Robinson, 2000-12-21 The study of early Islamic historical tradition has flourished with the emergence of an innovative scholarship no longer dependent on more traditional narrativel approaches Chase Robinson s book first published in 2000 takes full account of the research available and interweaves history and historiography to interpret the political social and economic transformations in the Mesopotamian region after the Islamic conquests Using Arabic and Syriac sources to elaborate his argument the author focuses on the Muslim and Christian lites demonstrating that the immediate effects of the conquests were in fact modest ones Significant social change took place only at the end of the seventh century with the imposition of Marwanid rule Even then the author argues social power was diffused in the hands of local lites This is a sophisticated study in a burgeoning field in Islamic studies Classic Ships of Islam Dionisius A. Agius, 2008 Drawing upon Arabic literary sources iconographic evidence and archaeological finds this book examines trade port towns ship construction seamanship ship typology and their historical development in the Western Indian Ocean focussing on the Medieval Islamic period but including earlier sources A Shattered Peace David A. Andelman, 2009-07-08 Advance Praise for A Shattered Peace The peace settlements that followed World War I have recently come back into focus as one of the dominant factors shaping the modern world The Balkans the Middle East Iraq Turkey and parts of Africa all owe their present day problems in part to these negotiations David Andelman brings it all back to life the lofty ideals the ugly compromises the larger than life personalities who came to Paris in 1919 And he links that far away diplomatic dance to present day problems to illuminate our troubled times A tremendous addition to this vitally important subject Ambassador Richard Holbrooke The peace conference in Paris at the end of World War I was the first and last moment of pure hope for peace in the history of world affairs Our president Woodrow Wilson was the sorcerer for this hope and he kindled great expectations in people everywhere David Andelman a classic reporter and storyteller tells this fascinating tale of hope falling finally and forever on the shoals of naivete and hard headed cynicism Leslie H Gelb former columnist for the New York Times and President Emeritus of the Council on Foreign Relations The failed peace settlement following the Great War of 1914-1918 has been the subject of many fine books. In many respects David Andelman's A Shattered Peace is the best of these. It is compact and compellingly written. Moreover, it explains more clearly than any other work how the failure of peacemaking in 1919 shaped later history and indeed shapes our own era. Ernest R. May, Charles Warren, Professor of American History, Harvard University, writes: "It is the power and fascination of David Andelman's new book A Shattered Peace that he shows us with the clarity of a first-rate reporter and the drama and detail at the command of a first-rate novelist that we are all still enmeshed in the loose ends of the Treaty of Versailles. Andelman brings us to Korea, to Vietnam, to the Persian Gulf, and to Iraq in our own vexed era. His story is alive with color, conflict, and interesting people. We could not find a better guide to this time." Richard Snow, Editor in Chief, American Heritage. Paradigm William Jones, Discover, "the dynamic evolution of human thought and progress through the lens of paradigms, fundamental frameworks that shape our understanding of the world and drive transformative change. From ancient civilizations to the technological innovations of the 21st century, Paradigm: Shifting Perspectives in a Changing World explores how these shifting paradigms have shaped history, science, culture, and society. Embark on a journey through pivotal moments such as the Scientific Revolution, the Enlightenment, and the Information Age, where paradigms collided, giving birth to new ideas, movements, and possibilities. Explore how paradigms in education, psychology, medicine, economics, and politics continue to influence our lives today and shape our visions for the future. Written in an engaging and accessible style, this book invites readers of all ages to contemplate the complexities of human progress, challenge conventional wisdom, and envision new possibilities for a rapidly changing world. Whether you are a student of history, a curious thinker, or simply intrigued by the forces that shape our world, Paradigm offers a compelling narrative that celebrates the power of ideas to transform societies and inspire generations."

This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries, a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India. Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text, this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances. The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain, North Africa, Egypt, Syria, Anatolia, Iraq, and Yemen, as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran. It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment. The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration, the art of the object, and the art of the book. With many new illustrations, often in color, this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world Iraq
