Mustard Seed Vs Mcworld Reinventing Life And Faith For The Future:

Mustard Seed vs. McWorld Tom Sine, 1999-09-01 A guide for helping Christians understand the rapid fire global changes in society and grasp God's perspective of working through the seemingly insignificant to effect lasting change Working Together with God to Shape the New Millennium Gary Corwin, Kenneth B. Mulholland, 2000-06-01 This collection of presentations from the 1999 IFMA EFMA EMS Triennial Conference explores the incredibly ambitious purpose and challenging task of Working Together with God to Shape the New Millennium Topics include Biblical Foundations for the New Millennium Working Together Strategically and Leadership Needed for the New Millennium 2010Boston: The Changing Contours of World Mission and Christianity Todd M. Johnson, Rodney L. Petersen, Gina Bellofatto, Travis Myers, 2012-01-09 In November 2010 three hundred faculty students and others interested in Christian mission gathered in Boston to consider how the world the global church and Christian missions have changed since the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in 1910 and to reflect on the three previous centennial conferences Tokyo 2010 in May Edinburgh 2010 in June and Cape Town 2010 in October Participants at 2010Boston were not delegates from churches and mission agencies but were students and scholars of various aspects of world Christianity representing the Anglican Episcopal Evangelical mainline Protestant Orthodox and Roman Catholic traditions This conference volume consists of nine keynote messages five student presentations three reports from the other conferences and additional materials from or about 2010Boston The keynote messages address the history of mission especially in and from Boston and the current global context for mission and suggest modes for future Christian engagement with the world and one another Student papers address such conference themes as unity in mission mission and postcolonialism and discipleship in context The closing chapter surveys the conference's eight themes and summarizes the outcomes of the 2010Boston process Reframing Spiritual Formation Edward H. Hammett, 2002 Reframing Spiritual Formation takes seriously the realities of an increasingly secular pluralistic and spiritually thirsty population base most churches face with fear yet are called to reach and disciple Hammett provides succinct overviews of the challenges and opportunities these realities bring to the doors of churches and their leaders His primary focus is on facilitative questions and practical ideas for discipling the church and the unchurched who are seeking grounding and meaning in this rapidly changing world Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 12, Special Issue 2 Michael R. Nothing Short of Conversion Gerald W Schlabach Firearms and Moral Theology A Response Tobias Winright The Changing Face of World Missions (Encountering Mission) Michael Pocock, Gailyn Van Rheen, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10-01 The dramatic changes that have taken place both in global society and in the church have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century These trends include the rise of postmodernism the spiritual decline in the West and the advance of the gospel in the rest of the world and the impact of technology on society and missions The Changing Face of World Missions is for the mission minded church leader or lay person who wants to understand these trends Each chapter identifies and evaluates a trend examines it in light of Scripture and proposes a practical response Important terms are defined and sidebars help readers think through the issues on their own Live Like You Give a Damn! Tom Sine, 2016-04-05 Live Like You Give a Damn declares the very good news that God is raising up a new generation largely outside the church to bring impressive change to the lives of our neighbors locally and globally by creating innovative forms of social enterprise and community empowerment The even better news is that those of us within the church can join this changemaking celebration and discover creative new ways God can use our mustard seeds to make a more remarkable difference than we ever imagined possible In this book Tom Sine offers practical ways you can join those who are creating their best communities their best world and in the process their best lives Sine shows that in a world changing at warp speed following Jesus is a design opportunity It is not only an opportunity to design innovative ways to make a difference but also an opportunity to create lives with a difference in the way of Jesus that are simpler and more sustainable and to throw better parties along the way Why would anyone want to settle for less and miss the best Review on Coffee House Contemplative hReview on Hearts on Minds Review on Book Saint embed container position relative padding bottom 56 25% height 0 overflow hidden max width 100% embed container iframe embed container object embed container embed position absolute top 0 left 0 width 100% height 100% The Living Church ,2000 Good News to the Poor Tim Chester, 2013-07-31 Help them or tell them Be like Jesus or talk about Jesus Social action or gospel proclamation It seems the two are often pitted against each other as if they are mutually exclusive But the New Testament paints a different picture where both aspects are valued In this plea for a renewed understanding of the Christian calling Chester argues that faithfulness to the gospel necessitates a commitment to evangelism and social involvement To that end he structures the book around three basic theses 1 evangelism and social action are distinct activities 2 proclamation is central and 3 evangelism and social action are inseparable Responding to Christians in both camps Chester helps people to talk the talk and walk the walk The Younger Evangelicals Robert E. Webber, 2002-10-01 Robert E Webber has led worship workshops in every major city in the United States and Canada Through his conversations and contacts with a network of emerging church leaders he calls the younger evangelicals Webber sees how this new generation and their style of leadership is bringing change and renewal to the evangelical church These leaders who include those young in spirit as well as young in age have important insights to offer all generations faced with doing church in a rapidly changing postmodern culture The Younger Evangelicals explores the characteristics of these emerging leaders and provides an outlet for their stories Beginning with a brief overview of twentieth century evangelicalism Webber examines what is different about the twenty first century younger evangelicals way of thinking about faith and practicing church He allows them Ph D s and laypeople to speak in their own words on issues such as communication theology apologetics pastoral leadership evangelism worship and spiritual formation Thought provoking energizing and timely The Younger Evangelicals is a landmark book for pastors and church leaders culture watchers ministry students and worship leaders who want to prepare for and respond to the new evangelical awakening brought on by our changing cultural context Getting a Life Douglas B. Miller, 2023-11-28 Getting a Life Living Your Call is about finding meaning and purpose Writing from a Christian perspective but also addressing readers who embrace other worldviews it uses stories and examples to help readers examine their gifts experience and motivations as clues to God s direction for their lives Chapters are devoted to faith as an everyday experience identity how to be confident in what we know the importance of community moral health central issues of Christian faith and various worldview options as key elements on the way to understanding one s job and vocation Excellent for individual group or classroom use it serves as a primer for epistemology soteriology ecclesiology ethics and apologetics as well as worldview and culture studies while keeping its focus on practical questions of life engagement and the choice of profession The book offers help for developing a personal mission statement and encouragement for life giving disciplines Stott on the Christian Life Tim Chester, 2020-05-07 John Stott was a twentieth century pastor theologian widely hailed for his heart for missions and expository preaching Even today Stott s legacy continues to influence churches around the world As both a faithful preacher and a thoughtful writer Stott profoundly shaped evangelicalism s contemporary understanding of Christianity through an approach to the Christian life founded on the word shaped by the cross and characterized by the pursuit of Christlikeness in every area of life Tim Chester invites a new generation of readers to experience the Christian life as John Stott envisioned it not simply a theological puzzle to be solved but the daily practice of humble service and compassion found in the gospel of Jesus Christ A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 Become What You Are William W. Klein, 2006-10-02 New Testament scholar William W Klein presents the profound vision for spiritual formation that lies at the heart of the Sermon on the Mount Cultural Change & Your Church Michael Pocock, Joseph Henriques, 2007-02-01 In our communities composed of people from various cultures countries and backgrounds where does the church stand How representative is it And how can local churches best minister and evangelize within an increasingly multicultural society Cultural Change and Your Church is an invaluable resource for understanding the transformation of our cultural landscape and most importantly for learning how to embrace the resulting opportunities to minister to all people Michael Pocock and Joseph Henriques consider the Bible s examples and teaching related to diversity introduce several churches currently modeling cross cultural ministry and suggest hands on ways for church leaders to encourage change and proactive thinking

