Muslim-Christian Relations in Late Ottoman Palestine Erik Freas, 2016 Palestine's Christians and the Nationalist Cause Erik Freas, 2024-12-23 This book provides an historical overview of Palestine's Christian communities and their role in the Palestinian nationalist movement during the late Ottoman and British mandatory periods More than being a history of Palestine's Christian Arabs the book focuses on Palestine's Christians during the formative period of Palestinian Arab national identity attentive to the broader topic of the relationship between nationalism and religion in this case between Arab identity and Islam Whereas until recently historians have tended to assume that national and religious identities are distinct and mostly mutually exclusive things more recent scholarship has addressed the fact that often there exists considerable overlap between the two though it should be noted often in ways that are not by any means inherently exclusive of those not belonging to the majority faith as is the case here The relationship is also an ever changing one hence the final chapter of the book which functions as something of an epilogue regarding the current status of Palestine's Christians vis vis their place in the nationalist cause and relationship with the broader Muslim population The book will be of interest to historians and scholars focused on the modern Middle East Palestinian history Muslim Christian inter communal relations and the relationship between nationalism and religion 'The House of the Priest' Sarah Irving, Charbel Nassif, Karène Sanchez Summerer, 2022-05-16 The House of the Priest presents and discusses the hitherto unpublished and untranslated memoirs of Niqula Khoury a senior member of the Orthodox Church and Arab nationalist in late Ottoman and British Mandate Palestine It discusses the complicated relationships between language religion diplomacy and identity in the Middle East in the interwar period This original annotated translation and accompanying articles provide a thorough explication of Khoury's memoirs and their significance for the social political and religious histories of twentieth century Palestine and Arab relations with the Greek Orthodox church Khoury played a major role in these dynamics as a leading member of the fight for Arab presence in the Greek dominated clergy and for an independent Palestine travelling in 1937 to Eastern Europe and the League of Nations on behalf of the national movement Contributors Sarah Irving Charbel Nassif Konstantinos Papastathis Kar ne Sanchez Summerer Cyrus Schayegh Nationalism and the Haram al-Sharif/Temple Mount Erik Freas, 2017-07-12 This book examines the manner in which the Haram al Sharif Temple Mount has been appropriated by both Palestinians and Israelis as a nationalist symbol legitimizing respective claims to the land From the late nineteenth century onward the site's significance became reconfigured within the context of modern nationalist discourses yet despite the originally secular nature of Palestinian and Israeli nationalisms the holy site's importance to Islam and Judaism respectively has gradually altered the character of both in a manner blurring the line between religious and national identities A Liminal Church Maria Chiara Rioli, 2020-08-25 The history of the Palestine War does not only concern military history It also involves social humanitarian and religious history as in the case of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Jerusalem A Liminal

