Throughout this year, we have seen the worst of our society through social media, but now it is crossed from the vile messages on the Internet into our physical lives. There is knowing intent to try to harm and intimidate us. People drive by our home regularly, take photos and send them to us to try to scare us that we are being watched. Photos of our children have been sent to us and our friends, letters that say they hope our children get a cancer diagnosis because it would be karma for what horrible parents we are. We have been told to kill ourselves, to take a bullet to the roof of our mouths, that this world would be better without us, and that our children deserve better. Voicemails saying people are going to come and take our kids away from us. And the sad thing is that this behavior has been considered OK, even by people we thought we trusted. This harassment is daily is daily, and I can never fully put into words the toll this has taken on us and all the other families involved. None of this is OK and I look forward to the day this behavior is put to an end.

I couldn't be prouder of Mike. He took an oath to protect and serve and he has done just that. The truth will always prevail.
