Muslim Women Throughout The World A Bibliography:

Muslim Women Throughout the World Michelle Kimball, B. R. Von Schlegell, 1997-01-01 This bibliography covers about 3000 English language books and articles published in the 1990-1995 period on women in the Muslim world. Works are listed alphabetically by author with an index including both geographical and topical headings. It includes an annotated Top 50 list.

Inscribing South Asian Muslim Women Tahera Aftab, 2007-11-30 With its trans-historic and comprehensive annotated sources, this volume serves as a kaleidoscope through which the reader glimpses the shifting patterns of the private and the public lives of South Asian Muslim women and guides for further research and exploration. Women, Patronage, and Self-Representation in Islamic Societies D. Fairchild Ruggles, 2000-08-03 The first to combine the study of representation, gender theory, and Muslim women from a historical and geographical perspective, this book examines where women have represented themselves in art, architecture, and the written word in the Muslim world. The authors explore the gendering and implicit power relations present in the positioning of subject and object in the visual field and look specifically at occasions when women publically adopted the stance of the viewer, speaker, writer, or patron.

Women of Kurdistan: A Historical and Bibliographic Study Shahrzad Mojab, Amir Hassanpour, 2021-04-19 Women of Kurdistan: A Historical and Bibliographic Study documents a century-long history of Kurdish women's struggles against oppressive gender relations and state violence. It speaks to bibliographic silences on Kurdish women, silences that are systemic and structured with many factors contributing to their reproduction. The book records extensive literature on violence perpetrated by the family, community, and the state, as well as presenting the reader with a vibrant archive of resistance and struggle of Kurdish women. The analysis avoids the fashionable state-centered scholarship which purifies processes of nation-building, state-building, and disguises their violence. The image depicted of the women of Kurdistan in this bibliography is shaped also by the languages we have chosen: English, French, and German. It is a record of material in languages that are not spoken by the majority of the Kurds. It will therefore be different from a bibliography of works in the Kurdish language which have a majority of Kurdish authors with more entries on topics such as poetry, fiction, education, and arts. Love and learning made the making of this bibliography imaginable. It began more than 20 years ago when Amir was expanding his theoretical ground for class analysis of nationalism and peasant movement in the Kurdish region of Mukriyan. Hassanpour, 2021. Simultaneously, I was engaged with debates on Marxist feminism and transnational feminism while grappling with post-al tendencies in feminism such as post-colonialism, post-structuralism, and post-modernism. We wanted to better understand the explanatory power and political implications of Marx's dialectical historical materialism in explicating the intersecting and refracting relations of gender, class, race, culture, nation, and nationalism. This commitment nonetheless did not remain in the realm of epistemology as a disembodied intellectual exercise. As a member of a dominant nation, a Shirazi-born Iranian, I wanted to critically confront this national identity and the sense of belonging. Amir sought to scrutinize patriarchal structures and gender relations in Kurdish history society culture and nation This intertwined mind and heart desire put us onto a path of renewed discoveries of our personal and intellectual relations In a nutshell this was the beginning of the making of Women of Kurdistan A Historical and Bibliographic Study Women of Kurdistan provides a meticulously researched source book for readers interested in women gender and sexuality in Kurdistan and the Middle East It covers a wealth of bibliographic material including both scholarly and non academic publications many of which have not previously been accessible to broader audiences But Women of Kurdistan is more than a source of information It is also an eloquent reflection on the entanglement of knowledge production and political power and a call to recognize scholarship s potential in shaping historical change Above all it is a passionate statement about the impossibility to comprehend the intersection of colonial capitalist and nationalist forces without attention to women s lives and struggles Marlene Sch fers British Academy Newton International Fellow University of Cambridge Women of Kurdistan is simply an excellent template for how to chronicle women s resistance politics By framing the Kurdish women s struggles within a historical materialism under different modes of production and discussing the political influence of five different nations on the Kurdish peoples the authors offer a rich context that surpasses the common fetishization of women s armed resistance Internationally known for their Marxist and feminist works Mojab and Hassanpour apply theories of nationalism capitalism peasantry knowledge production and relationship between state and non state to understand the Kurdish experience while honouring the struggle voice and poetry of Kurdish women activists The book is as unapologetically critical of regional and religious hegemonies as it is of Kurdish patriarchies and is candid about the slipperiness of the concept of the ideal Kurdish woman while skeptical of the benefits of transnationalization for the women honoured in this book Afiya Zia author of Faith and Feminism Religious Agency or Secular Autonomy