Church offers a complex narrative of the Latin patriarchal diocese commonly portrayed as monolithically aligned with anti Zionist and anti Muslim positions during the long year of 1948 Making use of largely unpublished archives in the Middle East Europe and the United States including the recently released Pius XII papers Maria Chiara Rioli depicts a church engaged in multiple and sometimes contradictory pastoral initiatives amid harsh battles relief missions for Palestinian refugees theological reflections on Jewish converts to Catholicism political relations with the Israeli and Jordanian authorities and liturgical responses to a fluid and uncertain scenario The pieces of this history include the Jerusalem grand mufti s appeal to Pius XII to support the Arab cause the Catholic liturgies for peace and international mobilization during the Palestine War and Suez crisis refugees petitioning the patriarch for aid and Jewish converts establishing Christian kibbutzim New archival collections and records reveal hidden aspects of the lives of women children and other silenced actors faith communities and religious institutions during and after 1948 connecting narratives that have been marginalized by a dominant historiography more focused on military campaigns or confessional conflicts A Liminal Church weaves diocesan history with global history In the momentous decade from 1946 to 1956 the study of the transnational Jerusalem Latin diocese as split between Israel Jordan Egypt and Cyprus with ties to diaspora and religious international networks and comprising clergy from all over the world attests to the possibilities of contrapuntal narratives reintroducing complexity to a deeply and painfully polarized debate exposing false assumptions and situating changes and ruptures in a long term perspective Islam under the Palestine Mandate Nicholas E. Roberts,2016-11-30 Concerns about the place of Islam in Palestinian politics are familiar to those studying the history of the modern Middle East A significant but often misunderstood part of this history is the rise of Islamic opposition to the British in Mandate Palestine during the 1920s and 1930s Across the empire imperial officials wrestled with the question of how to rule over a Muslim majority countries and came to see traditional Islamic institutions as essential for maintaining order Islam under the Palestine Mandate tells the story of the search for a viable Islamic institution in Palestine and the subsequent invention of the Supreme Muslim Council As a body with political recognition institutional autonomy and financial power the council was designed to be a counterweight to the growing popularity of nationalism among Palestinians However rather than extinguishing the revolutionary capacity of the colonized it would become a significant opponent of British rule under its highly controversial president the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem Hajj Amin al Husayni Making extensive use of primary sources from British and Israeli archives this book offers an innovative account of the Supreme Muslim Council s place within a colonial project that aimed to control Palestinian religion and politics Roberts argues against the standard view that the council s creation was an act of appeasement towards Muslim opinion showing how British actions were guided by techniques of imperial administration used elsewhere in the empire Christians under the Crescent and Muslims under the Cross c.630 - 1923 Luigi Berto,2020-12-30 This book examines the status that rulers of one faith conferred onto their subjects belonging to a different one how the rulers handled relationships with them and the interactions between subjects of the Muslim and Christian religions The chronological arc of this volume spans from the first conquests by the Arabs in the Near East in the 630s to the exchange between Turkey and Greece in 1923 of the Orthodox Christians and Muslims residing in their territories Through organized topics Berto analyzes both similarities and differences in Christian and Muslim lands and emphasizes how coexistences and conflicts took directions that were not always inevitable Primary sources are used to examine the mentality of those who composed them and of their audiences In doing so the book considers the nuances and all the features of the multifaceted experiences of Christian subjects under Muslim rule and of Muslim subjects under Christian rule Christians under the Crescent and Muslims under the Cross is the ideal resource for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars interested in the relationships between Christians and Muslims religious minorities and the Near East and the Mediterranean from the Middle Ages to the early twentieth century

Secular Nationalism and Citizenship in Muslim Countries Kail C. Ellis, 2018-01-12 This edited volume examines the importance and significance of the Christian population in the Middle East and North Africa from the rise of Islam to present day Specifically the authors focus on the contributions of Christians to Arab politics economy and law Using the current plight of Christians in the Muslim world Iraq Syria Lebanon Palestine and Egypt the contributors analyze the origins of the crises and propose recommendations and strategies to foster religious freedom human rights and an inclusive political system that ensures equality of citizenship for all communities to participate fully in their societies

European Cultural Diplomacy and Arab Christians in Palestine, 1918-1948 Karène Sanchez Summerer, Sary Zananiri, 2020-11-30 This open access book investigates the transnationally connected history of Arab Christian communities in Palestine during the British Mandate 1918-1948 through the lens of the birth of cultural diplomacy Relying predominantly on unpublished sources it examines the relationship between European cultural agendas and local identity formation processes and discusses the social and religious transformations of Arab Christian communities in Palestine via cultural lenses from an entangled perspective The 17 chapters reflect diverse research interests from case studies of individual archives to chapters that question the concept of cultural diplomacy more generally They illustrate the diversity of scholarship that enables a broad based view of how cultural diplomacy functioned during the interwar period but also the ways in which its meanings have changed The book considers British Mandate Palestine as an internationalized node within a transnational framework to understand how the complexity of cultural interactions and agencies engaged to produce new modes of modernity

