The Death of a Prophet Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2011-11-29 The oldest Islamic biography of Muhammad written in the mid eighth century relates that the prophet died at Medina in 632 while earlier and more numerous Jewish Christian Samaritan and even Islamic sources indicate that Muhammad survived to lead the conquest of Palestine beginning in 634 35 Although this discrepancy has been known for several decades Stephen J Shoemaker here writes the first systematic study of the various traditions Using methods and perspectives borrowed from biblical studies Shoemaker concludes that these reports of Muhammad s leadership during the Palestinian invasion likely preserve an early Islamic tradition that was later revised to meet the needs of a changing Islamic self identity Muhammad and his followers appear to have expected the world to end in the immediate future perhaps even in their own lifetimes Shoemaker contends When the eschatological Hour failed to arrive on schedule and continued to be deferred to an ever more distant point the meaning of Muhammad s message and the faith that he established needed to be fundamentally rethought by his early followers The larger purpose of The Death of a Prophet exceeds the mere possibility of adjusting the date of Muhammad s death by a few years far more important to Shoemaker are questions about the manner in which Islamic origins should be studied The difference in the early sources affords an important opening through which to explore the nature of primitive Islam more broadly Arguing for greater methodological unity between the study of Christian and Islamic origins Shoemaker emphasizes the potential value of non Islamic sources for reconstructing the history of formative Islam

John of Damascus, First Apologist to the Muslims Daniel J. Janosik, 2016-11-08 Much of the world today is convulsed in an epic struggle between the Christian West and Islam Scholars seeking to understand the issues look back in history to unearth the roots of this conflict Of great value in this effort are the writings of an eyewitness a devoted Christian who served as chief financial officer of the Umayyad Empire and wrote at the time Islam was developing John of Damascus 675 750 authored two major works the Heresy of the Ishmaelites and the Disputation between a Christian and a Saracen to provide an apologetic response to Islam from a Christian perspective His writings shed light on many questions that are pertinent today When was the Qur an actually written What was the role of the powerful caliph Abd al Malik in the making of Muhammad How did the theological issues related to the deity of Christ and the Trinity develop in the early days of Islam This book delves into the life of John and studies his apologetic writings in detail utilizing the first English translation from the critical text It seeks to address these questions thoughtfully provide valuable insights from the past and then equip today

s church as it engages with Islam Defending the "People of Truth" in the Early Islamic Period Sandra Toenies Keating, 2006-09-30 The apologetical writings of the Jacobite Christian Ab R i ah al Takr t c 835 have remained relatively unknown in Western scholarship Yet his engagement with Muslim questions about Christianity provides a significant insight into the theological debate between the two communities in the early Abb sid period Ab R i ah s treatises take up many of the topics that become standard for Christian Muslim apologetics proofs of the true religion the Trinity the Incarnation and Christian practices In each case he provides his reader with complex arguments in defense of Christian doctrines that can be used to convince both Muslims and wavering Christians of the truth of Christianity This new Arabic edition and English translation seeks to contextualize Ab R i ah s important writings and to make the original texts available to modern scholars interested in all aspects of the early development of Muslim Christian relations The Quest of the Historical Muhammad and Other Studies on Formative Islam Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2024-07-09 The lead essay in this book is the first effort to approach the historical figure of Muhammad in a manner comparable to the investigations that biblical scholars have made in the effort to recover the historical figure of Jesus Using comparable methods and approaches this study demonstrates that despite a widely held belief that Islam was born in the full light of history we in fact know considerably less about both Muhammad and the beginnings of Islam than we do about the historical Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Also included are republications of four previously published essays dealing with such topics as the Qur an s status as a late ancient biblical apocryphon the relation between the Jerusalem Temple and the Holy House revered by the Qur an and the imminent eschatology of the Qur an and the early Islamic tradition Routledge Library Editions: Christianity Various Authors, 2022-07-30 Originally published between 1926 and 1986 the books in this series provide an extensive exploration of Christianity covering a wide range of different perspectives and topics including the relationship between Christianity and other religions the history and development of Christianity Christian theology and philosophy the presence of Christianity across the world women and the Church approaches to the study of Christianity and poetry inspired by religious architecture Encountering the World of Islam Keith E. Swartley, 2005-11-02 This comprehensive evangelistic resource collects articles from eighty authors who have lived throughout the Muslim world You will gain a positive biblical perspective on the history of Islam the current political landscape and much more Peter the Venerable and Islam James Aloysius Kritzeck, 2015-12-08 For over four centuries the principal source of Christian European knowledge of Islam stemmed from a project sponsored by Peter the Venerable ninth abbot of Cluny in 1142 This consisted of Latin translations of five Arabic works including the first translation of the Koran in a western language Known as the Toledan Collection it was eventually printed in 1543 with an introduction by Martin Luther The abbot also completed a handbook of Islam beliefs and a major analytical and polemical work Liber contra sectam Saracenorum annotated editions of these texts are included in this book Originally published in 1964 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand Controversies over Islamic Origins Mun'im Sirry, 2021-06-21. What evidence do we have to reconstruct the origins of Islam? On the basis of what sources can the first century of Islam be accessed? Why do historians of early Islam consider the literary sources of Islamic origins to be so problematic? How is the problem of early Islamic history framed? This book addresses these critical questions by discussing various approaches to the problem of reconstructing Islamic origins. In a spirit of welcoming diverse perspectives and encouraging healthy scholarly debate, it explores different even conflicting modern theories about the emergence of Islam through various case studies including recent debates on the Qur'an, the biography of the Prophet, and early conquest narratives. A broad spectrum of both traditionalist and revisionist scholarship is critically examined with the purpose of illuminating not only how modern scholars differ but also what they have in common.

The Qur'an's Reformation of Judaism and Christianity Holger M. Zellentin, 2019-03-20. This volume explores the relationship between the Qur'an and the Jewish and Christian traditions, considering aspects of continuity and reform. The chapters examine the Qur'an's retelling of biblical narratives as well as its reaction to a wide array of topics that mark Late Antique religious discourse, including eschatology and ritual purity, prophetology and paganism, and heresiology and Christology. Twelve emerging and established scholars explore the many ways in which the Qur'an updates, transforms, and challenges religious practice, beliefs, and narratives that Late Antique Jews and Christians had developed in dialogue with the Bible. The volume establishes the Qur'an's often unique perspective alongside its surprising continuity with Judaism and Christianity. Chapters focus on individual suras and on intra-Qur'anic parallels on the Qur'an's relationship to pre-Islamic Arabian culture, on its intertextuality and its literary intricacy, and on its legal and moral framework. It illustrates a move away from the problematic paradigm of cultural influence and instead emphasizes the Qur'an's attempt to reform the religious landscape of its time. The Qur'an's Reformation of Judaism and Christianity offers new insight into the Islamic Scripture as a whole and into recent methodological developments, providing a compelling snapshot of the burgeoning field of Qur'anic studies. It is a key resource for students and scholars interested in religion, Islam, and Middle Eastern Studies.
