Muslim Networks and Transnational Communities in and Across Europe Stefano Allievi, Jørgen S. Nielsen, 2003 This collection of twelve papers provides case studies and thematic reflections on the growing transnational networking of European Muslims and their involvement with contemporary global Islam The volume pays particular attention to the mechanisms and significance of this phenomenon

Political, Social and Religious Studies of the Balkans Raphael Israeli and Ana Dimitrovska, 2021-05-24 This volume explores the roots and centennial development of radical Islam in the Balkans since the rise of early Muslim fundamentalists in the Muslim world in the early 20th century It also follows current militant Muslim movements which have grown in the world and were the direct trigger of the Bosnia war 1992 5 The book also clarifies the parallels between the predominant events in the world of Islam during the past century specific developments in Balkan Islam in general and of Bosnia in particular Mutual Othering Ahmed Idrissi Alami,2013-07-18 For the first time readings of Moroccan travel writing in Arabic are juxtaposed with French and British writing about Morocco in a critical exploration of nineteenth century concepts of modernity Ahmed Idrissi Alami investigates the complex dynamics concerning colonial expansion military conflict and societal values Mutual Othering sets out to rethink generally accepted concepts of European modernity by critically examining its production and contestation within a subaltern context in which the native other in this case religious scholars or imams accompanying political missions to Paris and London presents aspects of European culture to elite members of the Moroccan imperial court This work also connects the arguments of these texts to the rethinking of tradition and modernity the rhetoric of reform democracy and the Arab state and the compatibility of Islam with the West and secular values in the post 9 11 world The inclusion of citations in the original French and Arabic alongside English translations allows a range of readers to enjoy this critical addition to the fields of literature travel writing North African studies history international relations and philosophy as well as cultural and religious studies Travel Narratives from the Age of Discovery Peter C. Mancall,2006 This is a primary source collection of narratives about the travel and discovery in North and South America Africa Asia and Europe in the 16th century Muslim Turkistan Bruce Privratsky,2013-11-19 This ethnography of Muslim life among the Kazaks of Central Asia describes the sacralisation of land and ethnic identity local understanding of Islamic purity the Kazak ancestor cult and domestic spirituality and pilgrimage to the tombs of Sufi saints Moving Places Nataša Gregorič Bon,Jaka Repič,2016-09-01 Moving Places draws together contributions from Europe Latin America Asia and Africa exploring practices and experiences of movement non movement and place making The book centers on moving places places with locations that are not fixed but relative Locations appearing to be reasonably stable such as home and homeland are in fact always subject to practices imaginaries and politics of movement Bringing together original ethnographic contributions with a clear theoretical focus this volume spans the fields of anthropology human geography migration and border studies and serves as teaching material in related programs The Fate of the Jews in the Early Islamic Near East Phillip Lieberman,2022-06-23 In this book Phillip Lieberman revisits one of the foundational narratives of medieval Jewish history that the rise of Islam led the Jews of Babylonia the largest Jewish community prior to the rise of Islam to abandon a livelihood based on agriculture and move into urban crafts and long distance trade Here he presents an alternative account that reveals the complexity of interfaith relations in early Islam Using Jewish and Islamic chronicles legal materials and the rich documentary evidence of the Cairo Geniza Lieberman demonstrates that Jews initially remained on the rural periphery after the Islamic conquest of Iraq Gradually they assimilated

to an emerging Islamic identity as the new religion took shape sapping towns and villages of their strength Simultaneously a small elite group of merchants and communal leaders migrated westward Lieberman here explores their formative influence on the Jewish communities of the southern Mediterranean that flourished under Islamic conquest

Making Muslim Space in North America and Europe Barbara Daly Metcalf, 2023-04-28 Focusing on the private and public use of space this volume explores the religious life of the new Muslim communities in North America and Europe Unlike most studies of immigrant groups these essays concentrate on cultural practices and expressions of everyday life rather than on the political issues that dominate today's headlines The authors emphasize the cultural strength and creativity of communities that draw upon Islamic symbols and practices to define Muslim space against the background of a non-Muslim environment The range of perspectives is broad encompassing middle class professionals mosque congregations factory workers in France and the north of England itinerant African traders and prison inmates in New York The truism that Islam is a religion of the word takes on concrete meaning as these disparate communities find ways to elaborate word centered ritual and to have the visual and aural presence of sacred words in the spaces they inhabit The volume includes 46 black and white photographs that illustrate Muslim populations in Edmonton Philadelphia the Green Haven Correction Facility Manhattan Marseilles Berlin and London among other places The focus on space directs attention to the new kinds of boundaries and consciousness that exist not only for these Muslim populations but for people from all backgrounds in today's ever more integrated world This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 Focusing on the private and public use of space this volume explores the religious life of the new Muslim communities in North America and Europe Unlike most studies of immigrant groups these essays concentrate on cultural practices and expressions of Islamic Traditions and Muslim Youth in Norway Christine Jacobsen, 2010-12-17 A major question regarding Islam in Europe concerns the religiosity of Muslim youth a category currently epitomizing both the fears and hopes of multicultural Europe How are Islamic traditions engaged and reworked by young people born and educated in European societies and which modes of religiosity will they shape in the future Providing an in depth ethnographic account from Norway this book engages comparative research on Islam and young Muslims from across Europe focusing on Islamic revitalization Muslim identity politics changing configurations of religious authority and the formation of gendered religious subjectivities The author discusses anthropological and other social science theorizing in order to examine religious continuities and discontinuities in a context of international migration globalization and secular modernity Transnational Muslim Politics Peter G. Mandaville, 2003-08-27 This radical book argues that translocal forces are leading the emergence of a wider Muslim public sphere It will be invaluable for researchers in
