Stamp Collecting, 1958 The Garland Handbook of African Music Ruth M. Stone, 2010-04-02 The Garland Handbook of African Music is comprised of essays from The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Volume 1 Africa 1997 Revised and updated the essays offer detailed regional studies of the different musical cultures of Africa and examine the ways in which music helps to define the identity of this particular area Part One provides an in depth introduction to Africa Part Two focuses on issues and processes such as notation and oral tradition dance in communal life and intellectual property Part Three focuses on the different regions countries and cultures of Africa with selected regional case studies The second edition has been expanded to include exciting new scholarship that has been conducted since the first edition was published Questions for Critical Thinking at the end of each major section guide and focus attention on what musical and cultural issues arise when one studies the music of Africa issues that might not occur in the study of other musics of the world An accompanying audio compact disc offers musical examples of some of the music of Africa

Managing Organisational Success in the Arts David Stevenson, 2018-10-10 The creative and cultural industries are a dynamic and rapidly expanding field of enterprise Yet all too often the dominant narrative about arts organisations is one of crisis collapse and closure This edited collection seeks to challenge that narrative through pursuing a focus on organisational success in the management of creative and cultural organisations This book offers a robust and in depth analysis of nine international case studies exploring how different organisations have achieved their objectives through effectively managing their resources Spanning a broad cross section of the cultural sector including Theatres Multi Arts Venues Performing Arts Companies Museums and Galleries and Festivals and Events these cases highlight the importance of examining an individual organisation s success in relation to its environmental context revealing not only how arts organisations work in practice but also providing inspiration and encouragement for those wishing to emulate such success With an explicit focus on examining theory in practice this unique collection will be of great interest to students academics and practitioners alike While traditional approaches have often been overly theoretical this pragmatic approach will help students to gain a richer understanding of how to manage cultural and creative organisations more effectively

Branding Your Business James Hammond, 2011-03-03 The only way forward for business success is to create a memorable brand and fix it in the consumer s mind Branding Your Business explains the whole branding process in easy to follow terms Providing practical help instead of academic theories it explains what a brand is and what it is not how to conduct a DIY brand audit and how to use marketing NLP and psychology principles to create a powerful brand for your business Based around the theory that a brand is the total perception a customer has about a company its products or services Branding Your Business will reveal what is needed to create and manage successful brands increase profits and leave the competition standing

Berber Culture on the World Stage Jane E. Goodman, 2005-11-03 Annotation Explores Berber cultural identity and performance in Algeria France and on the world music scene Critical Mass James W. St.G. Walker, Andrew S. Thompson, 2008-02-21 Public concern about inequitable economic globalization has revealed the demand for citizen participation in global decision making Civil society organizations have taken up the challenge holding governments and corporations accountable for their decisions and actions and developing collaborative solutions to the dominant problems of our time Critical Mass The Emergence of Global Civil Society offers a unique mixture of experience and analysis by the leaders of some of the most influential global civil society organizations and respected academics who specialize in this field of study Co published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation The Festival Cities of Edinburgh and Adelaide Sarah Thomasson, 2022-08-20 The Festival Cities of Edinburgh and Adelaide examines how these cities world famous arts events have shaped and been shaped by their long term interaction with their urban environments While the Edinburgh International Festival and Adelaide Festival are long established prestigious events that champion artistic excellence they are also accompanied by the two largest open access fringe festivals in the world It is this simultaneous staging of multiple events within Edinburgh s Summer Festivals and Adelaide s Mad March that generates the visibility and festive atmosphere popularly associated with both places Drawing on perspectives from theatre studies and cultural geography this book interrogates how the Festival City as a place myth has developed in the very different local contexts of Edinburgh and Adelaide and how it is challenged by groups competing for the right to use and define public space Each chapter examines a recent performative event in which festival debates and controversies spilled out beyond the festival space to activate the public sphere by intersecting with broader concerns and audiences This book forges an interdisciplinary comparative framework for festival studies to interrogate how festivals are embedded in the social and political fabric of cities and to assess the cultural impact of the festivalisation phenomenon State And The Arts In Singapore, The: Policies And Institutions Terence Chong, 2018-08-13 This book covers Singapore s key arts policies and art institutions which have shaped the cultural landscape of the country from the 1950s to the present The scholars and experts in this volume critically assess arts policies and arts institutions to collectively provide an overview of how arts and culture have been deployed by the state The chapters are arranged chronologically to cover milestone events from the forging of Malayan culture the government s anti yellow culture campaign the use of culture for tourism the setting up of the Advisory Council on Arts and Culture the Renaissance City Report the setting up of the School of the Arts and others Putting to rest the notion that Singapore is a cultural desert this volume is valuable reading for students of cultural policy policy makers who seek an understanding of Singapore s cultural trajectory and for international readers interested in Singapore s arts and cultural policy Geography of Tourism Peter Mason, 2017-11-30 Provides both an awareness of the spatial nature of tourism by means of a geographical perspective and offers critical analysis of major contemporary geographical themes and issues that relate to tourism Drugs, Identity and Stigma Michelle Addison, William McGovern, Ruth McGovern, 2022-07-13 This book calls attention to the impact of stigma experienced by people who use illicit drugs Stigma is powerful it can do untold harm to a person and place with longstanding effects Through an exploration of themes of inequality power and feeling out of place in neoliberal times this collection focuses on how stigma is negotiated resisted and absorbed by people who use drugs How does stigma get under the skin Drawing on a range of theoretical frameworks and empirical data this book draws attention to the damaging effects stigma can have on identity recovery mental health desistance from crime and social inclusion By connecting drug use stigma and identity the authors in this collection share insights into the everyday experiences of people who use drugs and add to debate focused on an agenda for social justice in drug use policy and practice

