Aricò,2013 The Unmasking of Oriana Fallaci Part II and Conclusion to Her Life Story brings to an end years of painstaking research This biography highlights Fallaci s career as a journalist interviewer war reporter essayist and novelist Its uniqueness consists less in a chronological listing of events but rather in emphasis on the core of Fallaci s psychological dynamism This woman from Florence relentlessly placed her embellished persona in the public eye she thirsted for stardom allowing nothing to block her ascent to prominence she essentially functioned as her own publicity agent Aric maintains that this same narcissism is present in all of her early Hollywood articles celebrated interviews book on NASA space travels best selling novels and end of life trilogy against Islam Indeed Fallaci s posthumously published history of her ancestors not only takes on the structure of an epic saga but also of an in depth autobiography Her entire history of inserting herself onto center stage received reinforcement by the eye catching portraits of her by world famous photographers Aric bases The Unmasking on extensive investigation meetings with people who knew her and fourteen one on one recorded interviews at her homes in New York and Florence His expos stands as Fallaci s only definitive and authoritative biography in the English speaking world Oriana Fallaci Cristina De Stefano,2017-10-17 A landmark biography of the most famous Italian journalist of the twentieth century an inspiring and often controversial woman who defied the codes of reportage and established the La Fallaci style of interview Oriana Fallaci is known for her uncompromising vision To retrace Fallaci s life means to retrace the course of history from World War II to 9 11 As a child Fallaci enlisted herself in the Italian Resistance alongside her father Her hatred of fascism and authoritarian regimes would accompany her throughout her life Covering the entertainment industry early on in her career she created an original abrasive interview style focusing on her subject s emotions contradictions and facial expressions more than their words When she grew bored of interviewing movie stars and directors she turned her attention to the greatest international figures of the time Khomeini Gaddafi Indira Gandhi and Kissinger placing herself front and center in the story Reporting from the front lines of the world s greatest conflicts she provoked her own controversies wherever she was stationed leaving behind epic collateral damage in her wake Thanks to unprecedented

Eros and Thanatos. Love across Civilizations Alberto Castelli, 2024-02-06 Eros and Thanatos is about the deadly nature of love It is remarkable that literary critics have paid so little attention to the combination between love and death in literature This book seeks to address this significant scholarly lacuna by exploring key literary texts of the last two hundred years as exemplary of a consistent tendency toward love and death Its emphasis on singular characters and close readings suggests the spectrum of an arbitrary dichotomy never fully resolved The existential discussion triggered by each plot is so intense that the erotic and the merely sexual seem inappropriate Indeed each writer chose to reduce it to the setting and background of a story that takes place elsewhere With this in mind the author intends to reflect love's paradoxical nature If love is triggered by beauty beauty can be immoral and love must die to preserve the illusion of beauty

Literature and Philosophy Alberto Castelli, 2025-09-26 This book examines the relationship between literature and philosophy It investigates seemingly incomprehensible behaviors from the perspective of philosophy and expounds on love by using among others Darwinism Marxism Existentialism Plato Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Barthes as tools of investigation The author deconstructs some 20 literary texts and presents a work of literary criticism in which literary theories are blended with philosophical theories on the self A significant contribution this book will be of interest to students and scholars of comparative literature philosophy philosophy of literature modern fiction modernism and postmodernism

Orienting Italy Mary Ann McDonald Carolan, 2022-09-01 Winner of the 2022 Book Award for Performance and Visual Culture presented by the American Association of Teachers of Italian Orienting Italy explores contemporary Italian filmmakers' fascination with China and the Chinese in both documentary and fictional films Delineating the contours of this fascination the book begins with the works of Carlo Lizzani Behind the Great Wall 1958 and Michelangelo Antonioni Chung Kuo China 1972 both of whom ventured to China with the aim of documenting new yet physically and culturally distant realities Their documentary investigations yielded to fictional portrayals from the lavish view of a historical Middle Kingdom by director Bernardo Bertolucci The Last Emperor 1987 to the stark consideration of Italian economic exchange with contemporary China by Gianni Amelio The Missing Star 2006 The wave of Chinese migration to Italy in the late twentieth century created a new sense of otherness within Italy as Chinese migrants became the subjects of fictional narratives and documentaries in the works of Stefano Incerti Gorbaciof 2010 and Andrea Segre Shun Li and the Poet 2011 and Riccardo Cremona and Vincenzo De Cecco Miss Little China 2009 In the twenty first century a new chapter in the relationship between Italy and China has emerged in the form of transnational collaborations in the art and business of filmmaking Looka Yonder! Duncan Webster,2024-12-06

From Reagan and the New Right to Thatcherism from the success of Bruce Springsteen to the popularity of the Sun populism is one of the central questions of the 1980s First published in 1988 Looka Yonder analyses the important and ambivalent terrain of American populism across a range of cultural forms historical traditions and political events The book discusses the contradictory nature of these traditions looking at the historical echoes of the 1890s Populists and the 1930s New Deal in the farm crisis of the 1980s It suggests that a monolithic view of America misses seeing the struggles over traditions and values with Reagan trying to appropriate Bruce Springsteen and with opposition to the radical right asserting their claim to national symbols and values The range of references and readings takes us across periods genres and forms discussing Willa Cather and Sissy Spacek Sam Shepard and Martin Scorsese Raymond Carver Bobbie Ann Mason and Jayne Anne Philips Elmore Leonard George V Higgins and David Mamet Steinbeck and Tom Waits With equal weight given to literary traditions and to popular culture this book will appeal to students of American culture and to those who enjoy the energy of American films fiction and music New Literature on Women ,1998 Female Journeys Claire Marrone,2000-06-30 In this study of 19th and 20th century French and Italian women s autobiography the author illustrates how the protagonists development unfolds through separation from oppressive social and familial structures Reading the selected life stories as bildungsromane and drawing on an array of both canonical and noncanonical texts in the various autobiographical subgenres Marrone concludes that the heroines movements away from oppressive structures are not limited to particular historical periods but are motivated by historical and cultural circumstances She thoughtfully traces the reasons why a 19th century protagonist might leave her country a turn of the century heroine might flee her family and a modern female character might separate from her mother carefully examining their motivations and their goals In telling their stories she concludes women writers continually challenge existing autobiographical conventions Marrone finds that postmodern texts prove that the journey toward selfhood may be an ongoing one one that unfolds through the creation of multiple life stories The author begins her study with a consideration of the tradition of women's autobiography in French and Italian literature of the 19th and 20th centuries. Using several examples from various genres, she brings issues of gender oppression, marital abuse, sexuality, and motherhood to the forefront of the discussion. She continues by analyzing the genres of autobiography and bildungsroman where they overlap and where they diverge, specifically in women's writing. Turning to specific authors and their works, Marrone moves on to an analysis of the writings of Cristina Trivulzio di Belgiojoso, C. D. Eleste Mogador, Sibilla Aleramo, Oriana Fallaci, Marie Cardinal, and Annie Ernaux. In examining the works of these writers, the author concludes that women writers continue to attempt to define themselves in their own voices. Marrone finds that postmodern writers participate in innovative experimentation in life writing, hybrid texts, creative autobiographies, and collective life stories. This clearly written, engaging volume is a pivotal addition to the growing field of literature on autobiography.

The Cry for Myth Rollo May, 1991-05 Rollo May, respected therapist and bestselling author of Love and Will, discusses the relationships between myths and the subconscious, showing how myths can provide meaning and structure for those who seek direction in a confused world. Here are case studies in which myths have helped Dr. May's patients make sense out of an often senseless world.
