Coleridge and Freud popular stage entertainment in nineteenth century America poetic stimuli from James Barrie Arnold Bennett and Aldous Huxley twentieth century speculations on time and serialism the world of occult phenomena in W B Yeats and later the novelist Charles Williams and Eliot's obsessive critiques of primitive myth and ritual In various ways all of these interests intersected Smith shows in Eliot's dedication to diverse traditions a practical imperative and to a great extent a moral one for a poetic art grounded in traditional American reverence for inherited values BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved A Concordance to Fitzgerald's Translation of the Rub'aiv'at of Omar Khavv'am ,1900 Proof Through the Night Glenn Watkins, 2003 An entertaining cultural history of music during World War I covering all the major European nations as well as the United States in both classical and popular genres The book is lavishly illustrated and includes a CD Hidden Fields By Dr. Charles N. Ford, 2011-01-12 Author Charles Ford continues to examine the philosophy of choice in the spirit of poetry by existentialism Many themes are included such as alienation God death love and so on Here the list of themes is not exhausted The roots of these choices are grounded in the will of the individual rather than his her reason. He she confronts problems that are seen in the world so by his her actions disclose human nature and reflect his her latent dispositions. This is where inner choices must arise so external choices may be seen as actions per se When these state of affairs are closely examined they disclosed aspects of the human condition Experiences that revealed that we are human beings touching various realms of reality For our inner external choices say something about our makeup we are wonderfully composed and dynamically active from moment to moment of our existence In Hidden Fields Book 3 Charles has written lots of poems in a personal way He invites the readers to come along and experience reality both mentally and through their senses Every reader will soon discover something about him her with respect to choices that were made that he she is fleshly human and is real Charles wants to share and invite the reader into his home now Favorite Songs and Hymns for School and Home John Piersol McCaskey, 1899
