Problems of Living Dan J. Stein, 2021-05-11 Problems of Living Perspectives from Philosophy Psychiatry and Cognitive Affective Science addresses philosophical questions related to problems of living including questions about the nature of the brain mind reason and emotion happiness and suffering goodness and truth and the meaning of life It draws on critical pragmatic and embodied realism as well as moral naturalism and brings arguments from metaphysics epistemology and ethics together with data from cognitive affective science This multidisciplinary integrated approach provides a novel framework for considering not only the nature of mental disorders but also broader issues in mental health such as finding pleasure and purpose in life Draws on the strongest aspects of polar positions in philosophy and psychiatry to help resolve important perennial debates in these fields Explores continuities between early philosophical work and current cognitive affective sciences including neuroscience and psychology Employs findings from modern cognitive affective science to rethink key long standing debates in philosophy and psychiatry Builds on work showing how mind is embodied in the brain and embedded in society to provide an integrated conceptual framework Assesses both the insights and the limitations of cognitive affective science for addressing the big questions and hard problems of living

Christina Rossetti's Environmental Consciousness Todd Williams, 2019-05-01 Christina Rossetti's Environmental Consciousness takes a cognitive ecocritical approach to Rossetti's writing as it developed throughout her career This study provides a unique understanding of Rossetti's identity as an artist through a cognitive model while also engaging significantly with her spiritual relationship to the nonhuman world Rossetti was a deliberate and conscious creator who used her writing for therapeutic purposes to create contemplate maintain verify and revise her identity Her understanding of her autobiographical self and her place in the world often comes through observations and poetic treatments of the nonhuman Rossetti her speakers and her characters seek spiritual knowledge in the natural world and share this knowledge with an audience In nature Rossetti finds evidence for and guidance from a loving God who offers salvation Her work places a high value on nature from a Christian perspective that puts conservation over renunciation She frequently uses strategies that have now been identified by Christian environmentalist such as retrieval ecojustice stewardship and ecological spirituality With new readings of popular works like Goblin Market and A Birthday along with treatments of largely neglected works like Verses 1847 and Rossetti's devotional writings Christina Rossetti's Environmental Consciousness offers an understanding of Rossetti's processes and purposes as a writer and displays new potential for her work in the face of twenty first century environmental issues
