Black Boys are Lit Brian L. Wright, Donna Y. Ford, James L. Moore, 2021-11-01 This book of matrices with Black boys as the main character is designed to help gifted and talented education teachers leverage Black boys' identities to inform and shape how they plan and deliver curriculum and instruction and manage the multicultural democratic and culturally responsive classroom Ford and colleagues 2005 spoke to the notion of and need for self-reflective instruction We argue that all teachers must want to and learn how to legitimize the everyday experiences that are learned and cultivated in the homes and communities of Black boys and how these experiences shape their self-identities and contribute to agency Wright Counsell without hope versus hopeful or out of control and dangerous Tatum 2005 p 28 versus developing self-control like all other children Wright et al 2018

Look Up! Images in the Classroom Gwendolyn J. Cooke PhD, 2013-12-13 Too often the children of the poor do not perceive highly accomplished men and women as realistic role models for themselves By examining profiles of African American elected officials and other role models in the curriculum presented in Look Up Images in the Classroom students may be encouraged to enlarge their visions and embrace the fact that anything the mind can conceive and believe can be achieved Author Gwendolyn J Cooke shares the details of Look Up a motivational intervention strategy designed to instill pride and foster high academic achievement and socially responsible behavior It accentuates the positive outcomes of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and the civil rights movement The program exposes economically disadvantaged African American children to appropriate role models through photographic images and selected biographical information of elected officials at each level of government Lesson plans hands on activities and coordinating website references are included to enhance the students learning experiences to show that success is possible through hard work perseverance creativity and clear planning

Barack Obama, The Aloha Zen President Michael Haas,2011-01-19 With a foreword written by former presidential candidate Michael Dukakis this book portrays President Barack Obama as a true child of Hawai i and explains why he believes that America can achieve even more greatness by learning from the multicultural customs of the 50th state Obama s aspiration to transform the United States using Hawai i as his model has been a conspicuous theme in his books and speeches over the years In them he extols Hawai i s multicultural ethos describing how a normative problem solving mindset predicated on mutual respect and harmonious interchange is inculcated in the culture politics and society of the Islands Indeed this Aloha Spirit is imbued in Barack Obama is part of what made him irresistibly charismatic as a candidate and explains why voters in 2010 were baffled at his demeanor after he became the 44th President of the United States This unique book examines Obama s decisions as an adult and as president and exposes how they are directly linked to the culture of Hawai i and Obama s multicultural life as a child The author and contributors also describe the ways in which native Hawaiians were dispossessed of their sovereignty and their land how they steadfastly sought justice and how their quest served as a model for Obama s mobilization of support for his candidacy

Mediating Cultures Alberto González,Tina M. Harris,2013 This book explores the communication challenges faced by parents as they raise children who are bi cultural multi cultural or are adopted from a heritage other than the parents Each contributor views the family as a site of intercultural dialogue and mediation and uses compelling studies throughout to examine the parents who creatively balance cultural influences within their families Using television depictions of parents on Modern Family and All American Muslim to the everyday activities of mixed ethnicity and international families Mediating Cultures reports the communication strategies employed by the parents as they strive to create affirming relationships between children and their heritages This collection brings together two largely separate literatures of family communication and intercultural communication studies with accessible yet context driven studies to explain how families integrate multiple cultural heritages and perspectives

(Mis)Reading Different Cultures Yukari Takimoto Amos, Daniel Miles Amos, 2018-06-29 Teachers' selection of the literature they use in instruction frequently depends on how they interpret it in other words whether or not they accurately take in the authors' perspectives This point presents a particular challenge in the selection of international literature International literature reflects a country's and a region's unique cultural values and practices and is usually not written for people outside the country of origin Therefore it is possible that readers in other countries may not understand or be aware of those values and misinterpret the stories Since Asian and the Western countries including the U.S. hold maximum sociocultural differences and the perceived cultural distance has remained significantly wide reading and interpreting literature from Asia can present tremendous challenges to Americans The book addresses the challenges teachers face when interpreting and teaching with international children's literature from Asia The book engages readers with comprehensive coverage on theories, concepts, pitfalls, and applications when endeavoring to use international children's literature from Asia in classrooms The book should be used to teach how interpretations, worldviews vary by cultures and how power influences such interpretations, worldviews Strategies and frameworks will be provided relating to how teachers can be more culturally conscious of their own biases and develop culturally authentic interpretations

