

The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a book cover or a digital artwork. It features several glowing green, ethereal wisps or smoke-like patterns that swirl and drift across the frame. Interspersed among these are delicate, intricate spider webs, some of which are also illuminated with a soft green glow. The overall mood is mysterious and Halloween-themed.

Sex at Night Manuel García, 2025-07-14 Manuel García writes about men the way they are not how fantasy wants them to be In Sex at Night desire erupts in locker rooms on construction sites in shared apartments where silence weighs more than words These are stories of real men virile unpolished sometimes distant always magnetic Lust simmers in glances in tension in the clash between restraint and instinct This is not porn This is raw masculine eroticism direct carnal and thick with the scent of skin The title story begins on an ordinary summer night Edouard is eighteen restless and haunted by the memory of a moment he shouldn't have seen his older brother Martin naked in the shower He tries to forget but the image stays When Martin asks to sleep in his room the night stretches long and charged the silence growing heavier with every breath they share in the dark The room was dim just the hum of a fan and the weight of things unsaid Martin's mattress creaked beside mine Then came the rustle rhythmic unmistakable I turned He didn't stop Just looked at me and said low and easy After the way you looked at me today Don't pretend you don't want this And I didn't Not anymore With ruthless clarity and unflinching sensuality García captures the moment when curiosity tips into hunger when proximity turns into touch Sex at Night is a collection of charged unapologetic stories that leave their mark like teeth on skin sharp hot and impossible to forget
