Excerpt from Orations Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M Depew Vol 3 In a long political and professional life Senator Depew has been a leading figure and from the time of his graduation he has probably been brought into contact with more public characters than any other man of his generation For nineteen years he has been the recipient of the exceedingly rare compliment of an annual banquet given upon his birthday by his personal and political friends In these he has seized the opportunity not only of relating personal anecdotes of the famous men into whose society he has been thrown but of reviewing the progress of the country and the radical changes in business methods during his lifetime of combating many of the prevalent errors of his age and instilling into his countrymen what he believes to be sound principles of finance Mr Depew is a thorough optimist For him every dark cloud has its silver lining every commercial panic a promise of better times to come and every foreign complication the ultimate victory of his own country in the race for glory and prosperity There have been statesmen who have made a deeper impress upon public life But none who have left his auditors a more pleasurable memory of his abilities or of the kindly nature which has contributed so much to his popularity About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Orations, Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M. Depew, Vol. 6 (Classic Reprint) Chauncey Mitchell DePew, 2015-08-08

Excerpt from Orations Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M Depew Vol 6 Senator Depew's public utterances have covered such a wide range of subjects have evidenced such marvelous versatility all possess so great merit that comparisons between those covering any particular line with another may well be omitted And yet perhaps Mr Depew's most unusual powers as an orator shine most brightly from the political platform One who has not experienced the difficulties of touring the country day after day making from twenty to thirty talks from the observation end of a railroad coach and from hastily constructed platforms on convenient street corners or in public parks and then conclude the day's labor with one or two set speeches in the evening at times also in the open air can hardly imagine the strain and fatigue endured Senator Depew has in this way participated in every presidential campaign for the past half century and in many State campaigns as well He has cheerfully met the demands of his party and the call for his return has ever been unanimous His political addresses extend from the Civil War until to day and beyond their attractiveness and charm of diction they are most valuable because they practically cover the political history of the country for the last half century Logic patriotism eloquence humor have ever characterized Senator Depew s political efforts and even those who do not agree with his sentiments have been glad to listen and to applaud He possesses the happy faculty of combining argument illustration and anecdote and sometimes even criticism in a straightforward manner but without offense and no shaft from his oratorical bow has ever rankled or festered in the bosom of an opponent no matter how sensitive he may have been The Republican Party of his State and this country owe much to Senator Depew About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Depew,2015-07-01 Excerpt from Orations and After Dinner Speeches of Chauncey M Depew We celebrate to day the Centenary of our Nationality One hundred years ago the United States began their existence The powers of government were assumed by the people of the Republic and they became the sole source of authority The solemn ceremonial of the first inauguration the reverent oath of Washington the acclaim of the multitude greeting their President marked the most unique event of modern times in the development of free institutions The occasion was not an accident but a result It was the culmination of the working out by mighty forces through many centuries of the problem of self government It was not the triumph of a system the application of a theory or the reduction to practice of the abstractions of philosophy The time the country the heredity and environment of the people and the folly of its enemies and the noble courage of its friends gave to

Depew, Vol. 7 (Classic Reprint) Chauncey Mitchell DePew, 2017-09-18 Excerpt from Orations Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M Depew Vol 7 Then too he is as the whole country knows a master of rhetoric His sentences are pleasing Also he has the gift of humor He will suddenly throw into the most solemn argument a dash of fun so naturally and so apropos that it illuminates the whole subject But in his Senate oratory he does not depend upon his natural gifts In his addresses he marshals facts from his point of view so that his Senate rhetoric combining all the qualities I have mentioned above often convinces always captivates About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works *Orations, Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M. published in collected form Ever since we were together in college his speeches whether I have heard them or read them have been a delight to me and not only because they have added to the gaiety of the nation but because they have given valuable information and effective discussion His large acquaintance with men and with the affairs of the world in general and his intimate knowledge of the commercial interests of the country have made him an authority on very many of the leading subjects with which the nation has had to deal during the last fifty years and as to the political development of the country I have known no more compact more clear and more cogent statements of the real issues in several of the most important campaigns than his

Orations Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M. Depew, Vol. 4 (Classic Reprint) John Denison Champlin, 2015-07-07

Excerpt from Orations Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M Depew Vol 4 Senator Depew served as president of the Union League Club of New York City for seven years none of his predecessors or successors having served for so many years as president of this organization It was Senator Depew's custom once a year at the annual meeting to deliver an address which under his treatment became a political review of the year not only of important events in the United States but throughout the world The earliest of these addresses was I think the first formal annual review made before the members of any club in New York City and probably in the United States These addresses read by anyone who desires to obtain a consecutive history of great world events for the period during which Senator Depew was president of the Union League Club will gratify that desire They constitute a most important and valuable historical service Senator Depew was not in the ordinary meaning of the term a club man but he was called upon by various organizations of this kind from time to time to deliver addresses until at last he became recognized by the more important clubs of the United States as an especial exponent of the opportunities and meaning of club life The addresses were of course varied as the occasion demanded For a number of years it was the custom of the Montauk Club of Brooklyn a custom which will not be discontinued as long as Senator Depew lives to receive him as its guest of honor upon his birthday His addresses upon these occasions have been of more than local club interest They have attracted attention all over the United States and have been invariably published practically in full As a member of the Transportation Club for years its president Senator Depew has delivered addresses upon economic questions which have attracted wide attention

Toussaint Louverture and the American Civil War Matthew J. Clavin, 2012-02-23 At the end of the eighteenth century a massive slave revolt rocked French Saint Domingue the most profitable European colony in the Americas Under the leadership of the charismatic former slave François Dominique Toussaint Louverture a disciplined and determined republican army consisting almost entirely of rebel slaves defeated all of its rivals and restored peace to the embattled territory The slave uprising that we now refer to as the Haitian Revolution concluded on January 1 1804 with the establishment of Haiti the first black republic in the Western Hemisphere The Haitian Revolution cast a long shadow over the Atlantic world In the United States according to Matthew J Clavin there emerged two competing narratives that vied for the revolution's legacy One emphasized vengeful African slaves committing unspeakable acts of violence against white men women and children The other was the story of an enslaved people who under the leadership of Louverture vanquished their oppressors in an effort to eradicate slavery and build a new nation Toussaint Louverture and the American Civil War examines the significance of these competing narratives in American society on the eve of and during the Civil War Clavin argues that at the height of the longstanding conflict between North and South Louverture and the Haitian Revolution were resonant polarizing symbols which antislavery and proslavery groups exploited both to provoke a violent confrontation and to determine the fate of slavery in the United States In public orations and printed texts African Americans and their white allies insisted that the Civil War was a second Haitian Revolution a bloody conflict in which thousands of armed bondmen American Toussaints would redeem the republic by securing the abolition of slavery and proving the equality of the black race Southern secessionists and northern anti abolitionists responded by launching a cultural counterrevolution to prevent a second Haitian Revolution from taking place