Islam Obscured D. Varisco, 2005-02-15 Ethnographers have observed Muslims nearly everywhere Islam is practiced This study analyzes four seminal texts that have been read widely outside anthropology Two are by distinguished anthropologists on either side of the Atlantic Islam Observed by Clifford Geertz in 1968 and Muslim Society by Ernest Gellner in 1981 Two other texts are by Muslim scholars Beyond the Veil Fatima Mernissi in 1975 and Discovering Islam by Akbar Ahmed in 1988 Varisco argues that each of these four authors approaches Islam as an essentialized organic unity rather than letting Islams found in the field speak to the diversity of practice The textual truths engendered and far too often engineered in these idealized representations of Islam have found their way unscrutinized into an endless stream of scholarly works and textbooks Varisco's analysis goes beyond the rhetoric over what Islam is to the information from ethnographic research about what Muslims say they do and actually are observed to do The issues covered include Islam as a cultural phenomenon representation of the other Muslim gender roles politics of ethnographic authority and Orientalist discourse

(hb) ,2001 Inside the Gender Jihad Amina Wadud,2013-10-01 A world renowned professor of Islamic studies Amina Wadud has long been at the forefront of what she calls the gender jihad the struggle for justice for women within the global Islamic community In 2005 she made international headlines when she helped to promote new traditions by leading the Muslim Friday prayer in New York City provoking a firestorm of media controversy and kindling charges of blasphemy among conservative Muslims worldwide In this provocative book Inside the Gender Jihad Wadud brings a wealth of experience from the trenches of the jihad to make a passionate argument for gender inclusiveness in the Muslim world Knitting together scrupulous scholarship with lessons drawn from her own experiences as a woman she explores the array of issues facing Muslim women today including social status education sexuality and leadership A major contribution to the debate on women and Islam Amina Wadud s vision for changing the status of women within Islam is both revolutionary and urgent States and Women's Rights Mounira Charrad,2001 At a time when the situation of women in the Islamic world is of global interest here is a study that unlocks the mystery of why women s fates vary so greatly from one country to another Mounira M Charrad analyzes the distinctive nature of Islamic legal codes by placing them in the larger context of state power in various societies Charrad argues that many analysts miss what is going on in Islamic societies because they fail to recognize the logic of the kin based model of social and political life which she contrasts with the Western class centered model In a skillful synthesis she shows how the logic of Islamic legal codes and kin based political power affect the position of women These provide the key to Charrad s empirical puzzle why after colonial rule women in Tunisia gained broad legal rights even in the absence of a feminist protest movement while despite similarities in culture and religion women remained subordinated in post independence Morocco and Algeria Charrad s elegant theory crisp writing and solid scholarship make a unique contribution in developing a state building paradigm to discuss women s rights This book will interest readers in the fields of sociology politics law women s studies postcolonial studies Middle Eastern studies Middle Eastern history French history and Maghrib studies أف أف الـهـجـج 'Afāf al-Hājġ 'Alī,2001 Books and references on women from Palestinian library for the period of 1993 1997 bibliography Asian Muslim Women Huma Ahmed-Ghosh,2015-09-11 Presents multifaceted aspects of Asian Muslim women s lives and agencies This book resists the homogenization of Muslim women by detailing the diversity in their lives and by challenging the dominant paradigm of Arabized Islam as the sole interpreter of the faith Though much has been written on the Middle East there is a huge gap in research on Asia which has two thirds of the world s Muslim population These essays reveal that the lives of Muslim women are impacted not only by Islam but also by local politics class religion and ethnicity Through ethnographic research and other methodologies the contributors describe how economic globalization construction of sexualities and diasporic expectations shape women s lives The book focuses on women s negotiations and resistances to global national and local patriarchies in an attempt to empower themselves This book s greatest strength is the diversity of its scope both geographically and thematically without reducing Muslim women to particular roles and or identities Bahar Davary author of Women and the Qur'an A Study in Islamic Hermeneutics

Freedom through Submission: Muslim-talk in Contemporary Denmark Johannes Renders, 2021-03-01 In Freedom through Submission Johannes Renders explores Danish Muslim statements on human freedom Within a context where public talk of Islam is largely mediated by an incessant succession of controversies the notion of freedom is weaponized both by and against a growing Muslim community Danish Muslims take issue with liberal associations of the notion with autonomy and choice and seek to reconfigure the public debate that pits freedom against Islam This book brings out a sophisticated and reflective Muslim discourse in which freedom is something individuals must simultaneously exercise surrender and achieve through a cultivated relinquishing of the will to Allah

Ethnicities and Global Multiculture Jan Nederveen Pieterse, 2007-03-15 Arguing that ethnicity and multiculturalism are essential for understanding globalization Jan Nederveen Pieterse offers one of the first sustained treatments of the reach of these key forces beyond a limited national context He shows that multiethnicity preceded the nation state by millennia but argues that states feeling the threat to their national identities seek to control or suppress it Contemporary multiculturalism another attempt to regulate multiethnicity is a work in progress in which dramas of global inequality are played out This groundbreaking book adopts a kaleidoscopic and comparative historical perspective that intertwines strands of social science and western and non western research as a strategy to overcome the disciplinary and regional fragmentation of most discussions Moving beyond worn notions of ethnicity and multiculturalism Nederveen Pieterse proposes ethnicities and global multiculture as alternative wide angle perspectives on cultural diversity Global multiculture he convincingly demonstrates offers a fresh account of layered cultural dynamics amid accelerated globalization
