Ordered to Kill Sam Ekong, 2015-12-27 When his commanding officer crossed the line in Iraq by giving the one order he thought he should not have given that did it for Maj Eddy Matthews Graves He was so pissed off that he sent something incriminating about the war to an editor at the New York Times Shortly thereafter he took it on the lam and went AWOL Days after receiving the sealed envelope the New York Times wrote a scathing half page editorial that openly admonished the army and demanded that the commanding officer Gen Milton Xavier Fletcher resign The editorial did not say what the general had done Two days after tired and beaten the general abruptly resigned and he also didnt say why He kept his lips sealed and left everyone wondering what couldve happened in Iraq Right away the congress led by the opposing party smelled a rat and began calling for all sorts of hearings and demanded that the rogue major be found and brought home for questioning The White House panicked and rightfully so they should it was an election year The polls were beginning to favor the opposition If whatever caused the general to resign was damaging they felt it would definitely tilt the upcoming election in favor of the opposing party if the major was brought home They couldnt let that happen the presidency was at stake A decision had to be made fast So they secretly ordered the major killed However they never counted on the resourcefulness and perseverance of those who wanted to see the major brought home they wanted him alive They were willing to go to any length to assure his safety even if it meant sacrificing other lives The question is will the major survive Annual Report
