Muslims In Britain Making Social And Political Space:

Muslims in Britain Waqar Ahmad, Ziauddin Sardar, 2012-06-14 The management of social religious and ethnic diversity is a key social policy concern in Britain and Muslims in particular have become a focus of attention in recent years This timely and topical volume examines the position of Muslims in Britain and how they are changing and making social political and religious space With contributions from world renowned scholars on British Muslims and from policy makers writing on issues of concern to Muslims and others alike the book explores how British Muslims are changing social and religious spaces such as mosques and the role of women engaging in politics creating media and other resources and thus developing new perspectives on Islam and transforming Muslim society from within Chapters cover issues of religion and politics Britishness governance parallel lives gender issues religion in civic space ethnicity and inter ethnic and religious relations as well as the role of intellectuals chaplains and activists in reforming Islam and renovating the British political landscape Providing a broad and comprehensive examination of the key issues surrounding Muslims in the UK this book will be a valuable resource for students lecturers and researchers in sociology social policy geography politics Islamic studies and other related disciplines

Britain's rural Muslims Sarah Hackett, 2020-06-06 Immigration has long been associated with the urban landscape from accounts of inner city racial tension and discrimination during the 1960s and 1970s and studies of minority communities of the 1980s and 1990s to the increased focus on cities amongst contemporary scholars of migration and diaspora Though cities have long provided the geographical frameworks within which a significant share of post war migration has taken place Sarah Hackett argues that that there has long existed a rural dimension to Muslim integration in Britain This book offers the first comprehensive study of Muslim migrant integration in rural Britain across the post 1960s period examining the previously unexplored relationship between Muslim integration and rurality by using the county of Wiltshire in the South West of England as a case study Drawing upon a range of archival material and oral histories it challenges the long held assumption that local authorities in more rural areas have been inactive and even disinterested in devising and implementing migration integration and diversity policies and sheds light on smaller and more dispersed Muslim communities that have traditionally been written out of Britain's immigration history

Muslim Diaspora in Britain Sabah Khan, 2024-03-13 This book explores the idea of Muslim diaspora in context of Muslim communities in the United Kingdom It critically looks at the notion of ummah and presents a comprehensive account of South Asian Muslims in London Employing qualitative research methods and drawing on extensive fieldwork it delves into the identification and transnational connections of Muslims in Britain It shows the ways in which religious identity practices and experiences may instigate diasporas focusing on South Asian Muslims in London Indian Pakistani and Bangladeshi Muslims who account for 3.6 per cent of the total population Further the inter as well as intra group dynamics and studies how Muslims of different ethnic background settled in the same geo political context engage with the notion of ummah The volume will be of great interest to

scholars and researchers of religion especially Islam politics British studies and South Asian studies A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies Christopher Swift, Mark Cobb, Andrew Todd, 2016-03-09 A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies explores fundamental issues and critical questions in chaplaincy spanning key areas of health care the prison service education and military chaplaincy Leading authors and practitioners in the field present critical insight into the challenges and opportunities facing those providing professional spiritual care From young men and women in the military and in custody to the bedside of those experiencing life's greatest traumas this critical examination of the role played by the chaplain offers a fresh and informed understanding about faith and diversity in an increasingly secular society An invaluable compendium of case studies academic reflection and critical enquiry this handbook offers a fresh understanding of traditional contemporary and innovative forms of spiritual practice as they are witnessed in the public sphere Providing a wide ranging appraisal of chaplaincy in an era of religious complexity and emergent spiritualities this pioneering book is a major contribution to a relatively underdeveloped field and sets out how the phenomenon of chaplaincy can be better understood and its practice more robust and informed Religiosity and Recognition Thomas Sealy, 2021-06-28 This book argues that multiculturalism remains a relevant and vital framework through which to understand and construct inclusive forms of citizenship Responding to contemporary ethnic and religious diversity in European states and the position of religious minorities debates in multiculturalism have revitalized discussion of the public role of religion yet multiculturalism has been increasingly challenged in both political as well as academic circles With a focus on Britain and through a study of the narratives of British converts to Islam this book engages in debates centered around multiculturalism particularly on the issues of identity recognition and difference Yet it also identifies and interrogates multiculturalism's shortcomings in relation to specifically religious identities and belonging In a unique and innovative analysis this book combines a discussion of multiculturalism in Britain with insights from political theology It juxtaposes multiculturalism's concepts of ethno religious identity and recognition with the notions of religiosity and hospitality to offer a new perspective on religious identity and the implications of this for thinking with and about multiculturalism and multicultural social and political relations British Muslims Philip Lewis, 2018-05-15 An innovative study of Brown as a Scottish Catholic writer with a truly international reach Research Handbook on Multiculturalism Geoffrey Brahm Levey, 2025-03-12 This Research Handbook presents a comprehensive assessment of multiculturalism in political theory and practice from an international perspective Geoffrey Brahm Levey brings together 30 leading experts from around the world to assess the current state of the field charting lines of inquiry for further research Medina in Birmingham, Najaf in Brent Innes Bowen, 2014-09-15 The ideology and history of Britain's main Islamic groups explained Religion and British International Development Policy Aikande Clement Kwayu, 2020-03-12 This book studies the relationship between British government and faith groups in its international development agenda within and beyond the context of Brexit It includes aspects of International Relations International Development and Religion and Politics to trace the relationship between the British government and faith groups showing that the relationship is enhanced on three conditions i the resurgence of religion in international affairs ii the attitudes of politicians and political parties towards the third sector i e voluntary and private sectors and iii the rising prominence of the international development agenda in British politics The third condition triggers the need to understand this relationship in the wake of Brexit Thus the book aims to analyze to what extent the increasing prominence of an international development agenda in British politics explains the relationship between the government and faith groups and ultimately whether Brexit has increased the prominence of international development agenda and brought faith groups into closer relations with the government