Roots and Remedies of the Dependency Syndrome in World Missions Robert Reese, 2010-06-17 The Christian movement is entering a new postcolonial era with centers of the faith on all continents American Christians have often felt uniquely qualified to lead this growing movement because of a long history of sending missionaries and funding mission projects Yet something is hampering the relationship between Western and non Western churches preventing the dynamic synergism that Christians might expect Roots and Remedies of the Dependency Syndrome in World Missions Robert Reese identifies this hindrance as the Dependency Syndrome a relic of colonial mission methods With three decades of experience in Zimbabwe Reese explains the roots of dependency and how this continues to cloud the vision of many well meaning Western Christians He documents the tragic results of relying too much on foreign ideas institutions personnel and funding that sideline non Western churches from fulfilling the Great Commission Reese addresses remedies for dependency examining healthy mission models tried and tested since the days of the apostle Paul From issues that arise from globalization to best mission practices in the twenty first century Roots and Remedies aims to achieve what most Christians are seeking but find elusive how all parts of the diverse Body of Christ around the world can cooperate productively to bring Christ where He is not now known without creating dependency

Of Merchants and Missions Andrew Peh, 2019-11-15 It has often been held that missions rode on the coattails of colonialism In the case of the British administered island of Singapore the pluriform missions of the Methodist missionaries demonstrated industry innovation and integrity which in many ways question the charge of compromise and complicity between missions and colonialism This historical survey presents the case that the Methodist missionaries collaborated with the colonial administration insofar where benefits might be gleaned from cooperation but were intuitively commandeered by a different commander in chief and whose primary motivation of love for the Lord for the people and for the land were objectively evident

Theology that Matters Darby Kathleen Ray, What difference does theological thinking make Does Christianity have any relevance for our secular globalized environmentally threatened world Specifically formulated for undergraduate and seminary courses in theology this volume answers a resounding yes Gathering many respected and original Christian thinkers who have been inspired by the example and work of theologian Sallie McFague this book engages such topics as God Christ revelation eschatology and church in three intertwined and pressing areas 1 our religious life and language in a secularized pluralistic society 2 our newly globalized economic life and 3 our threatened environmental life

Christians in an Age of Wealth Craig L. Blomberg, 2013-11-26 What does the Bible say about money material possessions and stewardship In Christians in an Age of Wealth Craig Blomberg addresses tough questions about the place and purpose of wealth and material possessions in a Christian's life He points to the goodness of wealth as God originally designed it but also surveys the Bible's many warnings against making an idol out of money Taking a close exegetical look at this topic as it's discussed in Scripture Blomberg answers the toughest questions about Christianity and wealth Is there any one key to keeping possessions in their proper God intended perspective Are there limits on how rich we should become or on how poor we should allow others to get What does a truly Christian economic system look like How does the Bible s teaching on wealth fit into the gospel Blomberg expounds upon how the sharing of goods and possessions is the key safeguard against both greed and covetousness He expands on the concept of giving generously even sacrificially to those who are needier demonstrating how Christians can participate in God s original good design for abundance and demonstrate the world altering gospel of Christ _____ Part of the Biblical Theology for Life series this practical and challenging book will help you and your church ground your worldly possessions on the solid foundation of biblical understanding and reflection Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel, 2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today s societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements Not surprisingly Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace justice life and the integrity of the environment Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church s engagement with society a concept he calls missio ecclesiology Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world missiologists missional church leaders and street level workers alike this work fuels fresh thinking about the church s role in cultural and social change
