Of Sea And Shadow The Elder Empire Sea 1:

Coral Empire Ann Elias,2019-04-04 From vividly colored underwater photographs of Australia's Great Barrier Reef to life size dioramas re creating coral reefs and the bounty of life they sustained the work of early twentieth century explorers and photographers fed the public's fascination with reefs In the 1920s John Ernest Williamson in the Bahamas and Frank Hurley in Australia produced mass circulated and often highly staged photographs and films that cast corals as industrious colonizing creatures and the undersea as a virgin unexplored and fantastical territory In Coral Empire Ann Elias traces the visual and social history of Williamson and Hurley and how their modern media spectacles yoked the tropics and coral reefs to colonialism racism and the human domination of nature Using the labor and knowledge of indigenous peoples while exoticizing and racializing them as inferior Others Williamson and Hurley sustained colonial fantasies about people of color and the environment as endless resources to be plundered As Elias demonstrates their reckless treatment of the sea prefigured attitudes that caused the environmental crises that the oceans and reefs now face A Compleat History of All the Empires Impartial hand,1715 Pliny the Elder's Natural History Trevor Murphy,2004-03-11 The most important surviving encyclopedia from the ancient world Pliny the Elder's Natural History is unparalleled as a guide to the cultural meanings of everyday things in first century Rome As part of a new direction in classical scholarship Trevor Murphy reads the work not just for the information it contains but to understand how and why Pliny collects and presents information as he does Concentrating on the geographic and ethnographic information in Pliny Murphy demonstrates the work's political importance The selection and arrangement of the encyclopedia's material show that it is more than an instrument of reference it is a monument to the power of Roman imperial society Imperial Twilight Stephen R. Platt,2019-04-23 As

China reclaims its position as a world power Imperial Twilight looks back to tell the story of the country's last age of ascendance and how it came to an end in the nineteenth century Opium War As one of the most potent turning points in the country's modern history the Opium War has since come to stand for everything that today's China seeks to put behind it In this dramatic epic story award winning historian Stephen Platt sheds new light on the early attempts by Western traders and missionaries to open China even as China's imperial rulers were struggling to manage their country's decline and Confucian scholars grappled with how to use foreign trade to China's advantage The book paints an enduring portrait of an immensely profitable and mostly peaceful meeting of civilizations that was destined to be shattered by one of the most shockingly unjust wars in the annals of imperial history Brimming with a fascinating cast of British Chinese and American characters this riveting narrative of relations between China and the West has important implications for today's uncertain and ever changing political climate The Shadow of the Galilean Gerd Theissen,1987-01-01 Combining NT scholarship with the racy and readable style of a thriller Theissen succeeds brilliantly in conveying the gospel story in the fresh and imaginative prose of a novel Here is a wealth of information about Palestinian life and politics The Saturday Review of Politics,
