Mighty In Word Deed The Role Of The Holy Spirit In Luke Acts:

Mighty in Word and Deed James B. Shelton, 1991 Mighty in Word and Deed James B. Shelton, 2000-01-13 A challenging and comprehensive study of the Holy Spirit in Luke Acts of special interest to those studying Lucan pneumatology or New Testament pneumatology The Spirit and Suffering in Luke-Acts Martin W. Mittelstadt, 2004-10-12 This work illuminates the tension between divine empowering and the neglected element of the work of the Spirit in contexts of opposition This lacuna not addressed in previous Pentecostal scholarship is at the heart of Mittelstadt's exegesis Thus Jesus not only lives and ministers in the power of the Holy Spirit but also experiences opposition and persecution as a man of the Spirit Further the Lukan Jesus not only transfers the Spirit to his disciples but also anticipates a similar fate for his followers Finally Luke forecasts that this divine enablement of the Spirit also available for future witnesses brings with it a similar anticipation of the same rejection and opposition as was experienced by Jesus and the disciples While Pentecostals owe a debt of gratitude for the pioneering work of Pentecostal scholars this book furthers their efforts by exploring the implications of Spirit led witness in Luke Acts Dismantling the Dualisms for American Pentecostal Women in Ministry Lisa Stephenson, 2011-10-06 The pneumatological magna carta of Acts 2 has never translated into a fully liberating praxis for Pentecostal women in ministry Scholars have given this problem limited attention but their works do not adopt the perspective of pneumatology or engage feminist theology In neglecting pneumatology Pentecostals have ignored a methodological approach and a dominant orienting motif that is fundamental to their spirituality In neglecting feminist theology they proffer an incomplete solution that addresses anthropological paradigms to the exclusion of ecclesiological ones After analyzing the historical and theological factors resulting in the present situation among American Pentecostal women in ministry this book proposes a Feminist Pneumatological anthropology and ecclesiology that address the problematic dualisms that have perpetuated Pentecostal women's ecclesial restrictions God's Praise and God's Presence Gabriele G. Braun, 2020-06-19 The main aim of this book is to provide an answer to the question is there a connection between God's people's praise and God's presence The central argument is that Scripture in both Testaments testifies to a correlation between human praise and divine presence This hypothesis has been investigated in the light of contemporary Christian worship culture and the ensuing need for further biblical studies which represents the background for this investigation The study achieves the above aim by applying biblical theology as a discipline and canonical and intertextual models as a method The New Testament Donald A. Hagner, 2012-11-15 This capstone work from widely respected senior evangelical scholar Donald Hagner offers a substantial introduction to the New Testament Hagner deals with the New Testament both historically and theologically employing the framework of salvation history He treats the New Testament as a coherent body of texts and stresses the unity of the New Testament without neglecting its variety Although the volume covers typical questions of introduction such as author date background and sources it focuses primarily on understanding the theological content and meaning of the texts putting students in a position to understand the origins of Christianity and its canonical writings Throughout Hagner delivers balanced conclusions in conversation with classic and current scholarship The book includes summary tables diagrams maps and extensive bibliographies Interpretation of Tongues and Prophecy in 1 Corinthians 12-14, with a Pentecostal Hermeneutics Jeon Ahn Yongnan, 2019-05-21 Bringing spiritual experience into the domain of biblical hermeneutics this book will certainly stimulate current debates within this field among both Pentecostals and Christians of other traditions The author also applies a Pentecostal hermeneutical methodology to Paul's teaching on tongues and prophecy in 1 Corinthians 12-14 opening possibilities to a Pentecostal pneumatology that tends instead to focus on the Lukan narrative Paul's texts are reconsidered not as doctrinal or situational documents but as dynamic communication within a living community Marginalized Voices Timothy B. Cremeens, 2018-06-28 The Orthodox Church has been characterized by some as the best kept secret in North America Making use of personal interviews and correspondence magazine and news articles and other publications Timothy Cremeens weaves the story of a spiritual renewal movement that began in the United States in the early 1960s and rapidly spread around the globe touching millions of Roman Catholics and Protestants what is today called the Charismatic Renewal Movement In 2017 this Movement celebrated its 50th Jubilee anniversary in the Roman Catholic Church However Cremeens presents here the never before heard story of that Movement among the Orthodox Churches in North America He recounts the history of this spiritual renewal movement through the first hand accounts and eyewitnesses of Orthodox clergy and laity who testify to their life changing encounters with the Holy Spirit New Testament Theology I. Howard Marshall, 2010-02-23 I Howard Marshall's New Testament theology guides students with its clarity and its comprehensive vision delights teachers with its sterling summaries and perceptive panoramas and rewards expositors with a fund of insights for preaching Pentecostal Theology and the Christian Spiritual Tradition Simon Chan, 2011-07-12 This book deals with the problem of Pentecostal traditioning Traditioning has been ineffective thus far because the richness of Pentecostal faith and experience has been inadequately captured in the classical Pentecostal doctrines of Spirit baptism and glossolalia A more adequate understanding of the key theological symbol of Pentecostalism glossolalia emerges when it is interpreted in the light of Christian spiritual tradition Within this larger tradition glossolalia can be seen as bringing together both the ascetical and contemplative dimensions of the Christian life Chan thus explores the shape of Pentecostal ecclesiology as traditioning community Baptism, the New Testament and the Church Stanley E. Porter, Anthony R. Cross, 1999-10-01 The question of the meaning and significance of baptism is explored from a number of different perspectives in this volume Inspired by the honoree of this volume and his important work on the subject the contributors approach baptism from biblical historical theological and practical perspectives Some of the essays re-examine the well known biblical texts feeling free to probe their implications Others tease out the implications of the concept of baptism in a variety of contexts both ancient and modern Contributors include Joel Green Geoffrey Bromiley Larry Kreitzer John Nolland Ramsey Michaels and J D G Dunn

