public policy marriage and family law and social work Philosophy of Technology Robert C. Scharff, Val Dusek, 2013-12-02
 The new edition of this authoritative introduction to the philosophy of technology includes recent developments in the subject while retaining the range and depth of its selection of seminal contributions and its much admired editorial commentary. Remains the most comprehensive anthology on the philosophy of technology available. Includes editors' insightful section introductions and critical summaries for each selection. Revised and updated to reflect the latest developments in the field. Combines difficult to find seminal essays with a judicious selection of contemporary material. Examines the relationship between technology and the understanding of the nature of science that underlies technology studies Metafolklore
 Alexander V. Avakov, 2012-12-11 The book is organized in Folklore Units. Each Folklore Unit has Context and may have one or more Metacontexts with citations of works of great philosophers or writers; hence the title of the book is Metafolklore. The book covers the life of immigrants from the USSR in the U.S., remembers life in Russia, and gradually concentrates on the modus operandi of the KGB, FBI, CIA, NYPD, NSA, ECHELON, Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, AI, and ISI. It covers frontiers of legal theory of surveillance. What distinguishes this book is the intensely personal account of the events and issues What Makes a Philosopher Great? Stephen Hetherington, 2017-11-10 This book is inspired by a single powerful question: What is it to be great as a philosopher? No single grand answer is presumed to be possible; instead, rewardingly close studies of philosophical greatness are developed. This is a scholarly yet accessible volume blending metaphilosophy with the long history of philosophy and traversing centuries and continents. The result is a series of case studies by accomplished scholars, each chapter trying to understand and convey a particular philosopher's greatness: Lloyd P. Gerson on Plato, Karyn Lai on Zhuangzi, David Bronstein on Aristotle, Jonardon Ganeri on Buddhaghosa, Jeffrey Hause on Aquinas, Gary Hatfield on Descartes, Karen Detlefsen on du Châtelet, Don Garrett on Hume, Allen Wood on Kant as a moral philosopher, Nicholas F. Stang on Kant as a metaphysician, Ken Gemes on Nietzsche, Cheryl Misak on Peirce, David Macarthur on Wittgenstein. This also serves a larger philosophical purpose: Might we gain increased clarity about what philosophy is in the first place? After all, in practice, we individuate philosophy partly through its greatest practitioners' greatest contributions. The book does not discuss every philosopher who has been regarded as great. The point is not to offer a definitive list of The Great Philosophers but rather to learn something about what great philosophy is and might be from illuminated examples of past greatness.

Knowing Reality Dwayne Moore, 2023-06-19 Knowing Reality is a guided introduction to metaphysics and epistemology. Each of the book's twelve chapters contains extended excerpts from influential historical and contemporary philosophers as well as a guided exposition of their views and their locations within the logical space of the issues at play. Topics are introduced through engaging thought experiments with relevant philosophical puzzles sprinkled throughout. Complex issues are explained using down-to-earth examples with illustrations provided to connect with readers and assist them in understanding the sophisticated concepts under discussion A New Modern Philosophy Eugene Marshall, Susanne Sreedhar,2019-03-07 The seventeenth and eighteenth centuries are arguably the most important period in philosophy's history given that they set a new and broad foundation for subsequent philosophical thought. Over the last decade, however, discontent among instructors has grown with coursebooks' unwavering focus on the era's seven most well-known philosophers, all of them white and male, and on their exclusively metaphysical and epistemological concerns. While few dispute the centrality of these figures and the questions they raised, the modern era also included essential contributions from women like Margaret Cavendish, Elisabeth of Bohemia, Mary Wollstonecraft, and Emilie Du Châtelet, as well as important non-white thinkers such as Anton Wilhelm Amo, Julien Raimond, and Ottobah Cugoana. At the same time, there has been increasing recognition that moral and political philosophy, philosophy of the natural world, and philosophy of race are also vibrant areas of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries that need to be better integrated with the standard coverage of metaphysics and epistemology. A New Modern Philosophy: The Inclusive Anthology of Primary Sources addresses in one volume these valid criticisms. Weaving together multiple voices and all of the era's vibrant areas of debate, this volume sets a new agenda for studying modern philosophy. It includes a wide range of readings from 34 thinkers, integrating essential works from all of the canonical writers along with the previously neglected philosophers. Arranged chronologically, editors Eugene Marshall and Susanne Sreedhar provide an introduction for each author that sets the thinker in his or her time period as well as in the longer debates to which the thinker contributed. Study questions and suggestions for further reading conclude each chapter. At the end of the volume, in addition to a comprehensive subject index, the book includes 13 Syllabus Modules which will help instructors use the book to easily set up different topically structured courses such as The Citizen and the State, Mind and Matter, Education, Theories of Perception, or Metaphysics of Causation. And an e-resource offers a wide range of supplemental online resources including essay assignments, exams, quizzes, student handouts, reading questions, and scholarly articles on teaching the history of philosophy.