Routledge Handbook on Palestine Michael Dumper, Amneh Badran, 2024-12-30 This Handbook provides a broad overview of Palestinian history society politics and culture across different contexts and periods revealing the rich and varied dimensions of Palestine To capture the diversity of Palestinian scholarship and to introduce readers to a mix of approaches and perspectives both internationally established and emerging Palestinian scholars have contributed The Handbook attempts to avoid narrowly framing Palestine around the Israeli Palestinian conflict incorporating postcolonial approaches attentive to a broader range of hitherto overlooked actors While a significant proportion of the Handbook examines the contemporary period it is divided up into four sections that together provide a detailed overview of the main developments in the region A historical section that contextualizes the complex historical formation of contemporary Palestine perhaps best regarded as a country but not yet a state A section exploring the society geography economy and identity of Palestine A section on the political significance of Palestine covering the dynamics between Jewish nationalism Zionism and Palestinian nationalism A final section on culture touching on architecture literature music cuisine education and contemporary art Providing a deep analysis of the Palestinian perspective the Handbook will prove valuable reading for anyone interested in the history politics and society of Palestine and the Middle East Palestinian Rituals of Identity Awad

Halabi,2023-01-17 An innovative approach to modern Palestinian history as viewed through a study of the Prophet Moses festival from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century The Global Pontificate of Pius XII Simon Unger-Alvi,Nina Valbousquet,2024-08-01 In 2020 the Vatican opened its archives for the pontificate of Pius XII 1939 1958 the pope that led the Catholic Church during WWII the Holocaust and the beginning of the Cold War The Global Pontificate of Pius XII brings together historians who were among the first to consult the previously unseen Vatican materials These long awaited records allow for an expansion of the current historiography beyond the pope s biography Methodologically the volume works to transcend the rigidity of religious history and engage with new approaches in global transnational and postcolonial history to re introduce questions surrounding religion into modern post war historiography Missions and Preaching ,2022-09-12

Based on a connected relational and multidisciplinary approach history ethnography political science and theology Mission and Preaching tackles the notion of mission through the analysis of preaching activities and religious dynamics across Christianity Islam and Judaism in the Middle East and North Africa from the late 19th century until today The 13 chapters reveal points of contact exchange and circulation considering the MENA region as a central observatory The volume offers a new chronology of the missionary phenomenon and calls for further cross cutting approaches to decompartmentalise it arguing that these approaches constitute useful entry points to shed new light on religious dynamics and social transformations in the MENA region Contributors Necati Alkan Federico Alpi Gabrielle Angey Armand Aupiais Katia Boissevain Naima Bouras Philippe Bourmaud Gaetan du Roy S verine Gabry Thienpont Maria Chiara Giorda Bernard Heyberger Emir Mahieddin Michael Marten Norig Neveu Maria Chiara Rioli Kar ne Sanchez Summerer Heather Sharkey Ester Sigill S bastien Tank Storper Emanuela Trevisan Semi Annalaura Turiano and Vincent Vilmain Palestine and

