Middle Range Theory for Nursing Mary Jane Smith, Patricia R. Liehr, Roger D. Carpenter, 2023-01-25 Three time recipient of the AJN Book of the Year Award The completely revised fifth edition of this authoritative text encompasses the most current middle range theories for graduate nursing students and researchers User friendly and consistently organized it helps readers to understand the connection of research to larger conceptual models in nursing The fifth edition presents three new theories a revised chapter on concept building two published examples demonstrating the concept building process and a new section on the application of middle range theory that addresses its use for practice and education. Additional new features include the fresh perspectives of a third editor, a two color design to enhance readability and discussion questions concluding each chapter. The text describes sixteen middle range theories and elaborates on disciplinary perspectives providing an organizing framework and evaluating the theory. Each theory is consistently organized by purpose, historical development, primary concepts, the relationships among concepts and its use in nursing practice and research. Understanding of concepts is enhanced by the book's use of the ladder of abstraction for each theory to explain its relationship to philosophical, conceptual and empirical theory dimensions.

New to the Fifth Edition: Includes three new theories: Inner Strength, Unitary Caring and Nature Immersion for a total of 16 theories. A completely new section on application of theory to practice. New chapter on application of middle range theory to education. Extensively revised chapter on building concepts for research. Two color design to enhance readability. Discussion questions at the end of each chapter to promote class dialogue. Nine practice examples relating to application of middle range theory. The expertise of a new editor.

Key Features: Delivers theories in consistent format to facilitate comparisons. Presents published exemplars demonstrating concept building. User friendly and consistently organized. Summarizes middle range theories developed between 1988 and 2020.
