Merleau Pontys Philosophy Studies In Continental Thought:

Merleau-Ponty's Philosophy Lawrence Hass, 2008 A clear and comprehensive introduction to the thought of French philosopher Maurice Merleau Ponty The Thinking of the Sensible Mauro Carbone, 2004-06-21 In this first English publication of a well known and widely respected Italian scholar readers will encounter the preeminent interpreter of the works of Maurice Merleau Ponty engaged in a dialogue of critical concern to contemporary philosophy In subtle and sensitive language eminently suited to the style and substance of Merleau Ponty s own writings Mauro Carbone fashions four essays around a central theme the relations of the sensible and the intelligible and of philosophy and non philosophy that occupied Merleau Ponty in his later work An original and innovative interpretation of the ontology of Merleau Ponty and themselves a significant contribution to the field of Continental thought these essays constitute a sustained exploration of what Merleau Ponty detected and greeted as a mutation within the relations of man and Being which would provide him with the basis for a new idea of philosophy or a philosophy In lucid often elegant terms Carbone analyzes key elements of Merleau Ponty s thought in relation to Proust s Recherche Hegel s Phenomenology of Spirit the new biology of Von Uexk ll Rimbaud s Lettre du voyant and Heidegger s conception of letting be His work clearly demonstrates the vitality of Merleau Ponty s late revolutionary philosophy by following its most salient previously unexplored paths This is essential reading for any scholar with an interest in Merleau Ponty in the questions of embodiment temporality and Nature or in the possibility of philosophy today

Early Twentieth-century Continental Philosophy Leonard Lawlor, 2012 Early Twentieth Century Continental Philosophy elaborates the basic project of contemporary continental philosophy which culminates in a movement toward the outside Leonard Lawlor interprets key texts by major figures in the continental tradition including Bergson Foucault Freud Heidegger Husserl and Merleau Ponty to develop the broad sweep of the aims of continental philosophy Lawlor discusses major theoretical trends in the work of these philosophers immanence difference multiplicity and the overcoming of metaphysics His conception of continental philosophy as a unified project enables Lawlor to think beyond its European origins and envision a global sphere of philosophical inquiry that will revitalize the field Thinking Through French Philosophy Leonard Lawlor, 2003-06-20 no other book undertakes to relate all these French philosophers to each other the way that Lawlor does brilliantly Fran ois Raffoul For many Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze represent one of the greatest movements in French philosophy But these philosophers and their works did not materialize without a philosophical heritage In Thinking through French Philosophy Leonard Lawlor shows how the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty formed an important current in sustaining the development of structuralism and post structuralism Seeking the point of diffraction or the specific ideas and concepts that link Derrida Foucault and Deleuze Lawlor discovers differences and convergences in these thinkers who worked the same terrain Major themes include metaphysics archaeology language and documentation expression and interrogation and the very experience of thinking Lawlor s focus on the experience of the question brings out critical differences in immanence and transcendence This illuminating and provocative book brings new vitality to debates on contemporary French philosophy Time, Memory, Institution David Morris, Kym Maclaren, 2015-04-15 This collection is the first extended investigation of the relation between time and memory in Maurice Merleau-Ponty's thought as a whole and the first to explore in depth the significance of his concept of institution It brings the French phenomenologist's views on the self and ontology into contemporary focus Time Memory Institution argues that the self is not a self-contained or self-determining identity as such it is gathered out of a radical openness to what is not self and that it gathers itself in a time that is not merely a given dimension but folds back upon gathers and institutes itself Access to previously unavailable texts in particular Merleau-Ponty's lectures on institution and expression has presented scholars with new resources for thinking about time memory and history These essays represent the best of this new direction in scholarship they deepen our understanding of self and world in relation to time and memory and they give occasion to reexamine Merleau-Ponty's contribution and relevance to contemporary Continental philosophy This volume is essential reading for scholars of phenomenology and French philosophy as well as for the many readers across the arts humanities and social sciences who continue to draw insight and inspiration from Merleau-Ponty Contributors Elizabeth Behnke Edward Casey Vronique Fti Donald Landes Kirsten Jacobson Galen Johnson Michael Kelly Scott Marratto Glen Mazis Caterina Rea John Russon Robert Vallier and Bernhard Waldenfels The Being of the Phenomenon Renaud Barbaras, 2004 Part I Toward ontology The dualism of phenomenology of perception The other Autrui The problem of expression From speech to being Phenomenology and ontology Part II Philosophical interrogation The diplopia of cartesian ontology Fact and essence phenomenology Being and nothingness dialectic Philosophical interrogation Part III The visible Introduction The flesh the visible and the invisible Dimensionality the thing and the world Originary spatio-temporality Merleau-Ponty's leibnizianism Part IV The invisible Introduction The inner frame of intersubjectivity Desire The flesh of ideality The last chiasm The Oxford Handbook of Phenomenologies and Organization Studies François-Xavier de Vaujany, Jeremy Aroles, Mar Pérezts, 2023 Phenomenologies are a major stream of philosophy Our aim with this handbook is to explore critically and reflexively the plurality of phenomenologies and their becoming in the context of Management and Organization Studies We detail in the introduction the genealogy of the phenomenological moment and make a distinction between four streams of phenomenologies phenomenology as a phenomenological moment post phenomenologies anti phenomenologies and non phenomenologies Beyond many clichés about phenomenologies we argue that phenomenologies cultivate critical perspectives ontologies and even for some of them metaphysics that make them particularly interwoven with other philosophical traditions We draw implications for Management and Organization Studies as a field Merleau-Ponty at the Limits of Art, Religion, and Perception Kascha Semonovitch, Neal DeRoo, 2011-10-27 This book poses the question of what lies at the limit of philosophy Through close studies of French phenomenologist Maurice Merleau-Ponty's life and work the authors examine one of the twentieth century's most interdisciplinary philosophers whose thought intersected with and contributed to the practices of art psychology literature faith and philosophy As these essays show Merleau Ponty's oeuvre disrupts traditional disciplinary boundaries and prompts his readers to ask what exactly constitutes philosophy and its others Featuring essays by an international team of leading phenomenologists art theorists theologians historians of philosophy and philosophers of mind this volume breaks new ground in Merleau Ponty scholarship including the first sustained reflections on the relationship between Merleau Ponty and religion and magnifies a voice that is talked over in too many conversations across the academic disciplines Anyone interested in phenomenology art theory and history cognitive science the philosophy of mind and the philosophy of religion will find themselves challenged and engaged by the articles included in this important effort at interdisciplinary philosophy