Rules of Engagement Kim Williams, 2014-08-27 From FOXTEL to News Corp film to football

opera to business Kim Williams is a builder of Australian institutions He has worked with some of the very best in their fields Rupert Murdoch Kerry Packer Kevin Sheedy Gail Kelly and Don Burrows to name just a few Rules of Engagement is a candid up close and very personal account of the exercise of power in the nation s leading boardrooms political parties and media organisations Told with a deft touch and an energetic at times mischievous spirit Rules of Engagement shows how much one person can achieve if they have insatiable curiosity limitless interests and impressive discipline Events Management

Debra Wale,Peter Robinson,Geoff Dickson,2010 The book examines the different aspects of events management It is divided into three parts The first part provides an introductory outline of the historical developments and current state of the industry while also taking into account wider political and cultural issues The second part of the book concentrates on practical operations management including planning project management marketing human resource management health and safety logistics and funding Finally the third part covers critical issues such as impacts sustainability and legacy of events Each chapter contains case studies from around the world and review questions ensuring that the book is a useful learning tool and provides a current and up to date view of the industry in this increasingly popular field of study The publication is designed for students and practitioners in the event sector and has been developed so that readers are able to understand theory and concepts presented through applied examples Innovative Marketing Communications Guy

Masterman,Emma Wood,2007-06-01 Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management provides students and event managers with a complete insight into the strategic and innovative marketing of events of all scales and nature The book builds a conceptual framework for the development planning implementation and evaluation of innovative communication strategies for the marketing of events and the effective use of events as an innovative communications method in general organizational marketing With a strong practical underpinning Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management emphasises to event managers the importance of effectively integrating a range of tools and techniques to communicate the event and provides them with a better understanding of how a variety of private and public sector organisations can use events within their communication strategies Billboard ,1982-06-12 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Hack Graham Johnson,2012-05-10 Graham Johnson was a fresh faced journalist with an ambition to break the big news stories and make his name as a star reporter when an offer came in to work at a leading tabloid he couldn t say no Instantly he found himself drawn into a world of sleaze spin and corruption where bending the law was justifiable in the hunt for the big selling story and bending the truth was the norm Against his better judgement Graham found his niche in this new world and what s more he found that he was good at it In his time at first the News of the World then the Sunday Mirror he made a name for himself as a man who could deliver the story no matter what a kind of tabloid terrorist who rifled through celebrity s rubbish bins stalked out politicians hotel rooms and paid up page three girls to seduce Premiership footballers all in the name of scoring a front page story Hackis a compelling and intoxicating story of one man s time in the tabloid jungle a world that in its heady mix of sex drugs and casual immorality is reminiscent of the City and how he ultimately saved himself Exceptional Experiences Petra Rethmann, Helena Wulff, 2023-07-14

Looking at encounters that can puncture or jolt us this volume uses art as a lens through which to register and understand exceptional experiences The volume also includes the fieldworker s experience of unexpected events that can lead to key understandings as well as revelatory moments that happen during artistic creation and while looking at art By exploring exceptional experiences through art the volume asks probing questions for anthropology In recognizing that art is all encompassing including as it does narrative performance dance and images Exceptional Experiences situates itself within a number of conversations on methodological and conceptual issues in anthropology and beyond Ink on the Tracks Adrian Grafe, Andrew McKeown, 2024-08-22

This book embraces the multiplicity of forms of writing inspired by rock and roll Exploring a diverse range of formats including rock autobiography and gender race and class in American rock journalism rock obituaries rock literature and spirituality rock writing and promotion packaging and more this book identifies and prioritizes writing forms often excluded from the categorization of rock music writing Vitally the volume places rock and roll writing within a wider cultural frame often overlooked by studies of traditional white male led music journalism Selling The Night Andy Crysell, 2025-02-28 Brands moving into club culture to act as sponsors and supporters People and ideas emerging from club culture to influence media fashion gaming advertising design beauty tourism and more Selling The Night is the first book to join the dots between club culture and the wider creative industries Selling The Night hears from more than 100 DJs promoters agents marketers writers designers photographers curators academics educators activists policymakers and venture capitalists including New York disco legend Nicky Siano educator King Britt Hacienda designer Ben Kelly and modern day tastemaker Jamz Supernova It moves from disco first making a mark on culture some 50 years ago through the 1990s convergence of youth marketing and dance music to modern day brand partnerships All the while it celebrates what makes after dark ideas special the unique and democratising role they play