Israel Meindert Dijkstra,2023-08-22 Republished in an English edition as the modern state of Israel prepares to celebrate its seventy fifth anniversary in 2023 this book presents a history of Israel and Palestine up to the foundation of that modern state Stretching from the thirteenth century BCE until the First World War it is a concealed history of a mixed multitude of winners and losers living in the same land It can be read as a regional history of the Southern Levant written in light of modern historical and archaeological research But it can also help shed light on the Israeli Palestinian question It contributes to a better understanding of why the Palestinians regardless of where they live have remained rooted in their patrimony Palestine and why they as a people now as ever are entitled to a land and state of their own Palestine's Christians and the Nationalist Cause Erik Freas,2024-12-09 This book provides an historical overview of Palestine s Christian communities and their role in the Palestinian nationalist movement during the late Ottoman and British mandatory periods More than being a history of Palestine s Christian Arabs the book focuses on Palestine s Christians during the formative period of Palestinian Arab national identity attentive to the broader topic of the relationship between nationalism and religion in this case between Arab identity and Islam Whereas until recently historians have tended to assume that national and religious identities are distinct and mostly mutually exclusive things more recent scholarship has addressed the fact that often there exists considerable overlap between the two though it should be noted often in ways that are not by any means inherently exclusive of those not belonging to the majority faith as is the case here The relationship is also an ever changing one hence the final chapter of the book which functions as something of an epilogue regarding the current status of Palestine s Christians vis vis their place in the nationalist cause and relationship with the broader Muslim population The book will be of interest to historians and scholars focused on the modern Middle East Palestinian history Muslim Christian inter communal relations and the relationship between nationalism and religion Palestina en Israël Meindert Dijkstra,2018-08-14 Meindert Dijkstra onthult de verzwegen geschiedenis v r de stichting van Isra l in 1948 en benadrukt het Palestijnse erfgoed en recht op land Palestina en Isra l van Meindert Dijkstra is een wetenschappelijke historische studie over de onbekende geschiedenis van Palestina en Isra l v r de stichting van de staat Isra l in 1948 Het is een verzwegen geschiedenis van winnaars en verliezers in hetzelfde land van de 13e eeuw voor Christus tot aan de Eerste Wereldoorlog Dit boek helpt te begrijpen waarom de Palestijnen wat ook hun herkomst is geweest al eeuwenlang geworteld zijn in hun erfgoed Palestina en nog altijd recht hebben op een eigen land volk en staat Meindert Dijkstra 1946 is emeritus predikant van de Protestantse kerk in Nederland Hij doceerde Oude Testament en Oud oosterse godsdiensten en culturen aan het Evangelisch Koptisch Seminarie te Ca ro en was als universitair docent werkzaam aan de Faculteit Godgeleerdheid te Utrecht in hetzelfde vakgebied Arab Christians in British Mandate Palestine Noah Haiduc-Dale,2013-03-18 Recent conflict in the Middle East has caused some observers to ask if Muslims and Christians can ever coexist History suggests that relations between those two groups are not predetermined but are the product of particular social and political circumstances This book examines Muslim Christian relations during an earlier period of political and social upheaval and explores the process of establishing new forms of national and religious identification Palestine s Arab Christian minority actively engaged with the Palestinian nationalist movement throughout the period of British rule 1917 1948 Relations between Muslim and Christian Arabs were sometimes strained yet in Palestine as in other parts of the world communalism became a specific response to political circumstances

While Arab Christians first adopted an Arab nationalist identity a series of outside pressures including British policies the rise of a religious conflict between Jews and Muslims and an increase in Islamic identification among some Arabs led Christians to adhere to more politicized religious groupings by the 1940s Yet despite that shift Christians remained fully nationalist insisting that they could be both Arab and Christian

Dilemmas of Attachment Bård Kårtveit, 2014-09-04 This book offers an ethnographic account of contemporary Christian Palestinian lives in the Occupied Palestinian Territories Through individual life stories Bård Kårtveit shows how Christians in the District of Bethlehem strive to live meaningful lives Lives which are shaped by Christian Muslim relations within the national community the impact of Israeli presence in the Palestinian Territories migration and homeland diaspora relationships and which are heavily influenced by changes in their local community and traditional family structures By situating these stories in the changing political contexts of Palestine from late Ottoman to Israeli Palestinian Authority rule the author engages with these general processes of patriarchal resistance to social change the role of minorities in nation building processes the impact of Western interventions in the region the rise of political Islam and the impact of emigration in the Arab World

Muslim-Christian Conflicts Suad Joseph, 2019-10-10 What does religion mean in people's daily lives In what ways is it a component of ethnic identity How do religious identities and structures relate to other social identities and structures and to political and economic institutions and behavior How can Muslim Christian relations be understood in the context of the emergence of the world capitalist system These are some of the questions addressed by the authors of this volume Their collective goal growing out of a desire to understand the continuing war in Lebanon is to study the circumstances under which religious differences become politically salient
