Organizing For Power And Empowerment:

Organizing for Power and Empowerment Jacqueline B. Mondros, Scott M. Wilson, 1994-04-21 Designed to help build powerful community organizations empower ordinary citizens to become leaders and bring about major social and economic change this book offers a coherent practice based framework for understanding social action with power and empowerment at the center of analysis Topics include recruiting members consensus building leadership publicity and fundraising

Community Power and Empowerment Brian D. Christens, 2019-01-09 Many people want to help bring about changes in their neighborhoods workplaces and communities Leaders and scholars of change efforts are likewise eager for insights into what makes some organizations and coalitions capable of building and exercising power Why are some groups successful in making changes in policies and systems and in sustaining their momentum over time while others struggle or never really get off the ground With Community Power and Empowerment Brian D Christens brings the most comprehensive analysis of empowerment theory yet conducted to bear on these questions taking aim at many of the longstanding weaknesses and ambiguities of empowerment theory research and practice For example one major hindrance is that most notions of empowerment have not been coherently connected with community power In addition research has emphasized psychological aspects of empowerment over organizational processes and has neglected community empowerment processes to an even greater extent By linking empowerment and community power Christens constructs a holistic framework for assessing and comparing community driven change efforts This book offers new guidance for inquiries into outcomes and impacts of empowerment processes on health and well being providing a resource for researchers organizational leaders practitioners and anyone interested in collective action for change

Handbook of Community Movements and Local Organizations in the 21st Century Ram A. Cnaan, Carl Milofsky, 2018-05-22 This new handbook builds on The Handbook of Community Movements and Local Organizations published in 2007 and is the only resource defining the field of study related to small nonprofit organizations and to studying communities from the standpoint of associations that make up communities It explores the history and conceptualizations of community theoretical concepts in community organizations social movements ranging from health to crime and community practice methods Further it provides authoritative statements of major theory areas gives examples of different sub areas of the field provides guidance to people working as practitioners in the field and nicely coincides with the increasing interest in clinical sociology This handbook is of great interest to academics students and practitioners with an interdisciplinary resource to understand and collaborate in work with contemporary communities

Civic Power K.Sabeel Rahman,Hollie Russon Gilman,2019-08-29 What will it take to restore American democracy and rescue it from this moment of crisis Civic Power argues that the current threat to US democracy is rooted not just in the outcome of the 2016 election but in deeper systemic forms of inequality that concentrate economic and political power in the hands of the few at the expense of the many Drawing on historical and social science research and case studies of contemporary democratic innovations across the country Civic Power calls for a broader approach to democracy reform focused on meaningfully redistributing power to citizens It advocates for both reviving grassroots civil society and novel approaches to governance policymaking civic technology and institutional design aimed at dismantling structural disparities to build a more inclusive empowered bottom up democracy where communities and people have greater voice power and agency

Rebuilding Communities After Displacement Mo Hamza,Dilanthi Amaratunga,Richard Haigh,Chamindi Malalgoda,Chathuranganee Jayakody,Anuradha Senanayake,2023-02-19 This book presents a collection of double blind peer reviewed papers under the scope of sustainable and resilient approaches for rebuilding displaced and host communities Forced displacement is a major development challenge not only a humanitarian concern A surge in violent conflict as well as increasing levels of disaster risk and environmental degradation driven by climate change has forced people to leave or flee their homes both internally displaced

as well as refugees The rate of forced displacement befalling in different countries all over the world today is phenomenal with an increasingly higher rate of the population being affected on daily basis than ever These displacement situations are becoming increasingly protracted many lasting over 5 years Therefore there is a need to develop more sustainable and resilient approaches to rebuild these displaced communities ensuring the long term satisfaction of communities and enhancing the social cohesion between the displaced and host communities Accordingly chapters are arranged around five main themes of rebuilding communities after displacement Response management for displaced communities The Built environment in resettlement planning Governance of displacement Socio Economic interventions for sustainable resettlement
