My Avant Garde Education A Memoir:

My Avant-Garde Education: A Memoir Bernard Cooper, 2015-02-16 A wry and beautifully observed memoir about coming of age in the era of conceptual art Growing up in the suburbs confused about his sexuality about his consumer oriented world about the death of his older brother Bernard Cooper falls in love with Pop art and sets off for the California Institute of the Arts the center of the burgeoning field of conceptual art in this beguiling memoir The most famous and infamous artists of the time drift through the place including Allan Kaprow and John Baldessari not to mention the student who phones the Identi Kit division of the Los Angeles Police Department and has them make a composite drawing of the Mona Lisa My Avant Garde Education is at once an artist s coming of age story and a personal chronicle of the era of conceptual art from a writer of uncommon subtlety and nuance David Ulin Los Angeles Times It is a record of the wonders and follies of a certain era in art history always aware that awakening to art is for a young person inseparable from awakening to the ever shifting nature of the self

A Memoir of an Educational Biographer Gerald L. Gutek, 2024-09-01 In his interdisciplinary memoir Gerald Gutek applies history and philosophy of education to educational biography The author was guided by his focusing goals of exploring his path to becoming an educational biographer and working generalizations with his colleagues in the field Gutek s narrative begins with the author s childhood experiences that inclined him to a career in education followed by chapters on his doctoral program in the College of Education at the University of Illinois in Champaign Urbana his teaching of history and philosophy and education in the School of Education at Loyola University Chicago his research and writing of biographies of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi and Joseph Neef and his textbook Historical and Philosophical Foundations of Education a Biographical Introduction and issues and strategies in writing about Maria Montessori Throughout the book Gutek analyzes concepts and applications he developed as an educational biographer such as parallel biographies slice of life writing reconsidering overlooked and understudied educators and the role of place and space in telling life stories

ENDORSEMENTS Readers both new to educational biography or familiar with the discipline will find a valuable account of the author s long and varied career as a biographer From his childhood memory of listening to neighbors stories in his grandfather s grocery store to encounters with the important teachers in his life Gutek brings his own story to life As he recounts the influences on his personal intellectual history and the processes of his research and writing readers gain valuable insights into the methods of an experienced educational biographer Larry Prochner University of Alberta For fifty years Gerald Gutek has been and remains one of the seminal and leading voices in the field of educational biography thus it only makes sense for him to create something new an intellectual memoir From his work on Counts in 1970 to his work on Montessori 2016 and her acolytes in the US 2020 Gutek has reliably bridged the worlds of educational history educational biography and philosophical foundations of education this work cements his legacy Gutek skillfully interweaves personal and family history with movements in educational history both formal and informal then explains how these impacted his thinking and writing Throughout this eminently readable memoir Gutek also includes political and historical context without engaging in divisiveness Scholars of life writing should give this a close reading as Gutek sprinkles nuggets of methodological brilliance throughout the manuscript Junior scholars would do well to read Gutek's more substantive sections on the methods used to write each of his books it is the academic equivalent of Master Class in textual form Ed Janak University of Toledo
