

The background is a solid black field. It is populated with numerous overlapping circles of varying diameters and shades of gray. On the left side, a large, dark gray circle is partially obscured by a white, torn-paper-like edge that extends towards the center. Other circles are scattered across the frame, some appearing as simple gray disks and others as lighter, more ethereal shapes. The overall composition is abstract and modern.

Music And Modern Art Border Crossings:

Music and Modern Art James Leggio, 2014-07-16 Music and Modern Art adopts an interdisciplinary approach to the relationship between these two fields of creative endeavor Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte, Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez, 2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today's world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story's unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty-first century engage with the concept of the border Film Music in the Sound Era Jonathan Rhodes Lee, 2020-03-10 Film Music in the Sound Era A Research and Information Guide offers a comprehensive bibliography of scholarship on music in sound film 1927-2017 Thematically organized sections cover historical studies studies of musicians and filmmakers genre studies theory and aesthetics and other key aspects of film music studies Broad coverage of works from around the globe paired with robust indexes and thorough cross referencing make this research guide an invaluable tool for all scholars and students investigating the intersection of music and film This guide is published in two volumes Volume 1 Histories Theories and Genres covers overviews historical surveys theory and criticism studies of film genres and case studies of individual films Volume 2 People Cultures and Contexts covers individual people social and cultural studies studies of musical genre pedagogy and the industry A complete index is included in each volume The Routledge Companion to Music and Modern Literature Rachael Durkin, 2022-05-26 Modern literature has always been obsessed by music It cannot seem to think about itself without obsessing about music And music has returned the favour The Routledge Companion to Music and Modern Literature addresses this relationship as a significant contribution to the burgeoning field of word and music studies The 37 chapters within consider the partnership through four lenses the universal opera and literature musical and literary forms and popular music and literature and touch upon diverse and pertinent themes for our modern times ranging from misogyny to queerness racial inequality to the claimed universality of whiteness This Companion therefore offers an essential resource for all who try to decode the musico-literary exchange Toward a New Art of Border Crossing Ananta Kumar Giri, Arnab Roy Chowdhury, David Blake Willis, 2024-11-05 Boundaries borders and margins are related concepts and realities and each of these can be conceptualized and organized in closed or open ways with degrees of closure or openness The logics of stasis and closure as well as cults of exclusivist and exclusionary sovereignty are reflected and embodied in the closed xenophobic conceptualization and organization of boundaries borders and margins But an open conceptualization of the borderlands where mixing and hybridity take place at a rapid even dizzying pace gives rise to Creolization at the threshold of sovereignties which can also be imagined At present our border zones are spaces of anxiety ridden security arrangements violence and death The existing politics of boundary maintenance is wedded to a cult of sovereignty at various levels which produces bare lives bodies and lands We need the new art of border crossing to be defined by the notion of camaraderie and shared sovereignties and non sovereignties Border zones can also be zones of meetings communication transcendence and festive celebration of the limits of our identities Thus we need a new art and politics of boundary transmutation transformation and transcendence in the broadest possible sense that entails the production of spatial scalar somatic cognitive affective and spiritual transitions Walt Whitman and Modern Music

Lawrence Kramer, 2018-12-07 Walt Whitman's poetry especially his Civil War poetry attracted settings by a wide variety of modern composers in both English and German speaking countries The essays in this volume trace the transformation of Whitman's nineteenth century texts into vehicles for confronting twentieth century problems aesthetic social and political The contributors pay careful attention to music and poetry alike in examining how the Whitman settings become exemplary means of dealing with both the tragic and utopian faces of modernism The book is accompanied by a recording by Joan Heller and Thomas Stumpf of complete Whitman cycles composed by Kurt Weill George Crumb and Lawrence Kramer and the first recording of four Whitman songs composed in the 1920s by Marc Blitzstein Time, Space, and Motion in the Age of Shakespeare

Angus Fletcher, 2009-06-30 This focused but far reaching work by the distinguished scholar Angus Fletcher reveals how early modern science and English poetry were in many ways components of one process discovering the secrets of motion Beginning with the achievement of Galileo Time Space and Motion identifies the problem of motion as the central cultural issue of the time pursued through the poetry of the age from Marlowe and Shakespeare to Ben Jonson and Milton

Modern Music and Musicians for Vocalists: Modern art songs, 1918 Issues of Contemporary Art and Aesthetics in Chinese Context Eva Kit Wah Man, 2015-08-17 This book discusses how China's transformations in the last century have shaped its arts and its philosophical aesthetics For instance how have political economic and cultural changes shaped its aesthetic developments Further how have its long standing beliefs and traditions clashed with modernizing desires and forces and how have these changes materialized in artistic manifestations In addition to answering these questions this book also brings Chinese philosophical concepts on aesthetics into dialogue with those of the West making an important contribution to the fields of art comparative aesthetics and philosophy Word and Music Studies: Defining the Field
