadership, and how should—and shouldn’t—that power be used? In Certain Trumpets, Garry Wills presents portraits of eminent leaders including FDR to Ross Perot, King David, Martha Graham, and many others, offering an illuminating lens for studying society and ourselves. Dividing these portraits into sixteen leadership categories ranging from military to charismatic, intellectual, rhetorical, and elected, Wills highlights what makes each of his subjects unique, crafting along the way a distinct and incisive definition of leadership as a reciprocal engagement between two contrasting wills that serves to mobilize us toward a common good, and explaining why leadership is so often a contentious and emotionally charged subject. “A stunningly literate and thoughtful examination of what makes a leader...[and] a welcome antidote to some of the more egregious ‘management style’ drivel,” (Kirkus Reviews), Certain Trumpets is an inspiring and edifying tour through the history of an indispensable social art.

This Is Water

Only once did David Foster Wallace give a public talk on his views on life, during a commencement address given in 2005 at Kenyon College. The speech is reprinted for the first time in book form in THIS IS WATER. How does one keep from going through their comfortable, prosperous adult life unconsciously? How do we get ourselves out of the foreground of our thoughts and achieve compassion? The speech captures Wallace’s electric intellect as well as his grace in attention to others. After his death, it became a treasured piece of writing reprinted in The Wall Street Journal and the London Times, commented on endlessly in blogs, and emailed from friend to friend. Writing with his one-of-a-kind blend of causal humor, exacting intellect, and practical philosophy, David Foster Wallace probes the challenges of daily living and offers advice that renews us with every reading.

You Are Not Special

An inspirational reflection on the way we bring up children that will resonate with all parents. David McCullough, Jr.’s high-school graduation address, dubbed You Are Not Special when it went viral on YouTube, was a tonic for parents, students, and educators alike. Now he expands on that speech with wit and a perspective earned from raising four children and teaching high-school students for nearly 30 years. In this humorous and insightful book, McCullough takes a hard look at helicopter parents, questionable educational goals, professional university coaching, electronic distractions, and more — and advocates for a life of passionate engagement.

The Leader in Me

Children in today’s world are inundated with information about who to be, what to do and how to live. But what if there was a way to teach children how to manage priorities, focus on goals and be a positive influence on the world around them? The Leader in Me is that programme. It’s based on a hugely successful initiative carried out at the A.B. Combs Elementary School in North Carolina. To hear the parents of A. B Combs talk

God, Schools, and Government Funding Laurence H. Winer, Nina J. Crimm, 2016-04-15 In recent years a conservative majority of the U S Supreme Court over vigorous dissents has developed circumventions to the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment that allow state legislatures unabashedly to use public tax dollars increasingly to aid private elementary and secondary education This expansive and innovative legislation provides considerable governmental funds to support parochial schools and other religiously affiliated education providers That political response to the perceived declining quality of traditional public schools and the vigorous school choice movement for alternative educational opportunities provokes passionate constitutional controversy Yet the Court's recent decision in Arizona Christian School Tuition Organization v Winn inappropriately denies taxpayers recourse to challenge these proliferating tax funding schemes in federal courts Professors Winer and Crimm clearly elucidate the complex and controversial policy legal and constitutional issues involved in using tax expenditures mechanisms such as exclusions deductions and credits that economically function as government subsidies to finance private religious schooling The authors argue that legislatures must take great care in structuring such programs and set forth various proposals to ameliorate the highly troubling dissention and divisiveness generated by state aid for religious education

Twilight of Liberty William A. Donohue,2001-01-01 Provocative he acknowledges that the ACLU has honorably battled violations of individual rights but he maintains that the group s fetishization of those rights degrades institutions that help build responsibility and community His critique is in many instances appropriate Publisher s Weekly Mr Donohue makes a detailed and persuasive argument that far from simply protecting constitutional freedom the ACLU is driven by an ideology for which the accurate term is extremist Twilight of Liberty is an important polemical and constructive contribution to understanding law politics and morality in contemporary America First Things A Monthly Journal of Religion and Public Life William Donohue thoroughly documents and perceptively analyzes both the socially destructive work of the American Civil Liberties Union and the threat to liberty presented by the extremist positions on individual rights ACLU propagates This book is a much needed antidote to pernicious trends in our national life American Enterprise Institute Twilight of Liberty is a sequel to Donohue s highly regarded The Politics of the American Civil Liberties Union but with a marked change in emphasis Instead of challenging the ACLU s nonpartisan reputation as he did in the earlier volume Donohue now seeks to demonstrate why and how recent ACLU policy undermines the process of liberty He argues that the ACLU by relentlessly warring with mediating institutions and by pushing a radical individualism in its policies is not making us more but less free Two conceptions of liberty are discussed The first considers the social context in which the struggle for freedom takes place It maintains that freedom is best achieved through a delicate balancing of individual rights with the legitimate needs of the social order The other conception of liberty is atomistic exclusively concerned with the rights of the individual According to Donohue such a definition assures the triumph of the state over the mediating institutions of society thus reducing prospects for freedom This is the first book to critically analyze contemporary ACLU policy and to challenge its reputation as the preeminent voice of freedom in the United States It aims to move beyond the idea that freedom is best served by pushing individual rights to extremes Twilight of Liberty will appeal to scholars in the fields of law social policy and culture Students in civil liberties courses will also find this book a valuable resource William A Donohue is president of the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights in New York City

