Middle Income Access to Justice M. Trebilcock, Anthony Duggan, Lorne Sossin, 2012-05-03 Though most conceptions of the rule of law assume equality before the law and hence equal access to the justice system this basic right is not being met for many low and middle income Canadians This book focuses on the problem of civil access to justice for middle income earners those whose household income is high enough to disqualify them from legal aid but not high enough to cover the costs of litigation Featuring contributions by leading Canadian and international scholars practitioners and members of the judiciary this multidisciplinary collection draws on scholarship in the fields of law social science and public policy There is a particular emphasis on family law consumer law and employment law as these are the areas where research has indicated that unmet legal needs are highest Middle Income Access to Justice presents a variety of innovative solutions from dispute resolution process reforms to the development of non lawyer forms of assistance and new methods for funding legal expenses In doing so it lays the foundation for the development of a much needed new delivery model to provide early intervention for legal Legal Needs Surveys and Access to Justice OECD, Open Society Foundations, 2019-05-31 This report offers an empirical tool to help planners statisticians policy makers and advocates understand people s everyday legal problems and experience with the justice system It sets out a framework for the conceptualisation implementation and analysis of legal A Review of the Current Legal Landscape Bryan P. Schwartz, Darcy MacPherson, The Manitoba Law Journal MLJ is a peer reviewed journal founded in 1961 The MLJ s current mission is to provide lively independent and high caliber commentary on legal events in Manitoba or events of special interest to our community The MLI aims to bring diverse and multidisciplinary perspectives to the issues it studies drawing on authors from Manitoba Canada and beyond Its studies are intended to contribute to understanding and reform not only in our community but around the world Manitoba Law Journal: A Review of the Current Legal Landscape 2013 Volume 37(1) Darcy L. MacPherson, et al., The Manitoba Law Journal is a peer reviewed journal founded in 1961 The MLJ s current mission is to provide lively independent and high caliber commentary on legal events in Manitoba or events of special interest to our community This issue has articles from a variety of contributing authors including Amar Khoday Ami Kotler Brandon Trask Bruce MacFarlane Bryan P Schwartz Dale McFadzean Darcy L MacPherson Delloyd J Guth Donn Short Douglas D Ferguson Edward D Brown Eveline Milliken Gord Mackintosh Janelle Anderson Jeffrey Oliphant John Burchill John Pozios Lee Stuesser M Lynne Jenkins Martha E Simmons Miranda Grayson Philip Girard Richard J Chartier Richard Wolson Romeo Dallaire Sacha R Paul Sarah Buhler Susan Noakes and Trevor C W Farrow Access to Justice for Vulnerable and Energy-Poor Consumers Naomi Creutzfeldt, Chris Gill, Marine Cornelis, Rachel McPherson, 2021-07-01 How do ordinary people access justice This book offers a novel socio legal approach to access to justice alternative dispute resolution vulnerability and energy poverty It poses an access to justice challenge and rethinks it through a lens that accommodates all affected people especially those who are currently falling through the system It raises broader questions about alternative dispute resolution the need for reform to include more collective approaches a stronger recognition of the needs of vulnerable people and a stronger emphasis on delivering social justice. The authors use energy poverty as a site of vulnerability and examine the barriers to justice facing this excluded group The book assembles the findings of an interdisciplinary research project studying access to justice and its barriers in the UK Italy France Bulgaria and Spain Catalonia In depth interviews with regulators ombuds energy companies third sector organisations and vulnerable people provide a rich dataset through which to understand the phenomenon The book provides theoretical and empirical insights which shed new light on these issues and sets out new directions of inquiry for research policy and practice It will be of interest to researchers students and policymakers working on access to justice consumer vulnerability energy poverty and the complex intersection between these fields The book includes contributions by Cosmo Graham UK Sarah Supino and Benedetta Voltaggio Italy Marine Cornelis France Anais Varo and Enric Bartlett Catalonia and Teodora Peneva Bulgaria The Role of Lawyers in Access to Justice Helena Whalen-Bridge, 2022-10-06 Includes papers presented as a conference in SIngapore in 2017 ECIP acknowledgments The Justice Crisis Trevor C.W. Farrow, Lesley A. Jacobs, 2020-09-01 Unfulfilled legal needs are at a tipping point in many parts of the Canadian justice system and around the world The Justice Crisis assesses what is and isn t working in an effort to improve a fundamental right of democratic citizenship access to civil and family justice Meaningful access is often a question of providing pathways to resolving everyday legal issues The availability of justice services that aren t only tied to the courts and lawyers such as public education on the law alternative dispute settlement and paralegal support is therefore an important concern Contributors to this wide ranging overview of new empirical research address several key justice issues the extent and cost of unmet legal needs the role of public funding connections between legal and social exclusion among vulnerable populations the value of new legal pathways the provision of justice services beyond the courts and lawyers and the need for a culture change within the justice system Their findings can inform initiatives to improve access to justice within the Canadian system Delivering Family Justice in the 21st Century Mavis Maclean, John Eekelaar, Benoit Bastard, 2015-08-27 and beyond Family justice requires not only a legal framework within which personal obligations are regulated over the life course but also a justice system which can deliver legal information advice and support at times of change of status or family stress together with mechanisms for negotiation dispute management and resolution with adjudication as the last resort The past few years have seen unparalleled turbulence in the way family justice systems function These changes are associated with economic constraints in many countries including England and Wales where legal aid for private family matters has largely disappeared But there is also a change in ideology in a number of jurisdictions including Canada towards what is sometimes called neo liberalism whereby the state seeks to reduce its area of activity while at the same time maintaining strong views on family values Legal services may become fragmented and marketised and the role of law and lawyers reduced while self help web based services expand The contributors to this volume share their anxieties about the impact on the ability of individuals to achieve fair and informed resolution in family matters In Search of the Ethical Lawyer Adam Dodek, Alice Woolley, 2016-01-01 What options did Paul Bernardo's lawyer have when his client directed him to retrieve hidden evidence Where would David Milgaard be today if a lawyer hadn t doggedly challenged his murder conviction And what should a defence lawyer do when told her client is a danger to the public In this equally inspiring and troubling book leading Canadian legal academics and practising lawyers draw on real life stories case studies biography and memoir to examine the tension between ethics and the law Whether re examining high profile cases celebrating barristers who tore down barriers or pointing out current injustices within the justice system their stories are compelling and raise important questions about what it means to be a good lawyer Grey Zones in International Economic Law and Global Governance Daniel Drache, Lesley A. Jacobs, 2018-11-14 Since the 2008 economic meltdown market driven globalization has posed new challenges for governments This collection introduces the innovative concept of grey zones of global governance where international rules are bent or ignored These zones are significant contested spaces for state policy and market behaviour to interact with respect to trade the environment food security and investment Powerful incentives exist in the global economy for states to harmonize their policies through trade and investment agreements But grey zones both promote uniformity in many areas of public life and facilitate diverse forms of capitalism in market societies. They enable governments to balance national and global economic benefits as they advance their core interests At a time of growing nationalist sentiment Grey Zones in International Economic Law and Global Governance explores creative local engagement with international economic law and offers a bold new way to understand public concerns about international trade and investment food security green energy subsidies and anti-dumping actions Research Handbook on Law, Society and Ageing Sue Westwood, Nancy J.
