School Organisation (RLE Edu L) William Tyler, 2012-05-16 The internal organisation of the school touches on many areas of contemporary debate Is there such a thing as a good school

Are large urban comprehensives necessarily impersonal Are the charges of indiscipline conflict and declining standards in modern schools based on a failure to understand schools as institutions At the time this book was first published sociological analysis had neglected to consider schools as organisational entities preferring to see them as either the sites for negotiated encounters between teachers and pupils or else as agencies of class reproduction The author redresses this imbalance and by relating the various literatures on the school to the constitutive patterns of its internal organisation he demonstrates the need for a more intensive sociological study of this embattled institution Organizations Alike and Unlike (RLE: Organizations) Cornelis Lammers, David Hickson, 2013-08-21

This volume contrasts the life and problems of organizations in many parts of the world and highlights the differences between those societies as reflected in their different institutional sectors such as manufacturing commerce social services and government administration In so doing the book contributes to the theoretical foundations of the sociology of organizations by revealing previously unseen relationships between societies and institutions offering an original synthesis of available research Preacher Woman Katie Lauve-Moon, 2021-03-18

When organizations are committed to gender equality what gets in the way of their achieving it How and why do well intentioned people often end up reinforcing sexism Focusing on the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Katie Lauve Moon's Preacher Woman explores how congregations can be committed to ideas of gender parity while still falling short in practice Lauve Moon investigates how institutional sexism is upheld through both unconscious and conscious biases In doing so she demonstrates how addressing issues of sexism and gender inequality within organizations must extend beyond good intentions and inclusive policies Technology and Organization (RLE: Organizations) Harry Scarbrough, J.

Corbett, 2013-08-21 In this important MBA text the authors adopt a highly integrated approach Using the three conceptual lenses of power meaning and design they explore fully the many different ways in which technology and organizations interact They highlight the major debates within these competing perspectives and argue that the flow of knowledge and ideas within and between organizations is crucial in shaping technologies and organizations alike Organisation and Administration for Business (RLE: Organizations) Geoffrey Whitehead, 2013-05-02

This book provides a comprehensive introduction to business organisation and administration Written in a straightforward readable style this textbook covers all the major aspects of the subject Starting with the organisational background it goes on to cover the functions of the important departments within the firm the role of the administrative officer and other areas of knowledge vital to the smooth running of a business There are self assessment questions at the end of each section past exam questions study and exam tips and a full index A Sociology of Organisations (RLE: Organizations) J. Eldridge, A. Crombie, 2013-05-02

An understanding of the nature and forms of organisation particularly with reference to industrial societies is a key area in sociological analysis This book discusses and explains what concepts to employ and what analytical procedures to adopt as well as conveying a sense of the theoretical and empirical diversity involved in the study of organisations Among the questions explored are why do we classify organisations in particular ways and for what purpose how can one explore the relationships pertaining to an organisation and its environment what issues are raised by the existence of many varied and often competing organisations in industrial societies Company Strategy and Organizational Design (RLE: Organizations)

Roger Mansfield, 2013-05-02 Getting strategies and structures right for changing market conditions and successfully matching strategies and structures with each other are crucial This volume reviews and develops the extensive literature in the areas of business policy and organizational behaviour taking the subject further by breaking down boundaries between subject areas within management studies by adopting a dynamic approach to organizational issues and by synthesizing the disparate often confusing research findings in this area into a general theoretical approach which can be assimilated by managers faced with the problems of the real world The Spatial Organisation of Multinational Corporations (RLE International Business)

Ian Clarke, 2013-01-04 This book based on extensive original research examines the spatial structure and geographical implications of modern multinational corporations It looks at the geography of multinational corporations relates this geography to management and decision making structures and discusses how these items are changing Exploring the themes of centre and periphery in the corporation it surveys the impact of corporate change and restructuring on regional economies Class and Space (RLE Social Theory) Nigel Thrift, Peter Williams, 2014-09-04 This book is about the place of space in the study of class formation It consists of a set of papers that fix on different aspects of the human geography of class formation at different points in the history of Britain and the United States over the course of the last 200 years The book shows that the geography of class formation is a valuable and cross disciplinary tool in the study of modern societies integrating the work of human geographers with that of social historians sociologists social anthropologists and other social scientists in an enterprise which emphasises the essential unity of social science The Sociology of the Workplace (RLE: Organizations)

Malcolm Warner, 2013-05-02 This volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach The study of the workplace is approached from the standpoint of industrial sociology industrial relations industrial anthropology and other related disciplines It includes contributions from economists and psychologists as well as from sociologists The theoretical and practical issues raised are however central to the sociological tradition of Marx and Weber in that they concern the meaning of human and social phenomena and their relevance to resolving questions of moment in industrial and industrializing societies The Foreman (RLE: Organizations)

David Dunkerley, 2013-05-02 The foreman is usually regarded as a filter in a chain of command in industrial organizations In this book however the author suggests that this view is not adequate and he proposes instead a model of analysis which employs a systems perspective The role of the foreman is seen in terms of the interaction of three sub systems representing the organization the group and the individual The book is based on the work of researchers from many disciplines and employs a sociological framework to account for the peculiar strains conflict and ambiguities associated with the foreman's role The Sociology of Work (RLE: Organizations) Parvin

Ghorayshi,2013-08-21 This reference volume reflects the changing world of work It includes research on the various dimensions of work such as the structure of the labour force labour market segmentation technology employment unemployment trade unions and industrial democracy This book provides an integrated view of the various dimensions of work its distinguishing characteristics and issues both peculiar as well as common to industrialized countries By adopting an interdisciplinary and interactional perspective this volume provides the scholar and the lay reader with a range of approaches and debates that have made a significant contribution toward understanding the changing nature of work and its social impact Theories and Models in Applied Behavioral Science: Organizational ,1991 Resources in Education ,1990-05
