My Country Is Literature Chandrahas Choudhury, 2021-11-30 A book is only one text but it is many books It is a different book for each of its readers My Anna Karenina is not your Anna Karenina your A House for Mr Biswas is not the one on my shelf When we think of a favourite book we recall not only the shape of the story the characters who touched our hearts the rhythm and texture of the sentences We recall our own circumstances when we read it where we bought it and for how much what kind of joy or solace it provided how scenes from the story began to intermingle with scenes from our life how it roused us to anger or indignation or allowed us to make our peace with some great private discord This is the second life of the book its life in our life In his early twenties the novelist Chandrahas Choudhury found himself in the position of most young people who want to write impractical hard up ill at ease in the world Like most people who love to read his most radiant hours were inside the pages of a book Seeking to combine his love of writing with his love of reading he became an adept of a trade that is mainly transacted lying down that is he became a book reviewer Pleasure independence aesthetic rapture even a modest livelihood all these were the rewards of being a worker bee of literature ingesting the output of the publishers of the world in great quantities and trying to explain in the pages of newspapers and magazines exactly what makes a book leave a mark on the soul Even as Choudhury's own novels began to be published he continued to write about other writers books his contemporaries at home and abroad the great Indian writers of the past the relationship of the reading life in particular the novel to selfhood and democracy all the ways in which literature sings the truths of the human heart My Country Is Literature brings together the best of his literary criticism a long train of perceptive essays on writers as diverse as VS Naipaul and Orhan Pamuk Gandhi and Nehru Bibhutibhushan Bandyopadhyay and Jhumpa Lahiri The book also contains an introductory essay describing Choudhury's book saturated years as a young writer in Mumbai the joys and sorrows and stratagems of the book reviewer's trade and the ways in which literature is made as much by readers as by writers Delightfully punctuated with 15 portraits of writers by the artist Golak Khandual My Country Is Literature is essential reading for everyone who believes that books are the most beautiful things in life Fantasy of Modernity Aarti Wani, 2016-02-25 Romantic love overwhelms 1950s Bombay cinema Love and romance is evident in the themes lyrics and visual aesthetics of films of the period as it is in the publicity and gossip surrounding films and film stars Love in cinema becomes significant when social reality constrains its quotidian experience and expression By bringing a spectacular imagination of love to centre stage the 1950s cinema deflected anxieties of Indianness even as the new aesthetic and affect of romance offered an alternative engagement with the contradictions of modernity Fantasy of Modernity Romantic Love in Bombay Cinema of the 1950s explores the films the songs the stars and the extra cinematic discourse of the period to read love and romance as its most productive trope that mobilized a dynamic and contested public sphere The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia Gyan Prakash, Nikhil Menon, Michael Laffan, 2018-02-22 By exploring themes of fragility

Shareholder Cities Sai Balakrishnan argues that some of India's most decisive conflicts over its urban future will unfold in the regions along the new economic corridors where electorally strong agrarian propertied classes directly encounter financially powerful incoming urban firms Balakrishnan focuses on the first economic corridor the Mumbai Pune Expressway and the construction of three new cities along it The book derives its title from a current mode of resolving agrarian urban conflicts in which agrarian landowners are being transformed into shareholders in the corridor cities and the distributional implications of these new land transformations Shifting the focus of the study of India's contemporary urbanization away from megacities to these in between corridor regions Balakrishnan explores the production of uneven urban development that unsettles older histories of agrarian capitalism and the emergence of agrarian propertied classes as protagonists in the making of urban real estate markets Shareholder Cities highlights the possibilities for a democratic politics of inclusion in which agrarian urban encounters can create opportunities for previously excluded groups to stake new claims for themselves in the corridor regions
