Krigstein, 2013-03-20

Bernard Krigstein began his career as an unremarkable journeyman cartoonist during the 1940s and finished it as a respected fine artist and illustrator but comics historians know him for his explosively creative 1950s during which he applied all the craft intelligence and ambition of a burgeoning serious artist to his comics work with results that remain stunning to this day Krigstein s legend rests mostly on the 30 or so stories he created for the EC Comics but dozens of stories drawn for other lesser publishers such as Rae Herman Hillman and Atlas which would become Marvel showcase his skills and radical reinterpretation of the comics page in particular his groundbreaking slicing and dicing of time lapses through a series of narrow nearly animated panels Greg Sadowski who has previously written and designed a Harvey Award winning biography of Krigstein has assembled the very best of Krigstein s comics work starting with his earliest creative rumblings through his glory days at EC to his final even more brilliantly radical stories for Atlas Comics running through every genre popular at the time be it horror science fiction war western or romance but no super heroes      Arletis, Abuelo, and the Message in a Bottle Lea Aschkenas, 2024-03-22

When a little girl who loves maps and dreams of one day meeting people from other places finds a message in a bottle thrown by an old man with similar dreams in a foreign land their communication bridges generational cultural and political boundaries to forge a lasting friendship Based on a true story Arletis Abuelo Esteban and the Message in a Bottle is a lyrically written lushly illustrated portrait of life in rural Cuba that will enchant children and adults alike      Message in a
