- The shiny new bicycle was like a new toy.
- A red like blood.
- The fall of the empire was as swift as a falling star.
- Beautiful as advertising.
- He acts like a bull in a china shop!
- Narrow as a corridor.
- Her voice was like velvety chocolate.
- The book is as black as coal.
- She smiled like the Mona Lisa.
- She is like a flower.
- The weather today is as warm as summer.
- She was as cute as a button.
- A bad sleep makes you as tired as an elephant.
- Being a hard worker is like washing windows.
- The food was awful. It was like eating cardboard.
- She looked pale as margarine.
- He smiled as if butter wouldn't melt in his mouth.
- The music played on and on like the sound made by a flute.
- The mire looked like soapy water.
- The child crawled into her mother's lap, like a contented kitten.

- She is a rock of stability.
- Love is blind.
- He's a burning candle.
- He is a sleeping tiger.
- His voice trailed off
- That woman has the face of an angel.
- For a moment, she paused
- A sense of dread washed over him
- The basement door creaked open.
- He stabbed the air with his pointer.
- He had made a belly full of promises he could not keep and now he was singing the blues
- He is a shark that will eat you up.
- Her eyes glinted with mischief.
- All I wanted to do was curl up on the sofa and vegetate until springtime.
- You've got some nerve!
- She was on cloud nine.
- The team members were off their game.
- The snow is a white blanket that covers the enemy.
- Inclement weather stopped him from leaving the house.
- The chair is the boss's throne.

Metaphor in Educational Discourse Lynne Cameron, 2003-03-13 Metaphor in Educational Discourse is a superb piece of applied linguistics research that integrates Vygotsky's theory of concepts with current work on metaphor into a coherent framework for investigating how teachers and learners negotiate figurative language in order to promote development in the classroom setting. In what is likely to become the standard for future studies in this area, Lynne Cameron meticulously demonstrates the central role of linguistic metaphors in classroom learning designed to lead learners to a deeper understanding of complex mathematical and scientific concepts. James P. Lantolf, Professor of Applied Linguistics, The Pennsylvania State University. This book reports research into metaphor in use with school students. The setting for the research is a UK school and the participants are around ten years old with their first language well established but still developing concepts and understandings. Close examination of a corpus of classroom spoken discourse reveals how metaphor is employed by their teachers not just in explaining ideas but in managing and mediating the activity of the classroom and the learning of the students. Particular issues discussed include the problems of identifying metaphors in spoken discourse, the conventionalism of metaphors in the discourse of socio-cultural groups, and how a socio-cultural approach can account for systematicity in metaphor use.

A Spectrum of Solutions for Clients with Autism Rachel Bedard, Lorna Hecker, 2020-07-29 This book is a comprehensive resource to guide work with individuals on the autism spectrum. It reflects the true range of needs presented by individuals with autism, pulling together the most salient aspects of treatment with invaluable information from several disciplines synthesized to guide your work. Divided into topical sections with chapters from three field experts in each, this book features contributions from therapists, educators, and medical doctors, as well as financial planners, health advocates, and innovators. The diverse disciplines and backgrounds of each author lend a different voice and perspective to each chapter, reflecting the continuum of care necessary when working with clientele on the autism spectrum and that for clients on the spectrum, one solution does not fit all. For use by psychotherapists, counselors, applied behavioral analysts, occupational therapists, social workers, teachers, and more, this text presents readers with expertise from various contributing disciplines to give them a treatment resource that can inform and guide their daily work with clients on the autism spectrum.

Semantics, Pragmatics, Philosophy Kasia M. Jaszczolt, Katarzyna Jaszczolt, 2023-03-16 Combining semantics, pragmatics, and philosophy, this is a guide on how to think about meaning like a linguist and philosopher.

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13 Metaphors of Confinement: The Prison in Fact, Fiction, and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present, as well as non-penal situations described as confining or restrictive. These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons, just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time. Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods

Political Metaphor Analysis Andreas Musolff, 2016-08-25 Political metaphors and related figurative discourse tools are characterised by their variability and contentiousness Using them discourse participants try to gain competitive advantage over others by offering their audiences new meaning nuances challenging each other and announcing political initiatives It is here that metaphor as a means to change meanings and thus to change social and political reality comes into its own Political Metaphor Analysis provides an innovative approach to the study of figurative language use in political discourse by presenting empirical analyses based on a large corpus of political metaphors and metonymies linking these analyses to theoretical positions and assessing their limitations and perspectives for further exploration The classic model of conceptual metaphor analysis pioneered by Lakoff and Johnson 1980 and expanded and amended over the past thirty five years is critically examined with regard to new findings about the variation historicity pragmatic exploitation comprehension and interpretation of metaphors As a central new analytical category the notion of metaphor scenario is proposed and tested against various sub sets of data It allows to link hypothesised conceptual metaphors to narrative argumentative and evaluative patterns in actual discourse and understanding processes so that their cognitive significance can be more reliably gauged and theoretically modelled

Competition and Cooperation James Alt,Margaret Levi,Elinor Ostrom,1999-10-29 What can the disciplines of political science and economics learn from one another Political scientists have recently begun to adapt economic theories of exchange trade and competition to the study of legislatures parties and voting At the same time some of the most innovative and influential thinkers in economics have crossed the boundaries of their discipline to explore the classic questions of political science Competition and Cooperation features six of these path breaking scholars all winners of the Nobel Prize for Economics in a series of conversations with more than a dozen distinguished political scientists The discussions analyze adapt and extend the Nobelists seminal work showing how it has carried over into political science and paved the way for fruitful cooperation between the two disciplines The exchanges span all of the major conceptual legacies of the Nobel laureates Arrow s formalization of the problems of collective decisions Buchanan s work on constitutions and his critique of majority rule Becker s theory of competition among interest groups North s focus on insecure property rights and transaction costs Simon s concern with the limits to rationality and Selten s experimental work on strategic thinking and behavior As befits any genuine dialogue the traffic of ideas and experiences runs both ways The Nobel economists have had a profound impact upon political science but in addressing political questions they have also had to rethink many settled assumptions of economics The standard image of economic man as a hyper rational self interested creature acting by and for for himself bears only a passing resemblance to man as a political animal Several of the Nobelists featured in this volume have turned instead to the insights of cognitive science and institutional analysis to provide a more recognizable portrait of political life The reconsideration of rationality and the role of institutions in economics as in politics raises the possibility of a shared approach to individual choice and institutional behavior that gives glimmers of a new unity in the social sciences Competition and Cooperation demonstrates that the most important work in both economics and political science reflects a marriage of the two disciplines