The Philosophy of Ontological Lateness Keith Whitmoyer, 2017-09-07 Addressing Merleau Ponty's work Phenomenology of Perception in dialogue with The Visible and the Invisible his lectures at the Collège de France and his reading of Proust this book argues that at play in his thought is a philosophy of ontological lateness This describes the manner in which philosophical reflection is fated to lag behind its objects therefore an absolute grasp on being remains beyond its reach Merleau Ponty articulates this philosophy against the backdrop of what he calls cruel thought a style of reflecting that seeks resolution by limiting circumscribing and arresting its object By contrast the philosophy of ontological lateness seeks no such finality no apocalypse or unveiling but is characterized by its ability to accept the veiling of being and its own constitutive lack of punctuality To this extent his thinking inaugurates a new relation to the becoming of sense that overcomes cruel thought Merleau Ponty's work gives voice to a wisdom of dispossession that allows for the withdrawal of being Never before has anyone engaged with the theme of Merleau Ponty's own understanding of philosophy in such a sustained way as Whitmoyer does in this volume

Merleau-Ponty's Developmental Ontology David Morris, 2018-10-15 Winner of the 2020 Edward Goodwin Ballard Prize in Phenomenology Merleau Ponty's Developmental Ontology shows how the philosophy of Maurice Merleau Ponty from its very beginnings seeks to find sense or meaning within nature and how this quest calls for and develops into a radically new ontology David Morris first gives an illuminating analysis of sense showing how it requires understanding nature as engendering new norms He then presents innovative studies of Merleau Ponty's The Structure of Behavior and Phenomenology of Perception revealing how these early works are oriented by the problem of sense and already lead to difficulties about nature temporality and ontology that preoccupy Merleau Ponty's later work Morris shows how resolving these difficulties requires seeking sense through its appearance in nature prior to experience ultimately leading to radically new concepts of nature time and philosophy Merleau Ponty's Developmental Ontology makes key issues in Merleau Ponty's philosophy clear and accessible to a broad audience while also advancing original philosophical conclusions

Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres, 2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco

Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder. He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world. This opening points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation. Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand; it calls for a liberative praxis that resists the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market. Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity; a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other; a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resists the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy.

