Muslim Youth and the 9/11 Generation Adeline Masquelier, Benjamin F. Soares, 2016-06-15 The contributors to this volume who draw from a variety of disciplines show how the study of Muslim youth at this particular historical juncture is relevant to thinking about the anthropology of youth the anthropology of Islamic and Muslim societies and the post 9 11 world more generally

How Nature Works Sarah Besky, Alex Blanchette, 2019-10-15 The ends of work Exhaustion and endurance in sick landscapes cheap tea and the work of monoculture in the Doon Valley India Sarah Besky The concentration of killing soy labor and the long green revolution Gregg Hetherington Making monotony bedsores and other signs of an overworked hog Alex Blanchette Labor struggles The job of finding food is a joke orangutan rehabilitation work subsistence and social relations Juno Salazar Parre as The heat of work dissipation solidarity and kidney disease in Nicaragua Alex Nading Metabolic relations Korean red ginseng and the ecologies of modern life Eleana Kim How guinea pigs work figurations and gastro politics in Peru Mar a Elena Garcia Industrial materials labor landscapes and the industrial honeybee Jake Kosek Futures of work Cultural analysis of microbial worlds John Hartigan Rhapsody in the forest wild mushrooms and the multispecies multitude Shiho Satsuka Kamadhenu's last stand on animal refusal to work Naisargi N Dave

Puebloan Societies Peter M. Whiteley, 2018-10-15 Puebloan sociocultural formations of the past and present are the subject of the essays collected here The contributors draw upon the insights of archaeology ethnology and linguistic anthropology to examine social history and practice including kinship groups ritual sodalities architectural forms economic exchange environmental adaptation and political order as well as their patterns of transmission over time and space The result is a window onto how major Puebloan societies came to be and how they have changed over time As an interdisciplinary conjunction Puebloan Societies demonstrates the value of reengagement among anthropological subfields too often isolated from one another The volume is an analytical whole greater than the sum of its parts a new synthesis in this fascinating region of human cultural history

The Psychology of Women Under Patriarchy Holly F. Mathews, Adriana M. Manago, 2019-11-15 In the MeToo era US women continue to struggle with whether or not to report sexual harassment while women living in parts of rural Pakistan and Mexico try to pursue educational and employment opportunities without directly refusing parental wishes for them to marry Despite rapidly changing social and economic conditions worldwide patriarchal practices remain remarkably widespread and persistent Noting the need to move beyond a dichotomy of accommodation and resistance the contributors to this volume draw upon field research and in depth qualitative data from different parts of the world to explore the reasons for women's varied psychological responses to patriarchy These feminist scholars bridge preexisting divides between bio psychological sociological and cultural perspectives to explain the ways that women's desires goals and identities interact with culturally situated systems in order to develop more complex theories about the psychological underpinnings of patriarchy and to inform more socially progressive policies to improve the lives of women and men globally Governing Gifts Erica Caple James, 2019-04-15 This collection investigates the intersections between faith based charity and secular statecraft The contributors trace the connections among piety philanthropy policy and policing Rather than attempt to delimit what constitutes so called faith based aid and institutions or to reify the concept of the state they seek to understand how faith and organized religious charity can be mobilized at times on behalf of the state to govern populations and their practices In exploring the relationship between faith based charity and the state this volume contributes to discussions of the boundaries between public and private realms and to studies on the resurgence of religion in politics and public policy The contributors demonstrate how the borders between faith based and secular domains of governance cannot be clearly defined Ultimately the book aims to expand the parameters of what has typically been a US centric discussion of faith based interventions as it explores the concepts of faith charity security and governance within a global perspective New Geospatial Approaches to the Anthropological Sciences Robert L. Anemone, Glenn C.

Conroy, 2018-07-15 Arguing that geospatial analysis holds great promise for much anthropological inquiry the contributors have designed this volume to show how the powerful tools of GIScience can be used to benefit a variety of research programs

Muslim Youth and the 9/11 Generation Adeline Masquelier, Benjamin F. Soares, 2016-06-15 A new cohort of Muslim youth has arisen since the attacks of 9 11 facilitated by the proliferation of recent communication technologies and the Internet By focusing on these young people as a heterogeneous global cohort the contributors to this volume who draw from a variety of disciplines show how the study of Muslim youth at this particular historical juncture is relevant to thinking about the anthropology of youth the anthropology of Islamic and Muslim societies and the post 9 11 world more generally These scholars focus on young Muslims in a variety of settings in Asia Africa Europe the Middle East and North America and explore the distinct pastimes and performances processes of civic engagement and political action entrepreneurial and consumption practices forms of self fashioning and aspirations and struggles in which they engage as they seek to understand their place and make their way in a transformed world Negotiating Structural Vulnerability in Cancer

Control Julie Armin, Nancy J. Burke, Laura Eichelberger, 2019-03 What can case studies about the lived experiences of cancer contribute to an interest in the concept of structural vulnerability And can a consideration of structural vulnerability enhance applied anthropological work in cancer prevention and control To answer these questions the contributors in this volume explore what it means to be structurally vulnerable how structural vulnerabilities intersect with cancer risk diagnosis care seeking caregiving clinical trial participation and survivorship and how differing local national and global political contexts and histories inform vulnerability These case studies illustrate how quotidian experiences of structural vulnerability influence and are altered by a cancer diagnosis at various points in the continuum of care In examining cancer as a set of diseases and biosocial phenomena the contributors extend structural vulnerability beyond its original conceptualization to encompass spatiality temporality and biosocial shifts in both individual and institutional arrangements Rhetoric, Fantasy, and the War on Terror Vaheed Ramazani, 2020-11-16 Drawing on psychoanalytic and semiotic perspectives this book examines discourses mediating the global War on Terror including governmental speeches legal documents print and broadcast journalism and military memoirs The book argues that these discourses motivate and are motivated by a myth of imminent harm that purportedly justifies a series of preemptive measures such as war torture and targeted killing as well as an array of intrusive domestic security procedures such as profiling and mass surveillance Dominant themes include selective compassion in the mainstream media the language of war and the sacrificial sublime asymmetrical warfare and the nostalgia for total war weaponized drones and just war theory and the role of American exceptionalism in normalizing endless war Scholars and students alike will take interest in this original contribution to the fields of cultural studies psychoanalysis media studies rhetoric critical international relations and international humanitarian law and ethics El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,1985