Understanding Muslim Chaplaincy Sophie Gilliat-Ray,Mansur Ali,2016-02-24 Understanding Muslim Chaplaincy provides a lens through which to explore critical questions relating to contemporary religion in public life and the institutionalisation of Islam in particular Providing a rich description of the personnel practice and politics of contemporary Muslim chaplaincy the authors consider the extent to which Muslim chaplaincy might be distinctive in Britain relative to the work of Muslim chaplains in the USA and other countries This book will make a major contribution to international debate about the place of religion in public life and institutions This book derives from research that has depended on exclusive access to a wide range of public institutions and personnel who largely work behind closed doors By making public the work of these chaplains and critically examining the impact of their work within and beyond their institutions this book offers a groundbreaking study in the field of contemporary religion that will stimulate discussion for many years to come about Islam and Muslims in Western societies

Queer Muslim diasporas in contemporary literature and film Alberto Fernández Carbajal,2019-07-04 This book explores the representation of queer migrant Muslims in international literature and film from the 1980s to the present day Bringing together a variety of contemporary writers and filmmakers of Muslim heritage engaged in vindicating same sex desire the book approaches queer Muslims in the diaspora as figures forced to negotiate their identities according to the expectations of the West and of their migrant Muslim communities The book examines 3 main themes the depiction of queer desire across racial and national borders the negotiation of Islamic femininities and masculinities and the positioning of the queer Muslim self in time and place This study will be of interest to scholars as well as to advanced general readers and postgraduate students interested in Muslims queerness diaspora and postcolonialism It brings nuance and complexity to an often simplified and controversial topic

Muslim Writing, Writing Muslimness in Europe Carmen Zamorano Llena,Billy Gray,Carolina León Vegas,Carles Magrinyà Badiella,2025-09-25 Throughout the first two decades of the twenty first century the so called Muslim question has intermittently though persistently taken centre stage in Western media and political discourses In terms of culture within the European context there is also a substantial body of literature that has engaged with Western anxieties projected onto the Muslim Other and in particular the Muslim migrant Other Literary criticism of Muslim writing and writing about Muslims in Europe has often highlighted the need to offer a more nuanced articulation of Muslim identity that contributes to challenging such othering practices Critical studies on Muslim writing produced over the last two decades have predominantly focused on contemporary literature and the novel in particular and they have often centred on specific linguistic and national frameworks This collection of essays adds complexity to existing analyses of contemporary Muslim writing and writing about Muslims and Islam in the European context by emphasizing the comparative perspective of writings produced in different epochs and different linguistic and cultural contexts Drawing on transcultural and world literature perspectives Muslim writing is redefined so as to incorporate genres other than the novel and critical approaches that expand on disciplinary redefinitions of literature and literary studies The thematic focus and the rigorous in depth analysis of the different case studies will make this collection relevant to students and academics within the fields of literary and cultural studies sociology and anthropology as well as to those in European studies and global studies