Understanding Merleau-Ponty, Understanding Modernism Ariane Mildenberg, 2018-12-13. Understanding Merleau Ponty brings into dialogue Maurice Merleau Ponty's phenomenology with modernist art, literature, music, film, and neurophysiological discoveries, opening up the complexities of the philosopher's phenomenology of perception to a broader audience across the arts. An important resource for anyone interested in the links between modernism and philosophy. Understanding Merleau Ponty offers close readings of Merleau Ponty's key texts, explores modernist works in light of his thought, and provides an extended glossary of Merleau Ponty's central terms and concepts.

Merleau-Ponty and the Art of Perception Duane H. Davis, William S. Hamrick, 2016-03-01. This collection of essays brings together diverse but interrelated perspectives on art and perception based on the philosophy of Maurice Merleau Ponty. Although Merleau Ponty focused almost exclusively on painting in his writings on aesthetics, this collection also considers poetry, literary works, theater, and relationships between art and science. In addition to philosophers, the contributors include a painter, a photographer, a musicologist, and an architect. This widened scope offers important philosophical benefits, testing and providing evidence for the empirical applicability of Merleau Ponty's aesthetic writings. The central argument is that for Merleau Ponty, the account of perception is also an account of art, and vice versa. In the philosopher's writings, art and perception thus intertwine necessarily rather than contingently, such that they can only be distinguished by abstraction. As a result, his account of perception and his account of art are organic, interdependent, and dynamic. The contributors examine various aspects of this intertwining across different artistic media, each ingeniously revealing an original perspective on this intertwining.

Ecopsychology, Phenomenology, and the Environment Douglas A. Vakoch, Fernando Castrillón, 2014-02-17. This book seeks to confront an apparent contradiction: that while we are constantly attending to environmental issues, we seem to be woefully out of touch with nature. The goal of Ecopsychology, Phenomenology, and the Environment is to foster an enhanced awareness of nature that can lead us to new ways of relating to the environment, ultimately yielding more sustainable patterns of living. This volume is different from other books in the rapidly growing field of ecopsychology in its emphasis on phenomenological approaches building on the work of phenomenological psychologists such as Maurice Merleau Ponty This focus on phenomenological methodologies for articulating our direct experience of nature serves as a critical complement to the usual methodologies of environmental and conservation psychologists who have emphasized quantitative research Moreover Ecopsychology Phenomenology and the Environment is distinctive insofar as chapters by phenomenologically sophisticated ecopsychologists are complemented by chapters written by phenomenological researchers of environmental issues with backgrounds in philosophy and geology providing a breadth and depth of perspective not found in other works written exclusively by psychologists

The Routledge Companion to Phenomenology Sebastian Luft, Søren Overgaard, 2013-07-03 Phenomenology was one of the twentieth century's major philosophical movements and continues to be a vibrant and widely studied subject today The Routledge Companion to Phenomenology is an outstanding guide and reference source to the key philosophers topics and themes in this exciting subject and essential reading for any student or scholar of phenomenology Comprising over fifty chapters by a team of international contributors the Companion is divided into five clear parts main figures in the phenomenological movement from Brentano to Derrida main topics in phenomenology phenomenological contributions to philosophy phenomenological intersections historical postscript Close attention is paid to the core topics in phenomenology such as intentionality perception subjectivity the self the body being and phenomenological method An important feature of the Companion is its examination of how phenomenology has contributed to central disciplines in philosophy such as metaphysics philosophy of mind moral philosophy aesthetics and philosophy of religion as well as disciplines beyond philosophy such as race cognitive science psychiatry literary criticism and psychoanalysis

Merleau-Ponty's Existential Phenomenology and the Realization of Philosophy Bryan A. Smyth, 2013-12-19 Bringing to light the essential philosophical role of Marxism within Merleau Ponty's reinterpretation of transcendental phenomenology this book shows that the realization of this project hinges methodologically upon a renewed conception of the proletariat qua universal class specifically that it rests upon a humanist myth of incarnation which substantiated by Merleau Ponty's notion of heroism locates an objective historical purposiveness in the habituated organism of the modern subject Foregrounding the phenomenological priority of history over corporeality in this way Smyth's analysis recovers the militant character of Merleau Ponty's existential phenomenology It thus sheds critical new light on his early thought and challenges some of the main parameters of existing scholarship by disclosing the intrinsic normativity of his basic methodological commitments