An Introduction to Pentecostalism Allan Anderson, 2004-05-13 Global Pentecostalism and Charismatic Christianity in all its diversity is the fastest expanding religious movement in the world today Allan Anderson a former Pentecostal minister and a leading authority on global Pentecostalism aims to make more visible the non western nature of Pentecostalism without overlooking the importance of the movement emanating from North America Offering an innovative interpretation of Pentecostalism he takes seriously the contributions of the Majority World to its development and concentrating on its history and theology reflects on the movement's development and significance throughout the world Anderson also examines those theological issues that helped form a distinctive spirituality and how this relates to different peoples and their cultures Finally Anderson discusses the development of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity in the different countries from its origins at the beginning of the twentieth century to its theological emphases in the present together with the impact of the processes of globalization

Biblical Foundations for the Role of Healing in Evangelization Mathias D. Thelen, 2017-12-07 It is almost undeniable that God is working miracles of healing in evangelization today For theologians pastors and evangelists some questions arise What is the relationship between physical healing and the message of salvation Should the church really expect God to do healings in evangelization today Father Thelen answers these questions by examining the relationship between the preaching of the gospel and physical healing in the New Testament The gospel of Jesus Christ is not simply a message of fact it is a message of power that is often expressed through the working of deeds that serve as signs of the reality preached salvation As signs of the kingdom healings that accompany the preaching of the gospel play an indispensable role in bringing people to faith throughout the New Testament The result of this biblical study is a clarion call for the church to renew its faith in God's desire and power to confirm his word through healing As healing becomes more accepted and frequent in evangelization a Catholic biblical and theological approach to healing as it relates to evangelization an approach that can be different from its Protestant counterpart is necessary This modest book fits this need

New Testament Theology Thomas R. Schreiner, 2008-06-01 In this substantial volume Thomas Schreiner takes up the study of New Testament theology looking for the themes that emerge from a detailed reading of the whole rather than considering the individual writings separately Two themes in particular emerge The first concerns redemptive history and the kingdom of God The New Testament writers adopt the Old Testament vision of God's reign and affirm that it has come in Jesus Christ although final fulfillment is yet to come Second the ultimate goal of the kingdom is God's glory Schreiner goes on to relate these themes to the life of the believer and the community of faith Pastors and students will find this a comprehensive and illuminating survey of the unifying themes found throughout the New Testament

The Spirit as Gift in Acts John D. Griffiths, 2022-02-28 What does Luke mean when he describes the Spirit as gift Acts 2:38 This study explores the social implications of gift giving in the Greco Roman world arguing that gifts initiate and sustain relationships Therefore the description of the Spirit as gift is inherently social which is shown in the Spirit's empowerment of the teaching unity meals sharing of possessions and worship of the early Jesus community The Spirit as gift then leads us to see that the early Jesus community is the community of the Holy Spirit

An African Pentecostal Hermeneutics Marius Nel, 2018-12-27 The face of African Christianity is becoming Pentecostal African Pentecostalism is a diverse movement but its collective interest in baptism in the Spirit and the result of Pentecost in daily living binds it together Pentecostals read the Bible with the expectation that the Spirit who inspired the authors will again inspire them to hear it as God's word They emphasize the experiential at times at the cost of proper doctrine and practice This book sketches an African hermeneutic that provides guidance to a diverse movement with many faces and serves as corrective for doctrine and practice in the face of some excesses and abuses especially in some parts of the neo Pentecostal movement African Pentecostalism's contribution to the hermeneutical debate is described before three points are discussed that define it the centrality of the Holy Spirit in reading the Bible the eschatological lens that Pentecostals use when they read the Bible and the faith community as normative for the interpretation of the Bible

Luke's Rhetorical Compositions Paul Elbert, 2022-07-19 Luke's Rhetorical Compositions offers new ideas in Lukan scholarship especially in regard to Aelius Theon's first century rhetoric manual Progymnasmata and inter textual Lukan Pauline biblical studies Two chapters deserve special mention the material in chapter 3 is a groundbreaking discussion of Acts 2:38 in which its Greek verb tense speaks to the subsequent reception of the gift of the Holy Spirit following salvation not coincident with salvation In Acts 2:38 it is Luke's intention to portray Peter as promising the gift of the Holy Spirit to hearers and to those beyond narrative time as a Pentecostal experience Chapter 9 discusses Luke's use of progymnasmatic examples in his descriptions of the salvation experience It also discusses Luke's clarification of Paul using narrative persuasion from Jesus tradition and history Also Luke's use of basic soteriological vocabulary provides clarity and plausibility His distinctive selection of examples from the Jesus tradition and his duplication of Paul's soteriological vocabulary is very helpful