Post-Multiculturalism, Religion and Recognition Thomas Sealy, 2025-06-17 This book examines the evolving relationship between multiculturalism religion and diversity in Western Europe proposing a shift towards a post multicultural approach to address religious and secular pluralism The author responds to criticisms of multiculturalism s approach to public religion including perceived group reification and limited focus on intra group domination gender and sexuality equalities Through a critical dialogue between multicultural theory and political theology the book offers an original framework for post multicultural recognition Enriching multiculturalism by integrating religious reason and institutional pluralism this book contributes crucial new insights to debates on religion equality and diversity in public life Learning and Teaching

British Values Sadia Habib, 2017-09-01 This book engages with important debates about multicultural British identities at a time when schools are expected to promote Fundamental British Values It provides valuable insight into the need to investigate fluid and evolving identities in the classroom What are the implications of Britishness exploration on young people s relationships with and within multicultural Britain What are the complexities of teaching and learning Britishness Emphasis on student voice respectful and caring dialogue and collaborative communication can lead to meaningful reflections Teachers often require guidance though when teaching about multicultural Britain The book argues that when students have safe spaces to share stories schools can become critical sites of opportunity for reflection resistance and hopeful futures Foreword by Professor Vini Lander Mecca Ziauddin Sardar, 2014-10-21 Mecca is for many the heart of Islam It is the birthplace of Muhammad the direction to which Muslims turn when they pray and the site of pilgrimage that annually draws some three million Muslims from all corners of the world Yet the significance of Mecca is more than purely religious What happens in Mecca and how Muslims think about the political and cultural history of Mecca has had and continues to have a profound influence on world events to this day In this insightful book Ziauddin Sardar unravels the meaning and significance of Mecca Tracing its history from its origins as a barren valley in the desert to its evolution as a trading town and sudden emergence as the religious center of a world empire Sardar examines the religious struggles and rebellions in Mecca that have significantly shaped Muslim culture An illuminative lyrical and witty blend of history reportage and memoir Mecca reflects all that is profound and enlightening curious and amusing about Mecca and takes us behind the closed doors to one of the most important places in the world today The Labour of Memory M. Allen,2014-12-02 This book presents a study of remembrance practices emerging after the 2005 London bombings Matthew Allen explores a range of cases that not only illustrate the effects of the organisation of remembrance on its participants but reveal how people engaged in memorial culture to address difficult and unbearable conditions in the wake of 7 7 Uncovering Islamophobia in Higher Education Arif Mahmud, Maisha Islam,2024-12-24 This edited collection documents the experiences of Muslim students and staff in UK higher education HE including their expertise and experiences in teaching scholarship policy and academic transitions as professionals academics and students At a time when UK HE at large is attempting to redress myriad racial and social injustices this collection highlights how this meaningfully applies to Muslim students and staff who find themselves at the nexus of multiple intersectional oppressions The chapters presented all written by Muslim authors describe the inequalities faced by students and staff at all levels of their educational and professional journeys exposing the fluid manifestations of Islamophobia within HE structures and institutions Critically the book advocates for hope by offering tools that universities and sector bodies can utilise to tackle challenging and nuanced cycles of inequity This timely volume is essential reading for students academics professional service staff and policymakers leading on diversity equity and inclusion research activity and interventions or those within the sector who wish for it to become more equitable The Transformative Potential of Black British and British Muslim Literature Lisa Ahrens,2019-07-03 This study investigates power belonging and exclusion in British society by analysing representations of the mosque the University of Oxford and the plantation in novels by Leila Aboulela Robin Yassin Kassab Diran Adebayo David Dabydeen Andrea Levy and Bernardine Evaristo Lisa Ahrens combines Foucault s theory of heterotopia with elements of Wolfgang Iser s reader response theory to work out Black British and British Muslim literature s potential for destabilising exclusionary boundaries In this way new perspectives open up on the intersections between space power and literature intertwining and enriching the discourses of Cultural and Literary Studies British Multiculturalism and the Politics of Representation Lasse Thomassen,2017-03-08 Uses poststructuralist theory to connect inclusion exclusion and identity using real world case studies from British culture politics and law Lasse Thomassen applies a fresh poststructuralist approach to reconcile the theoretical and practical issues surrounding inclusion exclusion and representation He opens up debates and themes including Britishness race the nature and role of Islam in British society homelessness and social justice Thomassen argues that the politics of inclusion and identity should be viewed as struggles over how these identities are represented He develops this argument through careful analysis of cases from the last four decades of British multiculturalism including public debates about the role of religion in British society Gordon Brown and David Cameron s contrasting versions of Britishness legal cases about religious symbols and clothing in schools and the Nick Hornby novel How to Be Good