Children and the Law Katherine Hunt Federle, 2012-11-16 The study and practice of juvenile law is inherently interdisciplinary a successful practitioner must understand not only the legal implications in the field but also have a solid grounding in child psychology child development neuroscience sociology criminology and social work The best child advocates in the law have a firm familiarity with and understanding of the value these other disciplines provide Children and the Law is a unique coursebook that will revolutionize the way students learn and apply juvenile law By incorporating the interdisciplinary topics necessary to understand the best practices in child law author Katherine Federle has carefully selected a vast array of articles studies research cases and statutes that allow students to best understand the law and also help bridge the divide between theory and practice The book is separated into four main sections Children and Crime Children and Protection Children and Restraints on Freedom and Children and Decision Making Each section in Children and the Law also includes a series of questions exercises and problems that encourage students to critically examine legal doctrine and policy in light of available scientific and socio scientific scholarship

Adolescents, Media, and the Law Roger J. R. Levesque,2007-06-18 There is much controversy about the dangers of a free media when it comes to children and adolescents Many believe that this constitutional right should be amended altered or revoked entirely to prevent the young from being negatively influenced Graphic violence sexual content and the depiction of cigarette smoking have all come under fire as being unacceptable in media that is geared toward adolescents from television and movies to magazines and advertising Yet not much has been written about the developmental science behind these ideas and what effects a free media really has on adolescents This book presents a synthesis of all current knowledge about the developmental effects of a free media on adolescents Levesque first presents a full analysis of research studies into the media s effects on adolescents in four key areas sexuality violence smoking and body image All findings are assessed within the context of normal adolescent development Levesque then discusses how this knowledge can be used to inform current standards for the regulation of free speech with regard to adolescents Both legal restrictions and less formal regulatory bodies schools parent groups etc are reviewed to present a full picture of the ways in which a free media is constrained to protect adolescent s development A Damn Good Marine Major Ralph Stoney Bates, USMC (Ret),2024-12-02 Stoney as he is called is the author of several published books and magazine articles for Police Chief Marine Corps Gazette and Leatherneck Magazine of the Marines After writing and publishing his fifth book Dorrance Publishing published Marine Wife Lyn the story of his late wife and her affection for the Marine Corps and her Marine husband Afterward he began this particular publication an auto biography of his life encountering great good bad ugly and indifferent situations as a youth in the Corps and after retiring from its ranks it s titled A Damn Good Marine As is his style he pulls no punches telling it as it happened as it was as best as he can recall to be a possible roadmap for anyone contemplating life as a United States Marine or any military or naval service life especially as a career person His life as a Marine covered the gamut as an enlisted man a non commissioned officer a warrant officer and a commissioned officer He has served in aviation military police criminal investigation drill instructor provost marshal brig officer and infantry officer He is a combat veteran of the Vietnam War and credits his successes in life to the support bestowed upon him by his late Marine Wife Lyn and the many great Marines he has encountered as he moved through the arches of his Marine Corps career active and retired especially one he refers to affectionally as Arch That would be Archie Van Winkle Colonel USMC Ret Medal of Honor Recipient As he believes his Marine wife held the lamp he believes Arch held the compass Lyn often commented Those MOH recipients were and are a special breed Through Jamaican Lenses Fern June Khan,2024-08-30 Born and raised on the island of Jamaica Fern June Khan has valued and embraced Jamaica in each stage of her life Despite the island s economic and educational challenges during her youth Khan s childhood was a colorful one replete with the vibrant culture of the island endlessly supportive role models and a complex social tapestry Her early experiences empowered Khan to develop an unwavering sense of self as she progressed into adulthood and moved to the United States Through Jamaican Lenses A Memoir celebrates Khan s joyful upbringing journey to a new environment and her many educational and professional accomplishments Centering on her early life in Jamaica in the 1940s and 50s this memoir reveals Khan s childhood as one rich with opportunities to observe and experience the complexities of Jamaican life and history Khan s childhood memories revel in the community s vivid folklore Jamaica s music and food and popular idioms and sayings as well as the implications of color and class Then a British colony Jamaica still bore the legacies and social impacts of slavery and emancipation Jamaica was becoming increasingly globalized and along with that transition came a growing interest in cultural exchange Stories of economic success poured in from relatives and friends who had traveled abroad whether as seasonal workers or as immigrants As Khan grew ambition brought her to the United States as a foreign student She graduated from New York University with a BSc in sociology and a graduate degree in social work Following a brief