Eco-Deconstruction Philippe Lyles, David Wood, 2018-03-27 Eco Deconstruction marks a new approach to the degradation of the natural environment including habitat loss species extinction and climate change While the work of French philosopher Jacques Derrida 1930-2004 with its relentless interrogation of the anthropocentric metaphysics of presence has already proven highly influential in posthumanism and animal studies the present volume drawing on published and unpublished work by Derrida and others builds on these insights to address the most pressing environmental issues of our time The volume brings together fifteen prominent scholars from a wide variety of related fields including eco phenomenology eco hermeneutics new materialism posthumanism animal studies vegetal philosophy science and technology studies environmental humanities eco criticism earth art and aesthetics and analytic environmental ethics Overall eco deconstruction offers an account of differential relationality explored in a non totalizable ecological context that addresses our times in both an ontological and a normative register The book is divided into four sections Diagnosing the Present suggests that our times are marked by a facile flattened out understanding of time and thus in need of deconstructive dispositions Ecologies mobilizes the spectral ontology of deconstruction to argue for an originary environmentality the constitutive ecological embeddedness of mortal life Nuclear and Other Biodegradabilities examines remains including such by products and disintegrations of human culture as nuclear waste environmental destruction and species extinctions Environmental Ethics seeks to uncover a demand for justice including human responsibility for suffering beings that emerges precisely as a response to original differentiation and the mortality and unmasterable alterity it installs in living beings As such the book will resonate with readers not only of philosophy but across the humanities and the social and natural sciences

The Oxford Handbook of Environmental Ethics Stephen Mark Gardiner, Allen Thompson, 2017 We live during a crucial period of human history on Earth Anthropogenic environmental changes are occurring on global scales at unprecedented rates Despite a long history of environmental intervention never before has the collective impact of human behaviors threatened all of the major bio systems on the planet Decisions we make today will have significant consequences for the basic conditions of all life into the indefinite future What should we do How should we behave In what ways ought we organize and respond The future of the world as we know it depends on our actions today A cutting edge introduction to environmental ethics in a time of dramatic global environmental change this collection contains forty five newly commissioned articles with contributions from well established experts and emerging voices in the field Chapters are arranged in topical sections social contexts history science economics law and the Anthropocene who or what is of value humanity conscious animals living individuals and wild nature the nature of value truth and goodness practical reasons hermeneutics phenomenology and aesthetics how things ought to matter consequences duty and obligation character traits caring for others and the sacred essential concepts responsibility justice gender rights ecological space risk and precaution citizenship future generations and sustainability key issues pollution population energy food water mass extinction technology and ecosystem management climate change mitigation adaptation diplomacy and geoengineering and social change conflict pragmatism sacrifice and action Each chapter explains the role played by central theories ideas issues and concepts in contemporary environmental ethics and their relevance for the challenges of the future

Merleau-Ponty in Contemporary Context Douglas Low, 2013 This volume presents the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty a great philosopher and social theorist of mid twentieth century as a viable alternative to both modernism and postmodernism Douglas Low argues that Merleau Ponty s philosophy offers explanations and solves problems that other philosophies grapple with but do not resolve given their respective theoretical presuppositions and assumptions Low brings the work of Merleau Ponty into critical contact with important thinkers including Sartre Heidegger Derrida and Marx He highlights Merleau Ponty s connection to the early Hegel especially with regard to the criticism of modernism s representational consciousness and its subsequent skepticism with regard to our being in the world Merleau Ponty made a concerted effort to solve the problems that come about due to a wide variety of Western dualisms body and mind perception and conception self and other etc He frequently does so by demonstrating the connection between these disparate terms the connection of perception with affect and interest fact with value and a broadened view of science with moral and philosophical judgment Merleau Ponty s unique contribution is his focus on the lived through perceiving body and its relationship to abstract thought and language In his detailed analysis of the work of Merleau Ponty Low brings attention to a twentieth century master capable of altering the landscape of modern and social philosophy in the twenty first century French XX Bibliography William J. Thompson, 2006-09 Provides a listing available of books articles and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885 This work is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture The bibliography is divided into three major divisions general studies author subjects arranged alphabetically and cinema
