Palko,2021-08-01 Motherhood is one of those roles that assumes an almost outsized cultural importance in the significance we force it to bear It becomes both the source of and the repository for all kinds of cultural fears Its ubiquity perhaps makes it this perfect foil After all while not everyone will become a mother everyone has a mother When we force motherhood to bear the terrors of what it means to be human we inflict trauma upon those who mother A long tradition of bad mothers thus shapes contemporary mothering practices and the way we view them including the murderous Medea of Greek mythology the power hungry Queen Gertrude of Hamlet and the emasculating mother of Freud s theories Certainly there are mother who cause harm inflict abuse act monstrously Mothers are human But mothers are also a favourite and easy scapegoat The contributors to this collection explore a multitude of interdisciplinary representations of mothers that through their very depictions of bad mothering challenge the tropes of monstrous mothering that we lean on revealing in the process why we turn to them Chapters in Monstrous Mothers Troubling Tropes explore literary cinematic and real life monstrous mothers seeking to uncover social sources and results of these monstrosities Spoils of War Renée T. White,Denean T. Sharpley-Whiting,1997-08-29 Women of color remain arguably the most economically politically and socially marginalized group in the United States and the Third World In Spoils of War a diverse group of distinguished contributors suggest that acts of aggression resulting from the racism and sexism inherent in social institutions can be viewed as a sort of war experienced daily by women of color An Anatomy of Feminist Resistance Henriette Dahan Kalev,2018-11-27 The book explores the story of two women living in remote town Mitzpe Ramon in the Negev Desert in south Israel These women lived in poverty and worked under oppressive conditions for all their lives until one day they began to resist Standing for the rights of working women and mothers they led protests and strikes that shook the entire country for weeks In An Anatomy of Feminist Resistance Rebel in the Wilderness Dahan Kalev's innovative perspective examines both the public and private spheres of these women's lives and reveals the existence of a third sphere in which women are able to find their voices This study deciphers what causes women to accept conditions of oppression under what circumstances will women begin to resist and what are the political transformations rebellious women undergo while fighting oppression Robo Sacer David S. Dalton, 2023-05-15 Robo Sacer engages the digital humanities critical race theory border studies biopolitical theory and necropolitical theory to interrogate how technology has been used to oppress people of Mexican descent both within Mexico and in the United States since the advent of the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA in 1994 As the book argues robo sacer identity emerges as transnational flows of bodies capital and technology become an institutionalized state of exception that relegates people from marginalized communities to the periphery And yet the same technology can be utilized by the oppressed in the service of resistance The texts studied here represent speculative stories about this technological empowerment These texts theorize different means of techno resistance to key realities that have emerged within Mexican and Chicano/a communities under the rise and reign of neoliberalism The first three chapters deal with dehumanization the trafficking of death and unbalanced access to technology The final two chapters deal with the major forms of violence feminicide and drug related violence that have grown exponentially in Mexico with the rise of neoliberalism These stories theorize the role of technology both in oppressing and in providing the subaltern with necessary tools for resistance Robo Sacer builds on the previous studies of Sayak Valencia Irmgard Emmelhainz Guy Emerson Achille Mbembe and of course Giorgio Agamben but it differentiates itself from them through its theorization on how technology and particularly cyborg subjectivity can amend the reigning biopolitical and necropolitical structures of power in potentially liberatory ways Robo Sacer shows how the cyborg can denaturalize constructs of zo by providing an outlet through which the oppressed can tell their stories thus imbuing the oppressed with the power to combat imperialist forces Women, Science, and Technology Mary Wyer, Mary Barbercheck, Donna Cookmeyer, Hatice Ozturk, Marta Wayne, 2013-09-11 Women Science and Technology is an ideal reader for courses in feminist science studies This third edition fully updates its predecessor with a new introduction and twenty eight new readings that explore social constructions mediated by technologies expand the scope of feminist technoscience studies and move beyond the nature culture paradigm Poetic Operations micha cárdenas, 2021-12-13 In Poetic Operations artist and theorist micha cárdenas considers contemporary digital media artwork and poetry in order to articulate trans of color strategies for safety and survival Drawing on decolonial theory women of color feminism media theory and queer of color critique cárdenas develops a method she calls algorithmic analysis Understanding algorithms as sets of instructions designed to perform specific tasks like a recipe she breaks them into their component parts called operations By focusing on these operations cárdenas identifies how trans and gender non conforming artists especially artists of color rewrite algorithms to counter violence and develop strategies for liberation In her analyses of Giuseppe Campuzano's holographic art Esdras Parra's and Kai Cheng Thom's poetry Mattie Brice's digital games Janelle Monáe's music videos and her own artistic practice Cárdenas shows how algorithmic analysis provides new modes of understanding the complex processes of identity and oppression and the intersection of gender sexuality and race