1,000 Books to Read Before You Die James Mustich, 2018-10-02 The ultimate literary bucket list THE WASHINGTON POST Celebrate the pleasure of reading and the thrill of discovering new titles in an extraordinary book that's as compulsively readable, entertaining, surprising, and enlightening as the 1,000-plus titles it recommends Covering fiction, poetry, science, and science fiction, memoir, travel, writing, biography, children's books, history, and more 1,000 Books to Read Before You Die ranges across cultures and through time to offer an eclectic collection of works that each deserve to come with the recommendation You have to read this But it s not a proscriptive list of the great works rather it s a celebration of the glorious mosaic that is our literary heritage Flip it open to any page and be transfixed by a fresh take on a very favorite book Or come across a title you always meant to read and never got around to Or like browsing in the best kind of bookshop stumble on a completely unknown author and work and feel that tingle of discovery There are classics of course and unexpected treasures too Lists to help pick and choose like Offbeat Escapes or A Long Climb but What a View And its alphabetical arrangement by author assures that surprises await on almost every turn of the page with Cormac McCarthy and The Road next to Robert McCloskey and Make Way for Ducklings Alice Walker next to Izaak Walton There are nuts and bolts too best editions to read other books by the author if you like this you ll like that recommendations and an interesting endnote of adaptations where appropriate Add it all up and in fact there are more than six thousand titles by nearly four thousand authors mentioned a life changing list for a lifetime of reading 948 pages later you still want more

THE WASHINGTON POST      African-Centered Education Kmt G. Shockley, Kofi Lomotey, 2020-07-31 This volume brings together leading scholars and practitioners to address the theory and practice of African centered education The contributors provide 1 perspectives on the history methods successes and challenges of African centered education 2 discussions of the efforts that are being made to counter the miseducation of Black children and 3 prescriptions for and analyses of the way forward for Black children and Black communities The authors argue that Black children need an education that moves them toward leading and taking agency within their own communities They address several areas that capture the essence of what African centered education is how it works and why it is a critical imperative at this moment Those areas include historical analyses of African centered education parental perspectives strategies for working with Black children African centered culture science and STEM culturally responsive curriculum and instruction and culturally responsive resources for teachers and school leaders

Women and the White House Justin S. Vaughn, Lilly J. Goren, 2012-11-30 As the first female vice president takes office this volume explores gender perceptions and the executive role An important impressive book Lane Crothers author of Globalization and American Popular Culture The president of the United States has traditionally served as a symbol of power virtue ability dominance popularity and patriarchy In recent years however a number of high profile female candidacies have provoked new interest in gendered popular culture and how it influences Americans perceptions of the country s highest political office In this timely volume editors Justin S Vaughn and Lilly J Goren lead a team of scholars in examining how the president and the first lady exist as a function of public expectations and cultural gender roles The authors investigate how the candidates messages are conveyed altered and interpreted in hard and soft media forums from the nightly news to daytime talk shows and from tabloids to the blogosphere They also address the portrayal of the presidency in film and television productions such as 1964 s Kisses for My President and 2005 s Commander in Chief With its strong multidisciplinary approach Women and the White House commences a wider discussion about the growing possibility of a female president in the United States the ways in which popular perceptions of gender will impact her leadership and the cultural challenges she will face      How to Think Like Obama Daniel Smith,2018-10-18 How to Think Like Obama reveals the motivations inspirations and philosophies behind a man who broke the mould to challenge the status quo With his thoughts on leadership innovation creating change fighting inequality and much more you too can learn to think like Barack Obama      The Militarization of Childhood J. Beier,2011-11-16 In its various manifestations the campaign to end child soldiering has brought graphic images of militarized children to popular consciousness In the main this has been a campaign that has seemed to speak to African contexts without as much reflection on the myriad ways in which the lives of children are militarized in advanced post industrial societies Proceeding from this quite striking omission the contributors to this volume move beyond the usual focus on the global South Making what will be an important contribution to a much needed critical turn in the vast and still rapidly growing child soldier literature they address multifarious ways in which childhood is militarized beyond the global South through enactments of militarism that have drawn much less in the way of critical inquiry
