Mum Strikes Back Taboo Relations:

When You and Your Mother Can't Be Friends Victoria Secunda, 1991-05-01 A book of great value for every daughter and every mother useful for sons too Benjamin Spock M D From the Introduction The goal of this book is to help readers achieve that separation so that they can either find a way to be friends with their mothers or at least recognize and accept that their mothers did the best they could even if it wasn't good enough and to stop blaming them Among the issues to be covered To understand how a daughter's attachment to her mother more so than her relationship with her father colors all her other relationships and to analyze why it is more difficult for daughters than sons to separate from their mothers as well as why daughters are more subject than sons to a mother's manipulation To recognize the difference between a healthy and a destructive mother daughter connection and to define clearly the bad mommy in order to help readers who have trouble acknowledging their childhood losses to begin to comprehend them To conjugate what I call the Bad Mommy Taboo why our culture is more eager to protect the sanctity of maternity than it is to protect emotionally abused daughters To describe the evolution of the unpleasable mother in all likelihood she was bereft of maternal love as a child and to recognize the huge and often poignant stake she has in keeping her grown daughter dependent and off balance To illustrate the consequent controlling behavior in some cases cloaked in fragility or good intentions of such mothers which falls into general patterns including the Doormat the Critic the Smotherer the Avenger the Deserter To understand that the daughter has a similar stake in either being a slave to or hating her mother the two sides of her dependency and immaturity To illustrate the responsive behavior and survival mechanisms of daughters which is determined in part by such variables as birth rank family history and temperament and which also falls into patterns including the Angel the Superachiever the Cipher the Troublemaker the Defector To show how to redefine the mother daughter relationship so that each can learn to see and accept the other as she is today appreciating each other's good qualities and not being snared by the bad Finally to demonstrate that a redefined relationship with one's mother adult to adult frees you from the past whether that redefinition ultimately results in real friendship affectionate truce or divorce

A Casebook Edition of The Diabolic Tragedy Brian Russell Graham, 2025-01-27 This casebook edition comprises critical essays about and an English translation of La Diabolique Trag die Each essay is an example of what Peter Barry has called Crisis Critique the commentaries ranging from the psychoanalytical to the feminist the historicist and the religious A poem in prose dating from the start of the nineteenth century La Diabolique Trag die was first published in 2011 It was the work of a forger whose unrealized endgame was for the text to be presented to the public of the day as an authentic work of Jean Jacques Rousseau The critical essays represent a series of impressions of different types of literary critics which the author hopes will prove a good match for the forger's mock Rousseau

Motherhoods, Markets and Consumption Stephanie O'Donohue, Margaret Hogg, Pauline Maclaran, Lydia Martens, Lorna Stevens, 2013-10-30 It takes more than a baby to make a mother and mothers make more than babies

Bringing together a range of international studies Motherhoods Markets and Consumption examines how marketing and consumer culture constructs particular images of what mothers are what they should care about and how they should behave exploring how women's use of consumer goods and services shapes how they mother as well as how they are seen and judged by others Combining personal accounts from many mothers with different theoretical perspectives this book explores How advertising media and consumer culture contribute to myths and stereotypes concerning good and bad mothers How particular consumer choices are bound up with women's identities as mothers The role of consumption for women entering different phases of their mothering lives such as pregnancy early motherhood and the empty nest The Hades Moon Judy Hall,1998-01-15

Using mythology archetypal symbolism and a wealth of case histories this study provides new material and insight into the many facets of this major transformative contact between the Moon and Pluto Hall explains why Pluto Moon aspects are so important and gives a description of the Hades Moon through the signs and houses She shows us the symptoms and offers practical information about flower essences and techniques that can help people handle Hades Moon energy Teaching Through the Ill Body Marla Morris,2008-01-01 This book raises questions around pedagogy and illness Morris explores two large issues that run through the text What does the ill body teach What does the teacher do through the ill body The body has something to teach while teaching through the ill body This book is theoretically framed by connections between spirituality and aesthetics As the great spiritual traditions teach our responsibility as teachers is to help others especially those who are marginalized What is lacking in our educational discourse is a discussion of the responsibility we all have to help those who get sick and not marginalize them More specifically pedagogical and curricular questions are fleshed out through working in the area of curriculum studies depth psychology and the medical humanities These three disciplines have something in common autobiography But in the field of curriculum studies autobiographies pathographies of sickness are few and far between This book is meant to fill that gap in the educational literature This pathography is a study that explores the mysteries of suffering storytelling memory and poesis Compassion woundedness vulnerability testimony and authenticity are all issues Morris raises here Teachers scholars depth psychologists and medical educators might be particularly interested in this intensely felt narrative about what it is like for teachers to teach while suffering from chronic illness Working Mother ,2001-09 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

