Constitution Drafting Committee,1976 The Church of Christ in the Sudan Among the Tiv Akpenpuun Dzurgba,1992 The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership and articles of special interest to English readers have been added The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000

year history within a global context taking into account other religions and philosophies A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions This comprehensive work while scholarly is intended for a wide audience and will set the standard for reference works on Christianity Outstanding reference sources 2000 American Libraries May 2000 Comp by the Reference Sources Committee RUSA ALA Religion and the Making of Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan, 2016-12-09 In Religion and the Making of Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan examines how Christian Muslim and indigenous religious structures along with the legacies of British colonial rule have provided the essential social and ideological frameworks for the construction of contemporary Nigeria The Nigerian Law of Locust Standi Mike Agbedor Abu Ozekehome, 1988 T&T Clark Companion to Methodism Charles Yrigoyen Jr, 2014-09-25 The first volume in the T T Clark Companions series this volume is a handbook on Methodism containing an introduction dictionary of key terms and concentrates on key themes methodology and research problems for those interested in studying the origins and development of the history and theology of world Methodism The literature describing the history and development of Methodism has been growing as scholars and general readers have become aware of its importance as a world church with approximately 40 million members in 300 Methodist denominations in 140 nations The tercentenary celebrations of the births of its founders John and Charles Wesley in 2003 and 2007 provided an additional focus on the evolution of the movement which became a church This book researches questions problems and resources for further study Methodist Church Nigeria ... Foundation Conference, Lagos: 28-9-62 Methodist Church Nigeria. Conference, 1962* Civil Society, Conflict Resolution, and Democracy in Nigeria Darren Kew, 2016-05-31 African nations have watched the recent civic dramas of the Arab Spring and Occupy Wall Street asking if they too will see similar civil society actions in their own countries Nigeria Africa s most populous nation has long enjoyed one of the continent s most vibrant civil society spheres which has been instrumental in political change Initially viewed as contributing to democracy s development however civil society groups have come under increased scrutiny by scholars and policymakers Do some civil society groups promote democracy more effectively than others And if so which ones and why By examining the structure organizational cultures and methods of more than one hundred Nigerian civil society groups Kew finds that the groups that best promote democratic development externally are themselves internally democratic Specifically the internally democratic civil society groups build more sustainable coalitions to resist authoritarian rule support and influence political parties more effectively articulate and promote public interests in a more negotiable fashion and most importantly inculcate democratic norms in their members which in turn has important democratizing impacts on national political cultures and institutions Further internally democratic groups are better able to resolve ethnic differences and ethnic based tensions than their undemocratically structured peers This book is a deeply comprehensive account of Nigerian civil society groups in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Kew blends democratic theory with conflict resolution methodologies to argue that the manner in which groups and states manage internal conflicts provides an important gauge as to how democratic their political cultures are The conclusions will allow donors and policymakers to make strategic decisions in their efforts to build a democratic society in Nigeria and other regions

Theologies of the 21st Century David L. Smith, 2014-10-02 What theologies are popular and formative of Christian thinking in the present day How should they be assessed by those Christians who want to be in the world without being of the world Theologies of the 21st Century begins with an overview of the historical roots from which current theological thinking has developed and then moves on to a detailed evaluation of the chief doctrinal and practical emphases taking an evangelical biblical perspective that seeks to be at once both critical and irenic

Ecumenical and Interreligious Identities in Nigeria Ikenna Paschal Okpaleke, 2021-11-09 Dialogue can bring about transformation That conviction grounds Ikenna Paschal Okpaleke's argument concerning dialogue between groups and ecumenical and interreligious dialogue in particular In Ecumenical and Interreligious Identities in Nigeria Transformation through Dialogue he examines the fundamental question What are the additional assets and transformed views which Christian denominations committed to ecumenical dialogue can bring to the table of interreligious dialogue If Christian dialogue partners particularly in Nigeria in this case Anglicans and Roman Catholics can change how they perceive one another moving from antagonism to friendship division to unity then they as ecumenically transformed Christians can better engage in fruitful and transforming dialogue with the religious other particularly Muslims This book addresses a the constituents of communal identity and the impact of dialogue on such identity b how the Anglican Roman Catholic dialogue has or has not transformed the communal identities of the dialogue partners particularly in the local context of Nigeria c the ways in which the perceived advantages of a transformative model of dialogue shaped by ecumenical encounter and dialogue can be applied to interreligious encounter and dialogue and d how theological reflection interacts with praxis in promoting transformation through dialogue Modern Nigeria Alex Egodotaye Asakitikpi,Aretha Oluwakemi Asakitikpi,2024-01-25
