My Best Race 50 Runners And The Finish Line Theyll Never Forget:

My Best Race Chris Cooper,2013-09-03 Fifty runners from the world s elite to passionate amateurs share the races they ll never forget in this fascinating and fresh look at competitive running Jon Sinclair former USA cross country and 10K champion RRCA Hall of Famer Every runner that enters a race has a unique motivation behind competing racing for the challenge for the achievement for the health benefits or for more personal reasons But whether they are twenty mile a day elite marathoners or twenty mile a week recreational runners each of them can invariably point to a singular performance as the best race I ever ran My Best Race is a collection of those singular performances In this inspirational collection fifty runners from Olympians and world champions to courageous disabled athletes and middle of the packers share their personal accounts of what they consider the best race they ever ran and why Contributors include a top marathoner who sacrifices his place on the Olympic team to pace his friend to the final qualifying spot at the Olympic Trials The Central Park Jogger who finishes a race she founded to benefit disabled athletes fourteen years after being left for dead from a brutal attack that gripped the nation an unheralded high school runner who beats a previously undefeated state champion and who goes on to become a two time Olympian the woman race organizers tried to physically remove from the male only Boston Marathon in 1967 and forty six other runners Such wonderful and inspiring stories by a diverse group of runners bravo Ryan Lamppa media director of Running USA What a fascinating concept A very unique and inspiring collection that gives great insight into the minds of runners Keith Brantly member of the 1996 US Olympic marathon team

My Best Race Chris Cooper,2013-09-03 Fifty runners from passionate amateurs to the world s elite share the races they ll never forget Every runner has a unique reason for competing racing for the challenge the achievement the health benefits or something more personal But whether they are twenty mile a day elite marathoners or twenty mile a week recreational runners each of them can invariably point to a singular performance as the best race i ever ran MY BEST RACE is a collection of those singular performances Fifty runners from Olympians to courageous disabled athletes to middle of the packers share personal accounts of what they consider the best race they ever ran and why Contributors include JEFF GALLOWAY A top marathoner sacrifices his place on the Olympic marathon team by pacing his friend to the final qualifying spot TRISHA MEILI The woman once known only as The Central Park Jogger crosses the finish line in the race she founded to benefit disabled athletes fourteen years after being left for dead from a brutal attack ED EYESTONE The unheralded runner comes out of nowhere to beat a previously undefeated state champion in a high school cross country race giving him the confidence to eventually become a four time NCAA champion and two time Olympian With excitement laughter tears and worn tread fifty runners recount their inspiring races and personal achievements

50 Ways to Leave Your 50'S Scott Ludwig,2015-02-20 In my fourth book In it for the Long Run one of the most popular chapters with the readers was You can call me Al It was all about my good friend Al Barker the only person Ive ever met who brakes with his left foot Wanting to capitalize on the popularity of using titles of Paul Simon songs I reviewed his repertoire for an applicable title for this book Since the book is about my last year on earth before turning 60 years of age I initially considered Slip Slidin Away but thought that might project a negative connotation towards getting older Instead I chose one of Simons more popular songs and gave it my own slant as I wanted to do 50 things Id never done before in the 12 months leading up to becoming a sexagenarian dont get the wrong idea it just means a person between 60 and 69 years of age On my 60th birthday December 10 2014 someone asked me how I felt I said just like I did when I was 59 Heck it was only yesterday although my grandson calls it lasterday which if you really think about it makes a lot more sense As for the 50 things Id never done before dont expect anything outrageous jumping out of an airplane dangerous wrestling an alligator or spectacular making a dinosaur appear but if I could my grandson would be SO impressed Just 50 things pretty much anyone could do as long as they have the right attitude And by right attitude I mean sometimes you just have to say what the ___ Just because I turned 60 doesnt mean I reached maturity overnight After all maturity is for old people

Life Still Goes On Curtis L. Hayes, 2013-06-05 Would you believe that several years ago my life was completely devastated to the point of giving up all hope That is when God s grace and mercy inspired me to turn the terrible catastrophe into an opportunity to write Life Still Goes On an exciting thrilling incredible fascinatingly extra ordinary unbelievable story of my life A father grandfather and great grandfather my experiences as a former public school teacher a former pastor in the United Methodist Church a former missionary with the Sudan Interior Mission in Liberia West Africa and a former substitute teacher with the Roswell Independent School District will be included in this book I have to laugh sometimes because my life has been like the rides at an amusement park up and down and up and down and around and around as Life Still Goes On by Curtis L Hayes I purchased a coffee cup in the thrift store for 10 cents and this is what it said CURTIS A likeable fellow Many favors he s done Patience his virtue The courteous one John Piatt I have never met Mr Piatt but he summarized my life up pretty good Like an eagle that soars high and swoops down low to catch an animal My life seems to have been much like that Up and down back and forth round and round I would go I loved the roller coaster the most At 81 years of age I am still enjoying the rides God inspired and allowed me to write the remarkable autobiography Life Still Goes On by Curtis L Hayes
