Art and Oracle Alisa LaGamma, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2000 Twenty eight African cultures are represented here by artifacts created to communicate with ancestors spirits and gods about such issues as health conception and determination of guilt or innocence Issued in conjunction with an April July 2000 exhibit at The Metropolitan Museum of Art NY this catalog contains extensive ethnographic descriptive and interpretive text in connection with each of 50 pictured pieces as well as a 13 page essay about divination in Sub Saharan Africa by John Pemberton III and an introductory essay by LaGamma Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Prophets and Profits Richard Evans, 2017-09-07 This volume examines the ways in which divination often through oracular utterances and other mechanisms linked mortals with the gods and places the practice within the ancient sociopolitical and religious environment Whether humans sought knowledge by applying to an oracle through which the god was believed to speak or used soothsayers who interpreted specific signs such as the flight of birds there was a fundamental desire to know the will of the gods In many cases pragmatic concerns personal economic or political can be deduced from the context of the application Divination and communication with the gods in a post pagan world has also produced fascinating receptions The presentation of these processes in monotheistic societies such as early Christian Late Antiquity where the practice continued through the use of curse tablets or medieval Europe and beyond where the role of religion had changed radically provides a particular challenge and this topic has been little discussed by scholars This volume aims to rectify this desideratum by providing the opportunity to address questions related to the reception of Greco Roman divination oracles and prophecy in all media including literature and film Several contributions in this volume originated in the 2015 Classics Colloquium held at the University of South Africa and the volume has been augmented with additional contributions      The Oscan Oracle Rauri Tor, Theresa C. Dintino, 2024-04-25 The Oscan Oracle is the story of recovering a spiritual lineage from Italy that was lost in the great migrations of the early 20th century It is also a reference guide which accompanies a divination system akin to a tarot deck or ancient rune stones It is Oscan because they Theresa and Rauri an aunt niece duo discovered that their ancestors the Janarra were Oscan speaking peoples This oracle is made up of the letters of the Oscan alphabet The Oscan language was actively spoken in regions of what is now Italy in pre Roman times from 600 BCE 1 CE You may choose to read through The Oscan Oracle as a book You may choose to acquire the card deck at ritualgoddess.com and use them as a divination system asking a question then choosing a card Or you may choose to simply open the book and stop at what appeals to you What is an oracle Many people know the word oracle from the famous oracular sites of the ancient world at Dodona and Delphi where a high priestess provided oracle in the form of prophecy or advice in response to questions asked in a formal setting But oracle is also the term for the person who offers oracle Our ancient ancestors of the Italian spiritual lineage were oracles Though they did not have formal temples and a hierarchical structure they were skilled at interfacing with the spirit world and delivering that information to their community for its general well being Our ancestors spoke to the trees listened to the wind and prayed to the Earth We also call this work an oracle because it is a way for you the reader to engage with the spirit world including undiscovered parts of yourself the cosmos ancestors and your spiritual belief system Rauri Tor is of the ancient medicine lineage of the Italian Janarra as well as a Celtic Seer She resides deep in the woods of the East Coast with her family dog cats chickens and a plethora of wild being allies You can reach Rauri by email at janarrarising@gmail.com Theresa C Dintino is a
