Murder in Three Volumes Lorna Barrett, 2012-10-02 Stoneham New Hampshire was a dying town until community leaders invited booksellers to open up shop. Now its streets are lined with bookstores and paved with murder. Murder is Binding. When she opened her mystery bookstore city slicker Tricia Miles met friendly competition. But when she finds Doris Gleason killed by a carving knife the atmosphere seems more cutthroat than cordial. Someone wanted to get their hands on Doris' rare cookbook and the locals think that someone is Tricia. Bookmarked for Death. To celebrate her bookstore's anniversary Tricia hosts a book signing for bestselling author Zoe Carter. But the event takes a terrible turn when the author is found dead in the washroom. With both police and reporters demanding the real story Tricia will have to take matters into her own hands and read between the lines. Bookplate Special. After weeks of putting up with her uninvited college roommate Pammy Fredricks Tricia finally gets fed up and kicks her out. But when Pammy is later found dead in the trash cart Tricia will need to dive in head first if she wants to solve the case.

A Deadly Deletion Lorna Barrett, 2021-07-27 A murder leads to a string of shocking revelations for bookstore owner Tricia Miles in the latest entry to Lorna Barrett's New York Times bestselling Booktown series. Tricia Miles has just received a second marriage proposal within fifteen minutes. The first was from her friend with benefits Marshall Chambers and the second from her ex-lover police chief Grant Baker. Tricia's got some serious thinking to do. She's still weighing her options when she hears the sound of an engine roaring down Main Street. It's a big white pickup truck that aims for and hits Marshall as he's walking back to his apartment. Tragically he's killed, leaving Tricia feeling bereft and guilty. She retreats to her sister Angelica's apartment to wait for Baker to update her on what happened. While there Tricia takes Angelica's dog out for a comfort call behind the building and the same white pickup roars up the alley and just misses hitting Tricia. Still shaken by that news Tricia returns to Haven't Got a Clue and is met by federal marshal Kirby who tells her that Marshall had been in the Federal Witness Protection Program. Everything Marshall told Tricia was a lie in particular that he was a widower. Was his death an act of revenge? Tricia's on the hunt for a killer and it seems like she might be next on the list. Digital Talking Books Plus, 2012 Talking Book Topics, 2016 New York

Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1939 Shadow Archives Jean-Christophe Cloutier, 2019-09-03 Recasting the history of African American literature Shadow Archives brings to life a slew of newly discovered texts including Claude McKay's Amiable with Big Teeth to tell the stories of black special collections and their struggle for institutional recognition. Jean-Christophe Cloutier offers revelatory readings of major African American writers including McKay, Richard Wright, Ann Petry, and Ralph Ellison and provides a nuanced view of how archival methodology, access, and the power dynamics of acquisitions shape literary history. Shadow Archives argues that the notion of the archive is crucial to our understanding of postwar African American literary history. Cloutier combines his own experiences as a researcher and archivist with a theoretically rich account of the archive to offer a pioneering study of the importance of African American authors' archival practices and how these shaped their writing Given the lack of institutions dedicated to the black experience the novel became an alternative site of historical preservation a means to ensure both individual legacy and group survival Such archivism manifests in the work of these authors through evolving lifecycles where documents undergo repurposing revision insertion falsification transformation and fictionalization sometimes across decades An innovative interdisciplinary consideration of literary papers Shadow Archives proposes new ways for literary scholars to engage with the archive 111
