ORIENTAL DESPOTISM

A COMPARATIVE STUDY OF
TOTAL POWER

The background of the book cover features a silhouette of a large, domed building, likely a mosque or a palace, set against a warm, orange-hued sky at sunset. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the right side of the image. The foreground is a dark, silhouetted landscape.

Under Construction Eike-Christian Heine, 2015 On construction sites the world is altered in a very solid material way This is not the whole story of course if someone builds a house a railroad or any other thing there is more under construction than the mere object itself With spade and excavator contemporary imaginations visions and historical concepts are equally reshaped or renewed Interventions into the physical landscape are always accompanied by interventions into the imaginary landscape Here eleven authors from seven European countries examine the discursive alongside the performative

The Political Aims of Jesus Douglas E. Oakman, 2012 Amid competing portrayals of the cynic Jesus the peasant Jesus and the apocalyptic Jesus the political Jesus remains a marginal figure Oakman argues that advances in our understanding of the political economy of Roman Galilee warrant a revival of Reimarus's understanding of Jesus as an instigator of revolutionary change

The Lost Archive Marina Rustow, 2020-01-14 A compelling look at the Fatimid caliphate's robust culture of documentation The lost archive of the Fatimid caliphate 909-1171 survived in an unexpected place the storage room or geniza of a synagogue in Cairo recycled as scrap paper and deposited there by medieval Jews Marina Rustow tells the story of this extraordinary find inviting us to reconsider the longstanding but mistaken consensus that before 1500 the dynasties of the Islamic Middle East produced few documents and preserved even fewer Beginning with government documents before the Fatimids and paper's westward spread across Asia Rustow reveals a millennial tradition of state record keeping whose very continuities suggest the strength of Middle Eastern institutions not their weakness Tracing the complex routes by which Arabic documents made their way from Fatimid palace officials to Jewish scribes the book provides a rare window onto a robust culture of documentation and archiving not only comparable to that of medieval Europe but in many cases surpassing it Above all Rustow argues that the problem of archives in the medieval Middle East lies not with the region's administrative culture but with our failure to understand preindustrial documentary ecology Illustrated with stunning examples from the Cairo Geniza this compelling book advances our understanding of documents as physical artifacts showing how the records of the Fatimid caliphate once recovered deciphered and studied can help change our thinking about the medieval Islamic world and about premodern polities more broadly