Bodies of Violence Lauren B. Wilcox,2015 According to conventional international relations theory states or groups make war and in doing so kill and injure people that other states are charged with protecting While it sees the perpetrators of violence as rational actors it views those who are either protected or killed by this violence as mere bodies ahistorical humans who breathe suffer and die but have no particular political agency In its rationalist variants IR theory only sees bodies as inert objects Constructivist theory argues that subjects are formed through social relations but leaves the bodies of subjects outside of politics as brute facts According to Wilcox such limited thinking about bodies and violence is not just wrong but also limits the capacity of IR to theorize the meaning of political violence By contrast to rationalist and constructivist theory feminist theory sees subjectivity and the body as inextricably linked This book argues that IR needs to rethink its approach to bodies as having particular political meaning in their own right For example bodies both direct violent acts violence in drone warfare for example and are constituted by practices that manage violence for example scrutiny of persons as bodies through biometric technologies and body scanners The book also argues that violence is more than a strategic action of rational actors as in rationalist theories or a destructive violation of community laws and norms as in liberal and constructivist theories Because IR theorizes bodies as outside of politics it cannot see how violence can be understood as a creative force for shaping the limits of how we understand ourselves as political subjects as well as forming the boundaries of our political communities By engaging with feminist theories of embodiment and violence Bodies of Violence provides a more nuanced treatment of the nexus of bodies subjects and violence than currently exists in the field of international relations

The Art of Crime Leslie Kane,2004-08-02 This collection of 15 original essays assembled by renowned Mamet and Pinter scholar Leslie Kane examines the pervasiveness of crime and criminality in the plays and screenplays of two of the most influential contemporary dramatists The contributors generally focus on one or more works by a single writer while a few take a comparative approach Often the works studied are lesser known or infrequently discussed works thereby making this volume a valuable addition to current scholarship In addition this volume complements other works on Mamet and Pinter on our backlist including Kane's earlier edited volumes on Mamet which both received solid sales and accolades from Choice Assembled by a Garland Routledge author with a proven sales record and impressive critical reception this collection should be an easy sell to academic and theater libraries as well as Pinter and Mamet specialists

The last taboo Karin Lesnik-Oberstein,2013-07-19 This is the first academic book ever written on women and body hair which has been seen until now as too trivial ridiculous or revolting to write about Even feminist writers or researchers on the body have found remarkably little to say about body hair usually ignoring it completely It would appear that the only texts to elaborate on body hair are guides on how to remove it medical texts on hirsutism or fetishistic pornography on hairy women The last taboo also questions how and why any particular issue can become defined as self evidently too silly or too mad to write about Using a wide range of thinking from gender theory queer theory critical and literary theory history art history anthropology and psychology the contributors argue that in fact body hair plays a central role in constructing masculinity and femininity and sexual and cultural identities It is sure to provide many academic researchers with a completely fresh perspective on all of the fields mentioned above Sexual Paradox: Complementarity, Reproductive Conflict and Human Emergence Christine Fielder,Chris King,2006 Unlocks the keys to the paradox of how sexual selection fertilized the explosion of culture and the resulting fallout in sexual dominion of man over woman and nature How sexuality generates the universe through symmetry broken complementarity The implicit conflict of interests of sexual intrigue in the prisoners dilemma and its ecstatic resolution in the cosmology of love Sexual dominance as a koan for planetary crises 560 pages containing 270 illustrations

State Power, Stigmatization, and Youth Resistance Culture in the French Banlieues Hervé Tchumkam, 2015-04-09. State Power, Stigmatization and Youth Resistance Culture in the French Banlieues. Uncanny Citizenship foregrounds the literary, sociological and political structures of urban literature in France. It uses postcolonial theory, sociology and political philosophy to investigate the modalities surrounding the question of citizenship in a country where citizens of African descent are not only considered a threat to national identity but also caught between inclusion and exclusion. By examining the literary, sociological and political structures of urban literatures produced after the 2005 riots, this book interrogates the questions of citizenship, belonging and coexistence in a context where literature from the periphery has become a site where central political power and mainstream French literary canons are contested. Moreover, these productions clearly reveal an unexplored correlation between geo-aesthetics and contemporary French national geopolitics. Ultimately, this book is a plea for a serious approach to social formation in postcolonial France in a way that transcends skin color and instead is based on a shared colonial past as well as current social disqualifications.

Doing psychiatry in postwar Europe Gundula Gahlen, Volker Hess, Marianna Scarfone, Henriette Voelker, 2024-04-30. Doing psychiatry engages with the history of European psychiatry in the second half of the twentieth century through a close and fresh look at the practices that contributed to reshape the mental health field. Case studies from across Europe allow readers to appreciate how new ways of doing contributed to transform the field beyond the watchwords of deinstitutionalisation, the prescription of neuroleptics, centrality of patients and overcoming of asylum era habits. Through a variety of sources and often adopting a small scale perspective, the chapters take a close look at the way new practices emerged and at how they installed themselves eventually facing resistance, injecting new purposes and contributing to enlarging psychiatry's fields of expertise, therefore blurring its once more defined boundaries.
